

MURPHY FOLK
BUSY MOVING
AND BUILDING

Murphy's carpenter and brick layers were still busy at work this week on construction of four of the city's buildings.

...last of the work in the walls of the Dickey Chevrolet company were being laid preparatory to having the roof placed on the top of the building that will have twice its original floor space upon completion. The interior and the front are being redecorated.

Framework for the marquee to be built in front of the new theater was being placed this week and additional construction on the interior was being done. P. J. Henn, the owner, announces that it will be completed in the near future.

The last touches were being given to the interior of E. C. Moore's new garage this week, and workmen were busy painting and making slight repairs on the Adams building.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Cooper this week moved to their new apartment in Mrs. Grace Coopers' home. Harold Hatchett will move to the Cooper's former apartment in the Adams building, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Blagg will move to the Hatchett residence. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Adams have moved to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moody.
