HOLSUM MOORE SPEAKS FOR THE DEMOCRATS

Hon Holsum Moore, speaking for the demmercrats in cedar lane last week endaring the dast rally, said as follows:

friends and feller-citizens:— we have come to the last ditch of desperation for the republicans. the campane is nearly over. father coughling is still coughling, nobody has yet been able to find out what he is the father of. his flatom is full of weak planks and knotholes ansoforth. at his last speech, his mouth seemed to be fuller of mush than ever before. (hurrah for rosey-velt).

the republican cany-date is going places and emitting many mouthfulls. it is landon's hands but it is wall streets' voice. he will possibly carry the 2 doubtful states if he gets enoogh votes. but if he don't get off the demmercrats policies, his own crowd will forget who to vote for at the poles. (hurrah for rosey-velt).

please page dr. townsend. he was last saw chasing browder. he started out with borah, switched to boover, hopped to landon, jumped to lemke, and it now looks like he is for al smith. poor doc, he needs a doctor by rights, his place is with daddy coughling; they are twins in the bosh. (hurrah for rosey-velt).

folks, let's pull together so's we can gard against being pulled to peaces. our farm prices is ok now and our children is getting enoogh to eat and wear; our mills is running full time and paying fair wages, and so far, nobody has got hurt. the rich man is a-feared that he will have to pay more taxes, but if he's getting richer every-day, what's he got to kiek about. (hurrah for garnier).

friends, meet me at the poles next week with yore mind made up to keep prosperity from dozing back around the republiican corner again. if we don't hold what we have got we won't have nothing to hold in a short while. talk to the back-sliders and fence straddlers; if they vote wrong this time, take down their telly-foam numbers for future referrences. (hurrah for wallis, farley and company).

mike Clark, rfd.

REHOBER SONG-BIRDS HEARD OVER STATION WHOA

But rock's glorious quartet went on the ether last friday night at radio station whoa at the county seat and sung and yodled and played gittars for 30 minnets and dedderated something to nearly everboddy in our vicinity both living and dead.

our quartet is made up of 3 mail and 4 femal voices as follows: hon. mike Clark, leader and supprano, miss jennie veeve smith, alto and tenor, miss salie veeve smith, secont tenor, mr. scudd Clark, first base, mr. dadd Clark, secont base, miss sudie lou Clark, short stop, and the other 2 sings from one key to another.

several request numbers were sung. "shall we know each other better" was dedderated to col. Judson who got killed at the battle of gettsburg onner count of his grand-darter who foamed in. some church melodies were sung, but most of the dedderations were folk-songs of long ago, such as: "when I and you were young maggie" and "turkey in the straw."

before we had gone very far, everybody ketched on that we were the rehober quire; that naturally excited home intrust and currossly, as a great manny people from the county seat have been berried in the the rehober sembinerry under the music of said quartet. a few members of the audience shed some tears over our oldest hymns onner count of lightning striking something enduring the singing, broadcasting stopped a few minnets; they missed "old black joe" by this reason.

if enoogh fans will rite or foam in for a return number, we will be back on the air when called. we do not charge annything for the first, secont, third and fourth appearances; after that, we will have to have expenses, vizzly; e45 to pay for the
