WOLF CREEK

Old man Winter seems to have a tenacious hold on us. Wish he could take Webster's advice, that visitors should not take their visits too long.

A little addition to our road comment of last week. A young man whose father was sick, went to see his sweetheart, her father asked him how his father was and he replied "he's wusser." So are our community roads.

Mr. E. Caylor of Hothouse, Ga. and his son, Floyd, were pleasant callers here Monday.

Some of our local musical talent are planning a broadcast over the radio Station WWNC in a few weeks.

Mr. J. M. Simonds is attending court at Murphy, as a juror, this week.

The Sunday Schools in our section are still hibernating.

WARNE

Mr. Harley Grant, age 40, died at his home near here last Thursday morning after suffering with double pneumonia. He was a beloved neighbor and respected citizen of our community. He was buried in Shady Grove cemetery with the Rev. Henry Chambers officiating.

Mr. Grant is survived by his wife who was Miss Ila Mann before their marriage, and one daughter, Miss Bessie Grant, and aged father, Mr. Jess Grant of Franklin, N. C., one brother, James Grant, of Haywood County, and three sisters, Mrs. Arthur Ford, Mrs. Dora Clark and Mrs. Rose Wood.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ellis was buried at Copperhill church several days ago. The mother is doing nicely at this time.

Mr. Jess Swanson, father of Mr. Glen Swanson of this place was carried to Asheville and had his eye removed. Mr. Swanson had suffered great pain with his eye. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grant, Mr. Floyd Grant and Fred Elliott of Haywood were called here on account of the sickness and death of their brother and uncle, Harley Grant.

Jack Ford, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ford fell last Saturday and fractured his arm. Dr. J. M. May rendered medical aid.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Omar Sparks was seriously burned last week when it fell into a pot of boiling soap which was being made by its mother. We learn that it is slowly improving.

Friends were sorry to hear of Mr. Harve Carringer's misfortune in having his home at Murphy destroyed by fire with all contents. The report was that the family narrowly escaped with their lives from the burning building. Some months ago Mr. Carringer's touring car was stolen in Murphy and has never been found. Mr. Carringer was a former teacher in the Ogden school and was much loved by his people who regret to hear of his misfortune.

ANDREWS LOCALS

Little Miss Eleanor Cover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Giles W. Cover, gave a tea on last Thursday for Misses Ada Mae Pruett, Leila Owen, Nell Hall, Ruth Starr and Sallie Mae Alphin, teachers in the Andrews School.

Messrs. Lee Watkins and R. T. Heaton have been attending court this week. They have on for trial their case vs. A. M. Simonds and National Surety in connection with the failure on the part of A. M. Simonds, former Register of Deeds to index an instrument they had recorded during his term as Register.

Mrs. T. E. Bristol, who had an operation for the removal of her tonsils some weeks ago, began teaching last week, and this week had a relapse and is now confined to her bed.

Mrs. R. A. Dewar while on duty as a teacher in the Andrews school last Thursday fell on the snow and ice and fractured one of the bones in her arm and badly wrenched the other one. She has been unable to teach since.

Head and Back Quit Hurting
"A FEW years ago, I found that I was very weak and nothing I ate seemed to give me any strength," writes Mrs. R. B. Douglas, 704 South Congress St., Jackson, Miss.
"I suffered intense pain in my head and back. At times I would have to hold to something to steady myself, so as to do my little work. I was worried about my condition."
"My mother told me that I should take Cardui. After taking two bottles, I felt stronger, but I kept on taking it until my head and back quit hurting. I took about six bottles in all, and have never quit praising Cardui."
