AS TIME PASSES

Bug—So you are on your way to propose to Miss Jane Snail? Why you're an old-man.

Snail—I know I am; but I wasn't when I started out.

Too Loud

The hostess was talking to one of her guests as the two sat on the lawn listening to a chimes recital.

"Beautiful, aren't they?" remarked the hostess.

"Pardon?" inquired the guest.

"I say, they're beautiful, aren't they?"

"I'm sorry," roared the guest, "but I can't hear a word for those chimes."—The Pointer.

Play Ball!

Employer—You've attended the funerals of two grandmothers in the last month, and now you want off to bury another. How do you get that way?

Office Boy—Well, boss, the doctor was wrong in both cases.

Pity to Waste It

MacTavish and his wife wishing to adopt a child, asked at an orphanage for a nice little girl. One was produced and the wife was about to close the bargain when MacTavish whispered:

"Woman, let's have a boy. Ha've ye forgotten the lad's cap we found in the train?"

A Poor Accomplishment

"Where is that beautiful canary bird of yours that used to sing so clearly and sweetly?" asked Mrs. Featherbee.

"I had to sell him," Mrs. Butlam said tearfully. "My son left the cage on the radio set and he learned static."

No Talent

John—You say Bert doesn't have much of a line?

Don—No, he can't even string a banjo.

TRY ANYTHING

Green Golfer—Does it make any difference which club you use?

Caddy—Well, it doesn't seem to, does it?

Practically the Boss

Arthur—So your new job makes you independent?

Albert—Absolutely. I get here any time I want before 8, and leave just when I please after five.—Canadian National Railways.

Too Restless

Angr—You've been watching me for three hours. Why don't you try fishing yourself?

Onlooker—I ain't got the patience.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

Our drug store man is very cross. He greets me with a frowning face. I'll just deprive him of my trade And buy my stamps some other place.

down, or finish them in outline stitch. It's called "Linen-closet Gardening!"

In pattern 5348 you will find a transfer pattern of two motifs 5 1/2 by 15 inches, two motifs 4 3/4 by 15 inches and the patterns for the applique patches; material requirements; color suggestions; illustrations of all stitches needed.

To obtain this pattern, send 15 cents in stamps or coins (coins preferred) to The Sewing Circle Household Arts Dept., 259 W. Fourteenth St., New York, N. Y.

Write plainly pattern number, your name and address.

All Around the House

Grease the measuring cup before measuring sirup or molasses and the ingredients will not stick to the sides of the cup and there will be no waste.

Always sweep rugs and carpets the way of the grain. Brushing against the grain roughens the surface and it tends to brush the dust in instead of out.

Partly cook cereal in a double boiler the night before using and leave it on the back of the stove, being sure to cover well with water. It will be well cooked in the morning.

Sugar sprinkled over the tops of cookies or sponge cakes before putting them into the oven forms a sweet crust and makes a richer cookie.

Cloths saturated with polishing liquids and stored away in closets often cause fires through spontaneous combustion. Store the cloths in covered tin or galvanized cans.

Cocoa should always be cooked in a small amount of water before milk is added.

Four pounds of plums will make five pint jars of preserves.

Today
SO HERE hath been dawning
Another blue day;
Think, wilt thou let it
Slip useless away?

Out of Eternity
This new day is born;
Into Eternity,
At night will return.

Behold it aforesime
No eye ever did;
So soon it forever
From all eyes is hid.

Here hath been dawning
Another blue day;
Think, wilt thou let it
Slip useless away?

—Thomas Carlyle.
