Washington Bicentennial Opened by President Hoover-Stimson's Stern Warning to Japan-Chinese Pushed Back in Terrific Battle.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

 $E^{\rm VERY}$ city, fown and hamlet in the United States and most of the capitals of the world paid tribute to the character and achievements of Geo Washington on Mon-day, the two hun-dredth anniversary of his birth. The cele brations, fostered by Congressman Sol Bloom's commission, will continue in this country through most of the year in one form or another. Of-ficially, the bicenten

President Hoover

Hoover for when President Hoover delivered an address before a joint session of con-gress which was attended by all high officials of the government, the members of the Supreme court and the diplomatic corps.

Standing before the brilliant gathering, Mr. Hoover called on the Ameri-can people to rededicate themselves to those principles befitting a free peo-ple of which Washington was a living exponent. "We have need again," he said, "to bring forth the picture of the glories and the valor of Lexington and Concord and Bunker Hill, the suffering and fortitude of Valley Forge, the vic-tory of Yorktown. We have need to revive the meaning and the sneer mor-al courage of the Declaration of Independence, the struggles of the conti-nental congress, the forming of the Constitution."

No part of these great events, the President reminded those who packed the galleries, "can be separated from the name and the dominant leadership of George Washington." There were many other ceremonies in and near Washington. The Presi-dent laid a wreath on Washington's jomb at Mount Vernon; the Richmond Light Infantry Blues and the Rich-mond Grays marched in a colorful parade through Alexandria; the National Education association in convention were addressed by Mr. Hoover; and in the evening there was a grand coand lonial ball in Washington and a "birth-night ball" at Gadsby's tavern in Alexandria duplicating as far as possible the last birthnight ball Washington attended there, in 1798.

THROUGH the medium of a letter L to Senator Borah, Secretary of State Stimson served notice on Japan and the world at large that the United States still stands by the open door Schies shill stabuls by the open door policy enunciated by John Hay in 1809, recognized by the Washington confer ence of 1921-22 and implicit in the nine-power trenty and other agree-ments concerning the Pacific. These pacts he declared to be interdepend ent, and the maintenance of the in-tersitie of China concerning the Pacific the integrity of China necessary for the wel-fare not only of China but of the whole world. In effect Mr. Stimson's state ment is a threat by the administration that the United States will abrogate the Washington treaty limiting the capital ship strength of the naval pow ers and restricting American defenses ers and restricting American defenses in the western Pacific if Japan per-sists in disregarding the nine-power treaty guaranteeing the territorial in-tegrity of China. He said if the Pa-clic treaties had been faithfully ob-served such a situation as now exists could not have arisen. could not have arisen.

COACHED by skilful German sol-diers, the Chinese troops in the Shanghal battle area successfully with-stood a terrific attack by the Japanese that lasted three days and cost uncounted last, was hurrying more troops to Shanghai and the energetic T. V. Soong was making marked progress in his great task of raising money to keep up the fight. Large contributions were received not only from all parts of China but from Chinese in many other lands. As the week neared the close the Japanese, enraged by the resist-ance they had met, launched a new offensive that was reported to be driving the Chinese back in disorder. This was the bloodlest battle so far in the Shanghai conflict. Japanese planes dropped cans of gasoline on Klangwan dropped cans of gasoline on Klangwan and Miaohungchen, bombs ignited the explosive and conflagrations resulted.

J APAN'S reply to the latest admoni-J tion of the League of Nations coun-cil was received in Geneva and was found to be a stiffly worded and re-sentful retort. The Japanese govern-ment, it said, could not understand why the appeal of the twelve powers was made to Japan, instead of to to China, the real aggressor. The league pact, it added, does not exclude selfdefense, nor does it leave China free to attack everybody in sight. Tokyo told the league that its observations are "obscure" and "superfluous," for Jupan entertains no territorial or po-Jupan entertains no territorial or po-litical ambitions in China. Jupan, said the note, cannot consider China as an "organized people" in the sense used by the lengue covenant, and declares it is impossible to treat the chaos in China as if it were order. Altogether, the reply from Tokyo was little less than a slap in the face for the lengue council. council, O NE seeming result of the war in the Orient was the approval by the senate naval affrirs committee of the Hale bill authorizing the expendi-ture of $775,000,000 for the building of our navy up to ionnage parity with Great Britain and to the treaty ratio with Japaa. Reversing its attitude of several weeks ago, the committee voted unanimously to report the meastre to the senate with a recommendation that it be passed at once. A similar bill is still stuck in the house naval affairs committee.

B EFORE getting too far away from China, the latest developments in Manchurin must be recorded. With the assistance of friendly Chinese, In-them, the Japanese have carried out their plan to make Man-churia a state inde-pendent of China. They created a new state of Ankuo-which nounced that it would be ruled by Henry Pu-being prepared for Henry's installa-tion which was set for March 1. It was believed he would be declared president or dictator for life. Of course the government of Ankuo will be quite subservient to Japan.

This new state will not be permit-ted to exist unchailenged, however, Already rebellious forces have been col-lected and are reported to be mov-ing against Hsi Hsia, governor of Kirin province, and one of the lead-ers who organized Ankuo. diplomatic corps, said: "Proudly we report to our forefa-thers that the Republic is more secure, more constant, more powerful, more truly great than at any other time in history."

'What we have need of today in this celebration," said Mr. Hoorer, "Is to renew in our people the inspiration ihnt comes from George Washington as a founder of human liberty, as the father of a system of government, as the builder of a system of life."

Washington, which was named for aim; Alexandria, which knew him a neighbor; Mount Vernon, where he lived, and now lies buried, were the triple shrines for people from all parts of the country who came to honor George Washington on the two hundredth anniversary of his birth. The President of the United States laid a wreath on the first President's ivy-grown tomb on the banks of the Potomac. The famous Richmond Light Infantry Blues and the famous Richmond Grays marched in a parade of memories down the streets of Alexandria. And in the capital more than 15,000 visitors came to attend the open-ing of the bicentennial.

how children respond to the gentle influence of California Fig Syrup by active daily they simply have to tell other mothers about it. That's one of the reasons for its overwhelming sales of over four million bottles year.

A Western mother, Mrs. Neal M. Todd, 1701 West 27th St., Oklahoma City, Okla., says: "When my son, Neal, was three years old he began having constipation. I decided to give him California Fig Syrup and in a few days he was all right and booked fine again. This places to looked fine again. This pleased me so much that I have used Fig Syrup ever since for all his colds or little upset spells. It always stops his trouble quick, strengthens him, makes him eat."

Always ask for California Fig Syrup by the full name and see that the carton bears the word "Califor-nia." Then you'll get the genuine.
