Richardsons Take Delightful Trip

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Richardson left in the "wee small" hours Saturday morning to carry their daughter, Miss Alliene to her school at Green Creek in Polk County, N. C. Jogging along they soon reached Asheville. After spending a few hours in the City and visiting relatives and seeing the sites, they left for Black Mountain, spending some time with Mrs. J. V. Brittain. Then they left for Marion to visit Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Powell who was their pastor for the last four years. They arrived in good time and were met with demonstrations of love and good wishes. After resting and talking of the general topics of the day, Mr. and Mrs. Powell carried them around in the city to see the wonders and to meet some of their friends. After going the girls they returned to the parsonage to partake of their hospitality of good eats and other entertainments. At a late hour they retired to their rooms thinking of tomorrow. A good night rest and a fine Sunday morning they attended Sunday and church to hear their past pastor once more. Partaking of a good dinner and excellent service they left for Alliene's school arriving at two o'clock. Getting her situated they left for Murphy, stopping in Asheville to bring some relatives home with them. Arriving Sunday night about nine o'clock. James B. Wood Jr. Dies At Hiawassee

James B. Wood, Jr., 23 years old, better known to his many friends and acquaintances as J. B., died at his home in Hiawassee, Georgia on July 14th, after an illness of a few days of pneumonia.

J. B. was well and prominently known throughout this section. Several years ago he was employed at the Singer Sewing Machine Co. of Murphy. Before his illness he was employed at the Hiawassee Chevrolet Co. of Hiawassee.

He was a member of the Baptist church. He graduated from Hiawassee High School in 1928.

Funeral services were held in the afternoon of July 14th, at Hiawassee.

He is survived by his parents, two sisters, one of Hiawassee, and one of California.

I cannot say, and I will not say

That he is dead, he is just away!

With a cherry smile, and a wave

of the hand,

He has wandered into an unknown

land.

And left us dreaming how very fair

It needs must be, since he lingers

there.

And you—O you, who the wildest

yearn

For the old time step and the glad return,

Think of him faring on, as dear

In the love of there as the love of here;

Think of him still as the same, I say:

He is not dead, he is just away.
