

This Sunday in the Churches

PRESBYTERIAN

Stewart H. Long, Pastor
November 22, 1936.
11:00 A. M.—Morning Worship.
5:00 P. M.—Vesper Service.
Attention is called to the fact that on the coming Sunday there will be both the morning and vesper services. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to worship with us at these two services.

The Presbyterian Church in the United States, commonly known as the Southern Presbyterian Church, marks the 75th anniversary of its founding on December 4th, the date when the first General Assembly met in the historic old First Presbyterian Church of Augusta, Georgia, of which Woodrow Wilson's father was pastor, and brought into existence the church whose name we cherish. A special anniversary service will be held at the vesper service on the first Sunday in December and all of our friends are invited to join us in this commemoration. More detail concerning this service will be given out later.

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Following the custom of long standing, there will be a union Thanksgiving service for the people of Murphy at the Methodist Church on Wednesday evening, November 25th. Rev. Stewart H. Long, of the Presbyterian Church, will bring the message and the Choral Club, under the direction of Mrs. O. E. Madden has been asked to furnish special music for the occasion. It is hoped that as large a number of the residents of Murphy as possible will be present as an expression of their own thanks to Almighty God and as a part of the nationwide Thanksgiving which our President has directed.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Joseph Simons, Scribe
The Boy Scouts of America, Troop 1, Murphy, met Tuesday night in the Methodist church. They gave an account of their good deeds and were urged to sell their Christmas cards. The Scouts played stealing the bacon which all had fun.

John Andrews of Wickford, Eng., put an electric bulb on the seat of a chair, sat down in the chair, and died of fright when the bulb exploded with a loud pop.

Andrews Theatre

ANDREWS, N. C.

Saturday, Nov. 21

Warren William, in-

"The Case of the Velvet Claws"

Monday & Tuesday

November 23-24

Beverly Roberts and Humphrey Bogart, in

"Two Against The World"

—Also Special Comedy—

"SONG OF THE NATION"

—and MOVIE TONE NEWS

Wed. and Thurs.

November 25-26

WILL ROGERS, in-

"STATE FAIR"

Shows 7:00 and 8:30 P. M.

MATINEE

Saturday 2:30

Admission 10c—25c

METHODIST

A Christian Workers Training School is in progress at the Methodist Church. Classes are being held at the church each evening at 6:30.

The school is being directed by Rev. Carl H. King of Salisbury, N. C. Mr. King is Executive Secretary of the Board of Christian Education of the Western North Carolina Conference. Associated with Mr. King is Mrs. V. A. Hackworth, of South Pittsburg, Tenn. Mrs. Hackworth is Children's worker for the Holston Conference. The classes will continue through Friday evening and the following courses are being presented: "Teaching Children in the Church School", Mrs. V. A. Hackworth, South Pittsburg, Tenn. "Guiding Young People's Worship" Rev. Carl H. King, Salisbury.

MURPHY METHODIST CHURCH

W. Arthur Barber, Pastor
The pastor will bring the messages Sunday at 11:00 A. M. and 7:00 P. M.

Sunday School at 9:45 A. M.
Young People's Societies at 6:00 P. M.

We cordially invite you to worship with us.

EPISCOPAL

Church of The Messiah
Rev. George L. Cranger, Rector
SUNDAY SERVICES

10 A. M. Church School and Young People's Bible class.

7:00 P. M. Evensong and sermon by the Rev. Albert New, Waynesville, N. C.

All most cordially invited to this service.

James E. Moore Struck By Auto, Buried Saturday

Funeral services for Mr. James E. Moore, Jr., 18, formerly of Cherokee county, who was killed in an automobile accident in Atlanta Tuesday night, Nov. 10, were conducted from the New Liberty church near his home in Hot House with the Rev. R. R. Bell officiating. Interment was in the church cemetery. W. D. Townson was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mr. Moore was a member of the United States Army and was stationed in Fort McPherson. While in Atlanta the other night with his friend, Cor. J. S. Stone, he ran across the street to catch a street car when an automobile struck him killing him instantly. His remains were accompanied from Atlanta to Murphy by Cor. Stone. He was to have been transferred to Panama soon.

Pallbearers were: Bass and Willie Benton, Wade Riddle, Edgar Bailey, Carl McHann and Hymer Arp.

Flower girls: Hazel and Fay Denton, Willie Bell and Praise Arp.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Moore, Sr.; two sisters, Evelyn and Doris, and four brothers, Wilfred Loy, Harold and Hugh.

CARD THANKS

We want to extend our thanks to our many friends and neighbors for their kindness and help during the sickness and death of our son and brother, Frank Trull

Mr. and Mrs. M. Trull and Family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for their kind words, deeds, and beautiful flowers given during the sickness and death of our dear husband, son, and brother.

MRS. CARL HENDRIX,
MR. AND MRS. G. F. HENDRIX,
AND FAMILY

Horse stealing has become something of a lost art, but it has been revived with a new technique, according to a report from Staunton, Va. A farmer near there offered a horse to a stranger for $40 and granted the prospective purchaser's request to be allowed to try the animal out. The stranger rode the horse away and didn't come back.

Dramatic Art Class To Present Program

In its first public program to be given at the Woman's Club room the night of Thursday, November 19, at 7:30 the Dramatic Art Class of Murphy will present a varied assortment. There will be negro dialect, child poems, from A. A. Milne a choral reading from Vachel Lindsay, an oration, two one act plays, and several monologues.

The program is sponsored by the Literary Department of the Woman's Club and all members of the club are cordially invited to attend.

The program follows:

The Dude Discusses Woman—Mary Frances Bell.

Saying His Prayers—Doris Bailey. "I Can't Come Out Tonight"—Catherine Coleman.

The Voice of the Night—Jane Moore.

Three Hypotheses—Spring—Billy Jackson.

Choral Reading—Class.

Mrs. Claude On Umbrellas—Sara Sword.

James Morrison—Doris Bailey and Jane Moore.

Our Country's Flag—John Jordan.

Thursday Evening, a play—Billy Jackson, Mary Catherine Bell, Sara Sword.

Mrs. Pat and the Law, a play—Catherine Coleman, Mary Catherine Bell, Sara Witherspoon, Doris Bailey, Sara Sword.

"Jes' Fore Xmas"—Sara Witherspoon.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS

Charging that her husband broke open the baby's bank and gambled away the money she had saved to buy a buggy for the child, Mrs. Charles Lenobel of Chicago entered suit for divorce.

A shrewd firm of New York brokers recently devised a new means of hoarding as a hedge against inflation. As gold can no longer be hoarded they have induced their clients to invest in platinum, cast in three-ounce bars, to be stored in safety vaults. In a few weeks the price jumped from $43 to $62 an ounce.

Tell Muhkestein, student of Brigham Young University, Utah, is partially paying his way through school with prize money won by entering his canaries in singing contests.

W. C. Bailey of Underhill, Vt., learned to ride a bicycle at the age of 78, hoping that this exercise would restore his health. Now, at 82, he thinks nothing of a ride of 60 miles in a day.

David Bernstein of Philadelphia was a candidate for office in a recent election and failed to receive a single vote. He, himself, arrived at the voting booth too late to cast his ballot.

James Lovine, 93, Civil War veteran of Pulaski, Ky., was recently granted a divorce from his sixth wife, and stated that he intended marrying again, and that he'd never stay single as long as there was a woman in the world.

QUICK LUNCH —and a good one—

If you want tasty food and prompt service you will come to our fountain lunch every day. A large variety of choice foods from which to make selections are featured daily. Our hot chocolates and delicious sodas are favorites for afternoon pick-ups. COME IN.

MURPHY CAFE

Money Saving Values At The Regal Dept. Store This Week.

We Are New, Our Goods Are New, And The Latest Styles.

EVERY ITEM A BARGAIN

Ladies JACKETS ZIPPER All Colors $1.98

BOYS' SWEATERS Heavy Wool & Rayon 79c

MEN'S HATS All Sizes 6¾ to 7½ Price $1.45 and up

Men's BOOT SOCKS 25c to 50c All Colors

Girls and Ladies TOBBOGANS All Colors 25c to 50c

Girls and Ladies Scarf & Tam Sets $1.00

Shoes!Shoes!Shoes! Mens work Shoes from $1.95 to $2.50 Men's waterproof SHOES at $2.95 Ladies Shoes from $1.59 up All Latest Styles For the farm ladies a high work shoe only $1.98

Ladies La Debutante Full Fashion SILK HOSE Regular price 79c to $1 Introductory price 69c

men's black front quarter horse hide sport back ZIPPER JACKETS $9.49

MEN'S BOOTS with panco sole, can be resoled. 16 and 18 in. $3.95 men's all leather boots 16 and 18 in. $5.50

The Regal Dept. Store

"On The Square And Fair"

Murphy, North Carolina