Essential Qualities

WHAT qualities are essential for the perfecting of a human being? A cool head, a warm heart, a sound judgment, and a healthy body. Without a cool head, we are apt to form hasty conclusions, without a warm heart we are sure to be selfish, without a sound body, we can do but little, while even the best intentions without sound judgment may do more harm than good.—Lord Averbury.

Complaint against fortune is often a masked apology for indolence.

Slot-Machine Brides

In Japan there are automatic machines which for a yen, produce lists of spinsters and bachelors, desirous of marrying. Against each name is a description of the person, an approximate estimation of wealth and personal qualities, and any items which may engender attraction.

Any name selected is sent to an official, who arranges a meeting, and if the parties are suitable they are united for a further small fee. In this way hundreds, who might otherwise have led a solitary existence, are now, it is stated, happily married.—Tit-Bits, London.
