

Sudderth Reunion

The descendants and relatives of the late Theodore Sudderth and wife, pioneer citizens of Western North Carolina and Cherokee County, and close friends of the present Sudderth families, met Sunday August 18th, at the home of Eli Sudderth in the seventh annual Sudderth Reunion. The day was spent greeting old friends, making and welcoming new ones, re-living old times and having a good time in general.

Just before noon short talks were made by H. B. Elliott of Peachtree and J. T. Hayes, of Tomalla, after which lunches were spread on an improvised table under the giant trees in the Sudderth yard.

Direct descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Sudderth present at the Reunion were: Mr. Eli Sudderth, Mr. Horace Sudderth, Mr. Henry Sudderth, and Mrs. Alice Barber, all of Peachtree.

New Alkaline Powder Recommended to hold FALSE TEETH

If you have sore gums or your plate drops—if you are self-conscious or nervous and your plate will not "stay put" you should use FASTEETH. You will be delighted with the comfort and security afforded by this new alkaline adhesive powder. The mild alkalinity of FASTEETH prevents an acid sore mouth and gums and keeps plate firmly in place—because it holds its consistency longer and will not seep away. Sweetens breath. Allows you to chew your food properly. Buy FASTEETH today at any drug store.
