

MURPHY SUPERINTENDENT TO SPEAK AT ROBBINSVILLE
Zane Davis

Mr. Bueck, superintendent of the Murphy school unit, will speak to the elementary school at Robbinsville, Thursday, April 4. His subject will be "Satisfied with Mediocrity."

Superintendent of Swain county schools asked to speak here.

Mr. C. F. Carroll, superintendent of Swain county schools, has been asked to speak to the graduating class of Murphy high commencement.

FIFTY STUDENTS WILL GRADUATE

Fifty students will graduate at Murphy high this year. About 200 started as freshmen with these 50 who are to graduate. Statistics prove that on an average only 25 per cent of the students who enter high school graduate.

HIGH SCHOOL CHAPEL PROGRAM
Aileen Hampton.

Tuesday's Chapel program consisted of a number of musical selections from representatives of the Texana school and a talk by Rev. Johnny Carper.

The Texana program was greatly enjoyed as evidence by the almost increasing applause that followed each of the numbers. This was a preview to a minstrel which is to be given in the school auditorium on Wednesday, April 3.

Rev. Carper's talk was a very inspiring one. His topic was "Little Man," whom he described as one who doesn't see the real values of life which would make him a big man. The thru building ideals that make a big man an cultural, moral, and spiritual.

APPRECIATION
By Mac Timpson

The school wishes to express its appreciation to Mr. Fred Swain for seventy-one magazines presented by him.

We need magazines and have no funds with which to provide them; therefore we appreciate the generosity of those who help us.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES
Johnny Keenum

The class day exercises of the senior class will be given Monday, April 22. The exercises will be an outdoor affair.

The seniors are very busy working on plays now and the cast will soon be completed.

REPORTER'S CLUB
Furmar McNabb

The reporter's club met on Monday. Plans were made for finishing up the year's work. In the next two issues of The Scout we hope to give a review of the work of Murphy High school's extra curricular activities.

BOY SCOUT NEWS
Pruden Davidson

The boy scouts held their regular meeting in the church basement Thursday night and the meeting was devoted chiefly to passing of second class tests. Mr. Wright, scoutmaster, hopes to have most of the boys in the second class rank before the date of re-registration on April 30. Several of the boys are now working on first class test requirements and many of them will be first class scouts before the summer is over.

Plans were made for an outdoor meeting this coming Thursday night.

FASHION SHOW

On April 16, 1935 at 7:30 the Home Economics girls will present their spring fashion show. Dresses made by the various girls will be worn and this will give the public a chance to see the type of work the department is doing. This fashion show will be presented in a manner that will be entertaining as well as instructive.

Public is urged to attend and there will be no admission charge. Watch next week's paper for other details.

BOYS CHORUS
Morris Miller

The boys chorus has been practicing hard on two special numbers for commencement. These are the Recessional and On the Road to Mandalay. Kipling is the author of both. They are to be sung as unison chorus. A third number, The Volga Boatmen's Song, has been dropped because of lack of time in which to practice.

GLEE CLUB
Kathryn Keener

The Glee club met under the direction of Miss Gantt on Friday. It was announced that the regular meeting day had been changed from Wednesday to Monday.

Due to the briefness of time the members were asked to meet after school for practice of commencement songs.

DRAMATIC CLUB
George Williamson

The members of the Dramatic club who have not participated in some Dramatic club performance this year are to be given a chance at the next meeting or in the chapel program Mr. Deans has charge of. Mr. Deans said that no credit would be given to the members who do not take part in some skit; he also said that there was no use to belong to dramatic club if no effort was made to advance your dramatic ability.

PHYSICS NEWS
"Babe" Hensley

Mr. Deaton's Physics class is now working on the exhibits of that class that are to be on display during commencement exercises.

There are numerous experiments to be performed, booklets, posters, and other exhibits.

The class has been on several field trips this year and have seen the things that were being studied, in this way they have been able to understand the experiments performed in the room.

ENGLISH NEWS
Ersa McNabb

Miss Gantt's 8th grade English class has just finished a very interesting study of "Julius Caesar." Some of the students debated on the subject, "Resolve that Brutus was justified in Killing Caesar." The speakers for the affirmative were, Joe Miller Elkins, Anna Jean Grant, Negative, Billie Jackson, Mary Willard Cooper. Both sides gave their points in a very systematic way, however, the affirmative speakers won the decision of the judges.

LATIN NEWS
Ruth Hickey

The student's of Miss Courtney's second year Latin class are studying

Caesar's campaign in Gaul especially in relation to the setting of the World War. Also, the campaign of Caesar with the Germans, the characteristics of the people. They are comparing the ancient Teutons with modern Germans.
