LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Edited By Miss Sarah Cook

One of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season was a gypsy party given last Saturday night on the school grounds by the Senior Epworth League as a farewell to the members who were leaving for college. Gay Japanese lanterns hung from the trees and a fortune teller's tent proved to be quite an attractive feature, while gaily attired "gypsies" refreshed themselves with ice cold lemonade served from an artistic rustic table banked with autumn leaves. "Hot dogs" were also prepared and served hot, with rolls and pickles. Everyone had a lovely time.
