A Few Little Smiles

BY REQUEST

The golfer nonchalantly stepped up to the tee and swung one of those carelessly careful drives.

The ball sailed straight down the fairway, leaped gaily across the green and dived into the hole like a rabbit.

"What have you suddenly gone crazy about?" inquired the golfer's wife, who was trying to learn something about the game.

"Why, I just holed out in one!" yelled the golfer, as he essayed a double handspring with a wild gleam of delight in his eyes.

FAMILY SCHEME

"What makes you so jealous?"
"Oh, it pleases my wife."

Hardest Part

Brown entered the artist's studio and gazed at the draped canvas on the easel.

"Have you finished with your picture yet?" he asked.

"No, I still have the hardest part of it to do," replied the artist.

"Really! What is that?" asked Brown.

"Sell it," came the doleful reply.

Stork Stung There

The six-year-olds were talking about the arrival of a new baby to the family next door, and said one of them: "Why isn't the baby and Mrs. — home?"

"They're down at the hospital," explained a second six-year-old.

"The hospital," said the first with an amazed expression. "Such a new baby, and is it sick already? Tsch! Tsch! Tsch!"

Gargantua at Home

Hiram—Yes, I've seen a few bad crop years in my time, too. One year our string beans were so poor that the crop didn't even pay for the string.

Silas—That's nothing, Hi. In 1914 our corn crop was so bad that my old dad, who had a very poor appetite, ate up 14 acres of corn at a single meal.—Chicago Tribune.

Showed Good Judgment

He—I shot it in India. It was a case of me or the tiger.

She—Well, the tiger certainly makes the better rug.—Stray Stories Magazine.

With a Microscope

"You see that old boy over there? He thinks in terms of millions."

"He doesn't look to me like a financier."

"He isn't. He's a bacteriologist."

USUAL GAME

"I have here, sir, a set of books on how to be your own lawyer."

"Don't want it. What's the sense in a man learning how to rob himself?"

Educational Experience
"Couldn't you have avoided jury service?"

"I didn't want to," answered Mr. Dustin Stax. "I desire to inform myself of what the procedure is in case it should come my turn at any time to say 'not guilty.'"

A Graded Scale

"What are the prices of the seats, mister?"

"Front seats one shilling, back seats sixpence, and program a penny."

"I'll take a program please."

NO WONDER SMALL PERSON IS PROUD

PATTERN 9195

9195

Little Miss Molly here can hardly wait to run outside to show her brother Tommy that even though she is "only a girl," she has pockets, too. And she thinks they're nicer than his—scalloped and buttoned the way they are, and plenty jaunty. She's also more than proud of the way she manages to dress herself in this pretty bloomer frock. Three front buttons to fasten—there, it's all done! And her mother likes those cunning puffed sleeves and the long inverted pleat, back and front. For those who prefer them, simple cap sleeves like those in the smaller sketch may be made by omitting the lower part of the sleeve.

Pattern 9195 may be ordered only in sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8. Size 6 requires 2½ yards 36 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE.

Complete, diagrammed Sew Chart included.

Send your order to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth Street, New York, N. Y.

HANDY THING TO HAVE

Mrs. Cobb—What on earth is that?
Mr. Cobb—This, my dear, is a barometer—a present from Jack.

"Oh, I've heard of them! Isn't the dear boy thoughtful? Which way do we screw it when we want the weather to be fine?"

Other Tactics

Jimmy on a shopping tour was annoying his mother, who said:
"If you say 'buy me' again we will go home."
Soon they were viewing a window of electric toys.
"I'll bet my mother don't buy an electric train," commented the lad.—Indianapolis News.

Most Disappointing Hour

"Yes," said the old man, "I have had some terrible disappointments, but none stands out over the years like one that came to me when I was a boy."
"And what was it?"
"When I was a boy I crawled under a tent to see the circus and I discovered it was a revival meeting."—Wall Street Journal.

Wat's It to You?

Jones—What are you burying in your back yard?
Brown—Just replanting some of my seeds—if its' any business of yours.
Jones—It looks more like one of my hens than seeds.
Brown—Well, the seeds are inside the hen.

People Are Too Suspicious

Judge—How could you swindle people who trusted in you?
Prisoner—But, Judge, people who don't trust you cannot be swindled.

Worth Celebrating

Teacher—And why should we celebrate Washington's birthday more than mine?
Junior—Because he never told a lie.

IN D. D., PH. G.

"How did old Joe get to be college president?"
"By degrees."

Explained

Admirer—It's a most extraordinary thing, but every dance I've had with you has been very short.
Girl—Yes, I suppose so. You see, the leader of the orchestra happens to be my sweetheart.—Stray Stories Magazine.

What's the Password?

"Is your husband a member of any secret society?"
"He thinks so, but he talks in his sleep."

Not a Natural Liar

"—And, my boy, I never as much as looked at another woman before I met your mother. Will you be able to say the same to your son?"
"No, dad, not with such a straight face."—Stray Stories Magazine.

One Way to Judge

Man—How long have you been married?
Friend—Let's see—I bought this overcoat I'm wearing six years ago.

ALWAYS!

"The time, the place and the girl are seldom found together."
"True. The girl is usually half an hour late."
