SUGGESTIONS FOR NERVOUS AND IMPATIENT PEOPLE

1—After picking up your telephone receiver, while you are waiting for "Central" to answer, you should have a book to read during this interim. This will give you something to while away the time with, and it will likewise elucidate your intelligence, if you have any. When calling long distance, you will need 2 books to read. (But some times, you don't have to wait bad enough to hurt).

2—This suggestion is intended for people who go to the movies to see the movies. Carry along a pillow and take a nice, long nap while the screen is showing reviews and pre-interviews and "ads" that you are not interested in. Some theatres call your attention only to the features they will fetch you next week, week after next, next month and next year, but others go further, thus affording you a longer nap.

3—While waiting "a minute" for your wife to come out and get in the car, it would be nice for you to turn on the radio in the said car and listen in on 2 or 3 thirty-minute programs during this minute. Some women's minutes are only a half hour but others run up to three-quarters and possibly an hour. If you have no radio in your car, you might take a 3 mile walk for recreation; she'll be almost ready to go when you get back.

4—Speaking of the doubleparking tragedy that seems prevalent in all towns big enough for a fire department: you should count a million backwards (to train your mind) while the lady parked behind you runs in a store to get a spool of thread or a lip-stick. Along about sun-down after you have counted seven-eighths of your million, she will return and let you get your car out so's you can go home.

5—When grandpa is asking the blessing at the able, it would be nice for you to have something to nibble on so's you won't be so hungry when he gets thru. It might be a good idea for you not to bend your head over your plate during the blessing; some folks have got cricks by doing that. It simply does not pay to be impatient, but all blessings ain't long.

6—While you are waiting on the feller that's "going to pay you next week," you might take a trip around the world, then you'd get back 3 weeks before the "next week" your debtor had in mind. Waiting and being patient are 2 virtues very few of us possess, but if you'll follow the foregoing suggestions, you won't be a time waster.

MIKE CLARK ADDRESSES A LARGE GATHERING IN FLAT ROCK

dear mr. editor:—
yore corry spondent, hon. mike Clark, rfd, made the followerng speech befoar the ladies aid society of rehober church and flat rock last friday night with much applause ansoforth:

Ladies and feller-citizens:
this here man darwing who said that we sprung from monkeys was

Miss Virginia Benton Honored At University

Miss Virginia Benton, well known here as the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Savgae of the Regal hotel, who is a member of the senior class of the University of Georgia, has been honored by her election to the student council, which is composed of the house presidents, one senior and two juniors from each dormitory.

Only one senior being elected to membership from each dormitory makes it a coveted honor among students.

a all-wet imposter, he mought of, but the ballance of humanntiy did not do so. who can, fur-rinstance, associate miss jennie veeve smith, who is setting befoar me in all her beauty and majesty, with a monkey for a grammaw?

the only man or set of men that ever acted like real monkeys in real life is the leggis-lature in session, and wasn't for the lobbyists, you mought be fooled ever now and then but all lobbyists appear to be 100 per cent human ansoforth how-ever politicians was created from ribs like the rest of us, allso from dust, but not gold dust.

yore speaker is willing to agree that some men in publick life as well as bthers who are married, eat goobers and grin like monkeys, but that capacity was inherited from their human four-fathers, and not from the chimpanzie, as has been stated. it was just as easy to create a man as it was to create a monkey, and possibly easier onner count of no tail on the former.

this ine-stein theory and this evolution bunk is ruining our colleges and churches, and it will sooner or later knock out the verry keystones of same. whoever teeches that the lower annimal life is responsible for the man and the ewoman of today is not fitten to teech school or sing in the quire, holsum moore will please take notice thereof.

ladies and gentermens: i am glad to be yore guess speaker tonight and you have choose wisely. look upon me: do you see annything about me except my mushtach that resembles anny beasts of the woods? (Voices from the audience, yes, what about that gorilla head and them wildcat eyes). the meeting was adjourned at this time.

yores trulie,
mike Clark,
orator.

NEWS PICK-UPS

We're going to start a one-man war against this fancy, foreign type. For instance in the post office there is a map of South American air mail routes. Under it in some of that lace-trimmed type is "Unites Americas". It's so hard to read that the first week we read it "Unties Americas". That didn't even sound funny. So after worrying with it a week to get some possible meaning, we just decided it was Spanish for "The United States."

It wasn't until we got smart and tried to speak Spanish that we really found out the truth about the matter. "Unites Americas". Humph.

Talking to an acquaintance the other day we got around to that little squib we had in this column about Bill Cover last week.

"Incidentally", we remarked, "it's funny but a body doesn't ever go any place but what he doesn't find Cover there. It looks like he's been everywhere".

"You didn't", asks the acquaintance, "ever try going to Heaven or the Legislature, did you"?

Somebody asked Walt Mauney the other day if he didn't run over that deer in the Pisgah forest and back off and shoot it. "No" answers Walt, "the darn thing just kept nibbling on my lunch until I got so mad I shot him".

During the broadcast of the Murphy-Central High game last Friday, Hatchett mixed 50,000 milk shakes, each piece of electrical appartus in Murphy went on and off 5000 times; Walt Mauney squeezed 3247 lemons and 876 oranges; Dave Townson sawed and trimmed 12 million board feet; the Scout press ran off 500,000 papers; Doc Holt filled 1247 teeth; 4752 heads weree clipped in the barber shops, and 650 automobiles honked their horns incessantly for no reason at all.

What a beautiful broadcast! Every-time the radio quieted down so you could hear the game, Central had made 12 more points.

Henry Axley, truck tycoon, has a "puncture fund" which he builds up to fix flats with.

Not having had any punctures last week he could afford a new hat and that pineapple haircut.

Peewee Ellis always looks like he's hunting a deer with that on.

The biggest trouble with women is that they are always right.

From the "Man on the Street" broadcast we learn that there are not 48 states in the United States commonly believed, but there are only 44.

How come? We'll give you a week to figure it out.

(And don't bring in those old notions of health, decomposition and decomposition or ignorance, iseway ozhays).

Treasurer William L. Bates of the Key West Rotary Club has not attended a meeting of the organization for 20 years. Recently he was ill and his members enabled him to keep his exceptional record intact by meeting at his home.
