ANDREWS RALLIES IN LAST QUARTER TO WIN BY 12 TO 6

Blocked Kick in First Quarter Gives Murphy Only Touchdown Of The Game

A fourth period rally here Friday afternoon netted Andrews two touchdowns to win against Murphy by a score of 12 to 6, in what is considered by many as one of the best and most enjoyable games played this season on the local gridiron, despite the fact the local boys lost. It was the fifth straight victory for Andrews. Both teams played good ball. The visitors tumbled frequently to hinder the offensive thrown at the Murphy team. Several fake passes by the visitors confused the Murphy boys at first, but they soon got on to the kick and broke it up.

In the first period Caldwell, Andrews quarterback, attempted to kick from back of his own goal line and the kick was blocked by Derrebrey and recovered by him for the first touchdown, giving the Murphy team its only score of the game.

In the fourth period, a blocked Murphy punt gave the Andrews team its first marker. Dooley blocked the kick and Palmer recovered behind Murphy's goal line. This set the Andrews boys on fire with a determination to chalk up another touchdown before the game was over. In the rally which followed, a few minutes later Andrews worked the ball down to the Murphy 10 yard line and Gouge galloped around the end for the second touchdown of the visitors. Andrews then hit the line for the extra point and failed just as the last quarter ended.

In the first half, Gouge, Andrews' streak of greased lightning, galloped 60 yards in a beautiful run down the field. However, the Murphy boys drew up a desperate defense, the line held like the defenses of Verdun and Andrews could not make effective the distance gained.

Brendle, Derrebrey, Hensley and Adams starred for Murphy, while Battles, Caldwell and Gouge starred for Andrews.

At the Helm—In Time of Need!

A PROCLAMATION

This year the economic emergency lends special importance to the annual Roll Call, or membership campaign of the American Red Cross.

The Red Cross is the recognized relief agency throughout the Nation. It is chartered by Congress, headed by the President of the United States, and accorded the co-operation of the Federal government. In the employment crisis it has borne a great relief responsibility. It has been the authorized medium for distribution of Farm Board wheat and cotton to those in need of flour, livestock feed and clothing. Its volunteers have been unstinting in devotion to the task of collecting and distributing supplies, and in production of finished goods from materials. Hundreds of thousands of gardens have been planted from Red Cross seed. In 2,200 communities Red Cross Chapters have participated in unemployment relief work.

To unemployment have been added 95 disasters calling for Red Cross assistance in the period of one year. Drought in the Northwest, tornadoes in the Southeast, floods in the central South and a variety of other catastrophes have entailed mighty burdens on the organization. Notwithstanding all the manifold special calls, such regular Red Cross services as life saving, first aid, public health nursing and home hygiene, assistance to veterans, and Junior Red Cross have been carried steadily forward.

Right here in Murphy and Cherokee county, the accomplishments of the Red Cross have been great. Approximately 655 families have been aided by our local Cherokee County Chapter of the Red Cross. In addition to the funds, supplies and necessities furnished by our own people, the following outside aid has been received from national headquarters and distributed in the county during the past year by the county chapter:

- 1600 lbs of dried yeast.
- 1080 bags of flour.
- 177 dozen half-gallon fruit jars.
- $460.00 worth of garden seed.
- 50 made garments for children and adults.

Our debt of gratitude is great. Our present and prospective dependence is impressive. Every one who is able to take out membership, as a good citizen and a patriot should do so. As mayor of Murphy, N. C., I therefore, proclaim the Red Cross Roll Call, November 11 to 24, a matter of prime civic duty, and urge our citizenship to lend its heartiest support.
 (Signed):
 V. I. BUTT, Mayor
 Murphy, N. C.

LAST RITES FOR MRS. NAN FULMER HELD WEDNESDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Nan Fulmer, 79, who died at her home at Tomotla, four miles east of Murphy, were held Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, Eastern Standard Time, at the Andrews Methodist Church, with the pastor, the Rev. J. W. Miller, and the Rev. T. F. Higgins, pastor of the Murphy Methodist Church, and the Rev. John Carper, pastor of the Murphy circuit, officiating. A short service was held at the home just before leaving for the service at Andrews. Burial was in the Andrews cemetery beside her husband.

Mrs. Fulmer was born May 6, 1853, in Cherokee county, the daughter of George W. and Elizabeth Hayes. She joined the Methodist Church at the age of 18. She was a charter member of the Cherokee county chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at Andrews. In 1892 she married J. F. Fulmer, of Asheville, an engineer on the Southern Railway, who brought the first train into Murphy over the Southern road. They lived a short time in Asheville, afterwards moving to Murphy. Since Mr. Fulmer's death in 1917 she had made her home with her brother, J. T. Hayes, at the old Hayes homestead at Tomotla.

She is survived by a brother, J. T. Hayes, and two sisters, Mrs. J. M. Leather and Mrs. H. A. Keener of M.

Active neighbors were Zebulon Whitaker, Paul Hvatt, Porter Eason, Dewey Partridge, Nath Harner. Honorary pallbearers were: R. M. Grant, E. A. Davidson, G. W. Candler, A. McD., Harshaw, R. M. Fain, R. M. Harbin, George W. Abbott, M. W. Roll, J. W. Walker, Jess Porter and Neil Davidson.

BEAR EVADES HUNTERS AFTER 3 HOUR BATTLE

The story of a three hour fight with a bear out in the Tellico mountains was brought to Murphy Thursday morning by John Odell, one of the party of four who had the battle with bruin.

The party is composed of Marion Simonds, Don Witherspoon, John O'Dell and Andy Hass, all of whom are more or less experienced bear hunters. Mr. O'Dell returned to town Thursday morning and left the others out in the mountains.

According to Mr. O'Dell's story as told to one of his fellow workers in the post office, the bear was jumped Tuesday night and the chase was on for hours, until he was finally lured at the foot of a large rock cliff in the laurel on Bob Creek in the Tellico mountains.

The bear was a large one, and the fight lasted for three hours. One of the dogs was badly cut by the bear when he slapped him. It was estimated to weigh between three and four hundred pounds.

The story of the fight is to the effect that O'Dell and Simonds stationed themselves on top of the cliff overlooking the fight arena and fired eighteen shots at the bear from an automatic shotgun and high powered rifle, but failed to make a kill because of the difficulty and danger encountered in taking aim and at the same time keep from killing one of the dogs. Mr. Hass, who was said to have been armed with a large club, made his way to the foot of the cliff but failed to get an opportunity to get into the fight.

From all accounts of the fight, a regular small war was in progress while it lasted, and was one of the thrills that come during a lifetime. The bear finally escaped through the laurel.

Aristocratic Cats

Persian cats in this country have been bred with Angoras and Tabbies to such an extent that the breed has lost to a considerable degree its original characteristics. For this reason only strictly pedigreed animals may be considered pure-bred Persians.

REGISTRATION FIGURES BREAK ALL RECORDS

In a copyright article by the Associated Press, the Asheville Citizen of Wednesday stated that forty-seven million persons have qualified to vote in the general elections on November 8th in the United States, which exceeds by four and a half million the record-shattering registration of 1928.

The article in part further says: "A state by state survey by the Associated Press shows exactly 46,865,230 persons eligible to participate in the 1932 presidential balloting. This compares with a national registration of 42,387,254 for the Hoover-Smith contest four years ago and is an increase of 10,165,561 over the actual vote cast in that peak year of ballot marking."

EHRINGHAUS HEARD HERE ON THURSDAY

J. C. B. Ehringhaus, Democratic candidate for Governor, addressed an audience of more than 400 citizens, including Democrats and Republicans in the Cherokee county courthouse here last Thursday night, using as his theme or topic, "Ideal Government."

Mr. Ehringhaus said that the essentials of an ideal government are honesty, efficiency, and economy. He particularly stressed economy, and compared the operations of the state government with that of the national government, declaring that the State of North Carolina has been reducing the cost of government while the Federal expenditures have been increasing.

The speaker was introduced by J. B. Gray, prominent Murphy attorney and one of the Democratic leaders. Mr. Ehringhaus was given an enthusiastic reception, urged all who heard him to cast their ballots for the Democratic ticket from President to constable.
