Building Holiness Church at Martin's Crk.

I wish to announce that it won't be long until we will have a Holiness church building on Martin's Creek. We have the house framed and weather-boarded, and believe we can complete it in the next ten days. We hope to have a large Sunday school and trust that the people will take much interest in what we are trying to do.

REV. P. M. MOORE, Pastor.

JESSE REID, 79, DIES AT PATRICK

Mr. Jesse Reid who has been sick for sometime died Saturday night, May 28, 1932. [Mr. Reid was 79 years old. He was one of the best citizens of our county, always living right and causing no trouble in his neighborhood. He professed hope in Christ in early life and was a faithful devout servant in the cause of his dear Master until death. Funeral services were conducted at the old Reids Chapel cemetery by the Rev. Garfield Morrow of Violet, N. C., and Rev. J. R. Hamilton. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Martha Reid and five children to mourn their loss besides a number of grandchildren and great grand-children. He is greatly missed as a good citizen in his community. We all miss him. But it being our loss here is his eternal gain.]

Mrs. Lyda Cotter is visiting her daughter at Postell, N. C. this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hamby of Ivy, Tenn. were the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Picklesimer over the week-end.

A large number of Patrick folks attended the flower day at Liberty Church Sunday and report a nice time

We regret very much to hear of the death of Mrs. John Morgan of Madisonville, Tenn. She was a former resident of this place and liked by all who knew her. She leaves her husband, Rev. John Morgan, and two children to mourn their loss.

Restoring First President's Distillery

Liquors, whisky and brandy were made for home consumption at George Washington's still house near his mansion at Mt. Vernon. Workmen are shown repairing the historic structure as well as the old mill, some of the timbers of which have been unearthed and can be seen quite plainly.

MUSIC RECITAL

Thursday evening, May 26, Miss Kathryn McCall's music class rendered a very enjoyable program in the school auditorium. The program was the culmination of a very successful year's work by Miss McCall, the teacher of both piano and public school music.

The program was divided into three scenes. Scene I and III, In a Rose Garden, in which the instrumental numbers and readings were given, and Scene II, In a Gypsy Camp, in which the Junior Glee Club, dressed in gay costume as gypsies, sang "The Gypsy Trail" by Galloway. Four small children sang "The Gypsy Trail" by Ellis. This scene ended with a gypsy dance.

A prize had been offered by Miss McCall to the one in the piano class reporting the greatest number of hours spent in practice. In her usual pleasing manner Miss McCall presented first prize to Mary King Mallonee. Others receiving prizes for showing good progress were Ruth Akin and Ellen Cooper Axley. Grace Bell received a prize of appreciation for her assistance at the piano at different times during the year.

English "Boston"

The church of St. Botolph in Boston, England, was built in 1309 on the site of an earlier church. It is one of the finest parish churches in England. The Lincolnshire town of Boston, for which Boston, Mass., was named, gained its name as a corruption of Botolph's Town.

LEGION POST NAMES OFFICERS FRIDAY NIGHT

The Joe Miller Elkins Post No. 96 of Murphy met in regular session Friday, May 27th, and elected the following officers to serve during the Legion fiscal 1932:

A. W. Lovinggood, Commander.

T. J. Mauney, Senior Vice Commander.

Wm. R. Dockery, Junior Vice Commander.

W. E. Studstill, Adjutant and Finance Officer.

Arthur Dockery, Sergeant at Arms.

J. C. Odell, Post Service Officer.

W. H. Murray, Historian.

Rev. T. F. Higgins, Chaplain.

Mr. Lovinggood, the new Commander was Senior Vice Commander during 1931 and was unanimously elected to the new post. He saw service in the World War, having been attached to the 5th U. S. Marines, second division in the Army of Occupation.

All Legionnaires seem well pleased with the new line-up, and all pledge their full support during this year, and the Post hopes to move forward with greater accomplishments than ever before. It will be remembered that the Legion has rendered a fine public service especially in the way of aiding the unemployed and the local Associated Charities, having contributed approximately $125.00 to the later organization during the past twelve months.

Local Dealer Announces Awards In Contest

The W. M. Fain Grocery Co. local fertilizer dealers have been conducting a twenty word contest on Chilean Nitrate of Soda and have just received notice from the judges of the winners. First prize was awarded to Folk School Farm at Brasstown and second prize goes to Florence Lovinggood of Murphy, N. C. RFD.

Considerable interest was shown by the number of contest blanks which were sent in from every section surrounding Murphy.

The contest was unique in that it was purely a local affair confined to the trade territory of the Fain Grocery Co., and was open to all who cared to compete, there being no obligation of any kind imposed upon entrants. The prizes awarded were gold Coins, $10.00 to the winner of the second prize.

For several years the Fain Grocery Company has distributed Chilean Nitrate of Soda and each year are able to show a substantial increase in their business.
