

A LOT OF BULL!

Here is Topsy's Sequel of Oak Farm, Reg No. 144,087, pure bred Guernsey that is senior herd sire of the famed Eleida Dairy Farm, at Asheville. One of his sons will be offered to Cherokee farmers at an auction sale to be held at the Murphy Fair grounds by County Agent A. Q. Ketner, on Saturday, May 9.

TALE OF A CALF TOLD TO PROVE NEED OF FARM SELF SUFFICIENCY

Pedigreed cattle, from the finest stock in the state will be sold at auction under the direction of County Agent A. Q. Ketner at the Murphy Fair Grounds on Saturday May 9. Five registered pure-bred Guernsey bulls and the same number of heifers, all from six to eight months old will go to the highest bidders, with H. C. Bates Field Representative for the American Guernsey Cattle club acting as auctioneer.

Each of the bulls and heifers is worth hundreds of dollars but County Agent Ketner does not expect to get more than a small fraction of their true value.

"Money is not the object of the sale" he explained. "What we want is to improve the breed of cattle in Cherokee County—and conditions here have been found particularly suitable for pure bred Guernsey's. We hope every owner or potential owner of live stock in this section will attend the sale. We hope they will come with the intention of buying; but we want them to come anyhow, to hear about the advantages of pure-bred stock. The terms of sale will be cash—but it will be a bonafide auction, and farmers will find the stock available at prices well within their means."

The sale is made through the generosity of five famous North Carolina stock farms: The Klondike Farms of Elkins, the Quail Roost Farms of Rougement, The Osborne Farms, of Canton, and the Eliada Dairy Farm, and the Valkyrie Farms, both of Asheville. As a result of "missionary work" done by Messrs. Ketner and Bates, these big raisers virtually donated some of their prize stock to promote the Guernsey breed in this county. Mr. Ketner explained that the first pure bred Guernseys were brought to Cherokee only nine years ago, and that today there are 63 pedigreed bulls, cows, and heifers in this section.

LETITIA

We have been having some cold weather for the past week which I think the farmers should not be too hasty planting corn until the winter breaks.

Rev. Conley preached an interesting sermon at Oak Grove church Sunday.

Mr. L. M. Shields from Culberson made a business trip through this section last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Taylor and family from Turtletown, Tenn., visited home folks Sunday.

Mr. George Stiles of Birch, was a visitor here last week.

MARBLE DOWNS HAZELWOOD 9-8 IN TENTH INNING

In a slugging contest marked by 33 hits, and set of by a strange combination of super-fine fielding and super-rotten errors the crack Columbia Marble Co. baseball team handed its second defeat of the season to Hazelwood last Saturday, 9 to 8. What threatened to be a runaway victory was cut down by Hazelwood through the medium of three fast double plays. As a result Marble barely nosed out in front in the tenth frame.

Barnett, in left field for the winners saved the game for the hard-rock men. With the score tied at 8-all in the extra inning, and with Hazelwood at bat, Moneith, who though a pitcher is a wicked man with the willow, stepped up and with a man on base, hit a line drive to left field that sizzled. It looked like at least one run, and perhaps two. But Barnett put on speed, got over, and smothered that drive in real big league style.

Hazelwood made five errors, three by Fisher, at second base, and one each by Gene Wyatt, at the initial corner and Ferrell, at third Marble made two misplays, both charged against Plesko, at shortstop.

Hazelwood started off like a sure winner, tallying two runs in the opening frame. Marble was held scoreless until the third, when the boys found their batting eyes and hammered in three markers, to take the lead. In the fifth they added four more, and another in the sixth, holding Hazelwood scoreless during the interim.

Then Hazelwood got busy with one in the seventh, another in the eighth and three in the ninth, to tie it up. And then—victory for the quarrymen. A see-saw game—but a thriller. The box score and summaries follow:

NELSON EDDY, MISS MAC DONALD RETURN HERE TODAY IN "ROSE MARIE" Cunning Jane Withers as an Irish Colleen, "The Mysterious Avenger" and Fine Comedy also due at Henn's

Of course you remember "Naughty Marietta", the light opera that made movie history through the glorious singing and delicate romancing of Jeanette McDonald and Nelson Eddy. Well, the pair are coming back to Murphy in a new song-picture that's even better;—to-wit; Rose Marie".

With solos and duets that will make the old heart palpitate just like it did with your first kiss, with a wealth of gorgeous scenery, and a supporting cast that made even the director happy—and that's doing a heap any time—handsome Nelson Eddy, unusual combination of perfect matinee idol and thorough he-man, and the beautiful Miss McDonald will be at the Henn theater at today's matinee and evening performances, and again tomorrow night.

The story of Rose Marie is laid in the cold north woods of Canada. A tale of the Canadian mounties who as you know, always get their man. "Rose Marie, impersonated by Miss McDonald, goes up there and finds Nelson Eddy in the scarlet uniform of a Mounties Sergeant. And she shows him a few things about not only getting your man but making him like it.

The dish for Saturday is called "The Mysterious Avenger" and take it from us, it's a tatty, hot dish for those who like their Westerns plenty seasoned. The film features Charles Starrett, a handsome broad shouldered budding star who before coming the films won his letter playing football for Dartmouth. With him in the picture is the well loved veteran Wheeler Oakman, as the villain and lovely Joan Perry as the love interest.

Next Monday and Tuesday, with a matinee the first day, will be given over to "Paddy O'Day" the tuneful, joyous story of a cute Irish Colleen portrayed by little Jane Withers.

Tiny, impish Jane, who hails from Atlanta, Ga., has virtually soared from small supporting roles to stardom. In "Paddy O'Day" she proves she can sing and dance, as well as act. All told, the picture has song, dance, color, and drama. It's one you owe it to yourself to see.

Wednesday, April 29 will mark the arrival in Murphy of "The Perfect Gentleman" as portrayed by Frank organ, assisted by the blonde Cicely Courtneidge and that daint actress Heather Angel. Wednesday also will mark the first of a series of Leap Year Wednesdays, to be observed at the Henn Theater on that night each week until further notice.

Under the Leap Year plan—as you perhaps already know—it is the lady who pays. Nothing new about that, especially, except that in this instance she does not pay with suffering—but with cash. She only has to buy her own ticket however. That one ticket entitles her to take in the Gentleman of her choice all free.

The picture tells the story of a comedy of errors. Its a laugh from the jump to the final close-up.
