

ANDREWS BRIEFS

The 4-act comedy, "Home Ties" was accorded a hearty welcome by the people of Andrews Thursday night at the high school auditorium. This popular attraction was staged by talent from Bryson City in the interest of the welfare work in Andrews and Bryson City. The results of performance here were very satisfactory. The blackface numbers given by E. L. Summers, C. F. Carroll, Jr., and Simeon Davis, and Paul Angel were features of special interest.

The funeral of Jesse Berong 73, who died of heart complication last Thursday, was held from St. Andrews Lutheran Church Friday afternoon. In the absence of the Rev. E. F. Troutman, pastor of the church, the service was conducted by the Rev. Walter J. Miller, pastor of the Andrews Methodist church, assisted by the Rev. R. W. Prevost of the Baptist church. Interment followed in the town cemetery. Surviving are the widow and four children.

Miss Gladys Chadwick and Miss Sallie Mae Alpine of the Andrews school faculty have been chosen as delegates to the meeting of the North Carolina Education Association to be held in Raleigh March 26, 27, and 28. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ballard were chosen as alternates.

Interpretation

Georgie, irrepressible lad of six, had been confined to the house for the day because of a slight injury. It happened to be the day of his mother's bridge club. Georgie's interest in affairs of this kind had always been slight, but today he was compelled to stay in the house, so he became interested. His mother made a bid. "Did you say 'no trumps' mother," said he.

Respiratory Note

The quantity of air a man takes into his lungs at each respiration is called tidal air, and is normally about 300-550 cubic centimeters. Of this about 150 cubic centimeters never goes farther than the respiration passages. The remainder becomes mixed with the air in the air cells (alveolar sacs), of which there is perhaps three liters in the lung.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Cearley entertained a few guests with a Birthday dinner in honor of Old "Bach". Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. V. I. Butt, Mr. Quinn Hickerson, and Mr. Grady Hampton. The cats, words were inadequate to mention. I must not forget the birthday cake from Mr. and Mrs. Powell, and the eggs card from Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Adams of which both tickled our palates. Grady sure showed his appreciation of the good things we had to eat. He suggested that I should have another one soon. But and Richardson knew their beans when it comes to the "Delicious Salads," and other good things to devour.

Mr. and Mrs. Cearley, you will always have a warm reception in my heart for your hospitality.
