

CULBERSON NEWS

Miss Edith Mull has returned home from Knoxville, Tenn. where she has been taking a business course.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shields, Mr. Lee Shields, and Misses Edith and Eunice, Shields visited relatives in Mississippi last week.

Mr. Olen McAllister returned home a few days ago from Detroit. He will spend some time with relatives.

Mr. L. W. Shields is home after attending the summer school at Western Carolina Teacher's College, Cullowhee.

PEACHTREE

Mr. Cyrus Witt and Willard Sudderth entertained a number of their friends last Saturday night with a fish fry at the Mission Dam. Camp fires were built and the fish prepared over the sizzling embers. The arriving guests were greeted with the aroma of good, strong coffee, boiling in the open and fish, being fried in the drippings from a real, home cured stripped bacon. Muskmelons were served as desert. Those partaking of this feast were, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Sudderth, Mrs. Henry Sudderth, Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Messer, Atlanta, Ralph Davis and Carl Sudderth of Miami, Fla., Mrs. George Mauney and children, Wayne and Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. M. Alley and children, Lowe and Edith, Misses Joyce Johnson, Dale Sudderth, Mae Sudderth, Kate, Enois and Maudie Witt, Sonny Wilson, Mrs. Walter C. Witt, Mrs. C. W. Witt, Mrs. Gordon Hasty, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Loy Lunsford, Guy Neil, Ralph and Paul Sudderth, Bob Witt. A quartet composed of Loy Lunsford, Bob Witt, Ralph and Guy Sudderth gave several vocal selections.

Marble To Meet Sylva All-Stars On Saturday

The Columbia Marble Co. base ball team will meet the All-star team from Sylva on the home field next Saturday, July 27, at three o'clock. The Marble team has not been beaten on their home field this season, and they are anxious to take the Sylva boys into camp. Admission will be ten cents, as usual. Everyone who can, is invited to come and see the game.

Misses Dale Sudderth, Nellie Henrix, Hazel and Francis Watkins returned from Cullowhee last week. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Farmer and Mr. E. Hyde of Washington, D. C. were week end guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. W. Hyde. They returned to Washington Monday.

Miss Ina Witt of Tellico Plains, returned to her home last Saturday after spending several days with relatives on Peachtree.

Mrs. Eli Sudderth was guest last week of her daughter, Mrs. George Mauney.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dills, not being in the least bit satisfied with the way the weather man was dishing out his rain to all the surrounding neighborhoods and slighting Peachtree took things in their own hands last week. On Thursday while out working they killed two snakes, a black one and a bull snake, and following an age old belief, took them to a nearby tree and hung them up, and, well, the first rain we have had in about six or seven weeks came a day or two later, believe it or not!

Mrs. Myrtle Rogers of Asheville, arrived Saturday of last week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. W. E. Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Messer of Atlanta, Ga were guests of friends here last week.

AKIN RITES ARE HELD IN CHURCH HERE THURSDAY

Business Firms Close Down As Many Attend Funeral.

Funeral services for Mr. Sam Akin, 62, were held at the Methodist church Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the R. v. T. F. Higgins, pastor, and the Rev. J. H. Carper officiating. Peyton G. Ivie was in charge of funeral arrangements. Interment was in Sunset cemetery.

Mr. Akin died suddenly of a heart attack in Franklin the preceding Tuesday. Due to its suddenness his death was a great surprise to his friends and relatives throughout Western North Carolina where he was a prominent figure.

Every business firm in Murphy closed its doors during the funeral hours and friends from all over this section went to the little church to pay their last respects to a true citizen and a true gentleman who had always given his best for this section.

Active pallbearers were, Sheridan Dickey, P. C. Hyatt, W. M.
