MR. BARBER SETS ASIDE DAY FOR HIGH SCHOOL

By Ann Hill
In chapel on Friday Mr. Barber presented a printed invitation to each student in High school. The invitation read as follows:

"The students and Faculty of Murphy High School are invited to a Special High school Day Service at the Methodist Church Sunday, April 5, 11:00 A. M. Address by Rev. W. Arthur Barber. Subject "Not at the Top; But Climbing". Bring your parents.

As gifts to the Seniors Mr. Barber presented to each an artistic placard on which was beautifully printed our motto, "Not at the Top; But Climbing." The Seniors appreciate very much the kindness and thoughtfulness that prompted this act, and we are sure that each High school student appreciate, and will not forget Mr. Barber's courtesy extended to them.

The service Sunday morning was as follows:

Methodist Episcopal church South
W Arthur Barber, Pastor, Murphy, North Carolina, Sunday April 5, 1936. Murphy High School Day.
