Things Unusual

Sweet "Taters"
 Sweet potato crops throughout this and other sections nearby seem to be unusually good this year. We read of Mr. Johnson's raising a "whopper" on Persimmon Creek 21 1/2 inches around. Boy hain't that a tater! We reckon that'd make Adam and all his sons, daughters and grandchildren a likely mess for breakfast. We just naturally hate to think of all his taters being that big it'd glut the Chicago market and buyers would ask $100 per bushel to even let taters stay in their sheds. Wow! We believe it all, Mr. Johnson, 'cause we've known you a long time.
 Course nobody believes what the Tattler says, but truth is truth no matter who tells it. He dug nearly a peck out of one hill. It wouldn't do for every hill to produce that much. Mr. Roosevelt might declare a reduction in sweet tater crops! Taters! Taters! My What Taters!

Onions or Ingerms
 Things unusual seem to be in the line of produce this week. This is one that will make the tears trickle from your eyes. Onions! onions! Perhaps Ira Butt of the North Georgia News could tell it better than anyone else for it happened over in his county (Union county, Ga.) a school teacher whipped her students for calling 'ingerms', Onions. Howdy Ira!

Young Grandfathers
 We notice something last week about the youngest grandfathers. Per-

To The Voters Of Cherokee County

In making this my final appeal to the voters of Cherokee County, I wish to say that I am indeed grateful to you for your past support and wish to thank you in advance for your consideration of myself and the position to which I aspire in the election to be held next Tuesday.

I have always been mindful of the people whom I have served and have endeavored to give their interests my whole attention.

The sin of INGRATITUDE is a big one and I have above all else tried to show to the people of this county that I do appreciate what they did for me November 6th, 1934.

When you go to cast your vote for Register of Deeds next Tuesday remember that I have had the office for only one term and upon the merit of my work I am asking for your vote that I may serve the people of this county for another two years.

Sincerely yours,

R. L. Keenum
