

BOOMERS LOSE TO WILDCATS 13-6 SCORE HERE

Thanksgiving Day Classic Is Struggle for Supremacy by 2 Teams

The annual Turkey Day Classic between the Wildcats of Andrews and the Boomers of Murphy opened under ideal football weather with a dry field and a large crowd of supporters for both teams.

The game promised a great duel between Andrews' "Little Ace" Parker and Murphy's Tripple Threat, Barnett. Both boys turned in brilliant performances, until the last quarter when Barnett's weak ankle turned bad on him.

Only a few minutes had elapsed in the first quarter when Murphy scored on a long pass from Barnett to Townsend, who received the ball on Andrews 30 yard strip and raced the remaining distance to the goal. O. Taylor made this possible with one of the most beautiful blocks ever seen on a high school gridiron.

Andrews came back in the second period living up to their name of Wildcats. Parker raced off tackle behind almost perfect interference for twenty five yards to Murphy's eight. In spite of a stubborn goal line stand by the Boomers the Wildcats scored with only inches to spare.

Andrews second tally came as a result of a break they received when Ramsey fumbled near his own goal. Andrews recovered, putting them again in scoring position. Here again Andrews smashed into a fighting Murphy line four times before finally putting the ball over the double stripe.

Late in the fourth quarter Murphy made their last serious threat, being turned back on the Andrews fifteen by a hard charging Wildcat line.

The game ended in the middle of the field with Andrews in possession of the ball.

The line-up follows:

MISS CONLEY, 85, OF CONLEYS CREEK BURIED WEDNESDAY

Funeral services for Miss Sarah Conley, 85-year-old resident of the Conley's Creek section of Union county, Ga., near the Cherokee county line, were conducted Wednesday afternoon at the Ivey Log Baptist church with the Rev. C. B. Martin officiating. Interment was in the church cemetery. W. D. Townson was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Miss Conley, who was born and reared in the section in which she died, had many friends and relatives

Money Raised To Paint Local Carnegie Library

Various civic organizations contributed last week to the fund being raised to redecorate the interior of the library. Work will be started this week on the upstairs rooms. The downstairs will be repainted by the Woman's Club.

The Charity League contributed $10, the Junior Club, through a "tag lay" drive, raised $14, and the School children who use the library during the entire year contributed by buying "tags" to the amount of $11.45. Members of the Lions Club contributing were as follows: Harve Elkins, $1. Peyton Ivie, $1. K. C. Wright, $1. W. A. Sherrill, $1. T. W. Kindley, $1. H. Bueck, $1. Walter Coleman, 50c. T. A. Case, 50c. W. N. Rogers, 50c. C. D. Mayfield, 50c. Sam Carr, 50c. W. A. Barber, 25c. P. J. Henn, 75c. miscellaneous, 50c, making a total of $10. from that organization.

Fair Prices Promote Good Farm Practices

Stabilizing agricultural prices at a "fair level" makes it possible for the farmer to follow a balanced cropping system that conserves the soil.

There is a direct relation between the up and down price of farm commodities and the care that is given the soil, said E. Y. Floyd, of State College.

When prices are ruinously low, he said, farmers tend to grow all the cash they can in an effort to wrest a living from the land. They are virtually forced to keep every possible acre in cash crops.

And under the pinch of low income, few farmers are able to carry out the good practices necessary to enrich the soil and conserve it for future years.

Thus low prices work in two ways to force a type of farming that rapidly depletes the soil, Floyd pointed out.

On the other hand, high prices induce farmers to raise all the cash crops they can in their desire to make money while the making is good. And farmers tend to neglect their soil.

In places, the custom of growing cash crops year after year with few soil-building crops in rotation or as a cover crop has so reduced the fertility of the land that it is impossible to make a decent living farming this land, he continued.

The 1938 agricultural conservation program, he said, is intended to stabilize prices at a level that will encourage farmers to carry out good soil-conserving practices and check the wasteful depletion of the land.

Only Four From Cherokee County File For Funds

Thousands of dollars are lying unclaimed in the United States Treasury because those to whom the money now due under the old-age insurance provisions of the Social Security Act have not filed claims for the amounts due them, Graham Martin, Manager of the Asheville Field Office of the Social Security Board, which serves this area, said today.

A large number of workers who have reached 65 since January 1, 1937, and the estates or relatives of eligible workers who have died since December 31, 1936, apparently are unaware the Social Security Board is making lump-sum payments now to those eligible persons who file claims, Mr. Martin said.

Although actuarial experts believe that there are 751 persons in the 19 western North Carolina counties covered by the Asheville Field Office who would be entitled to secure lump-sum payments this year, there have been only 120 claims filed to date from this area. It was estimated that 19 claims would be filed from Cherokee county. However, only 4 claims have so far been received.

It is probably that many persons to whom lump-sum payments are due have not filed claims because they do not know the Social Security Board is making such payments now. They may be confused by the wide notice given the fact that payment of monthly old-age benefits will not begin before January 1942.

Another reason may be that the sums due to many persons are small.

The lump-sum payment amounts to 31-4 percent of the total wages of the eligible worker. For example: Suppose wages totalled $1,000; the 31-2 percent lump-sum payment would be $35; if wages totalled $100 the 31-2 percent lump-sum payment would be $3.50. Many workers seem doubtful about what is meant by "total wages". Total wages, under the Act, means the sum of all the wages paid by all employers for all the time an employee worked in covered employment after Dec. 31, 1936, and prior to death or reaching 65, not counting wages over $3,000 from any one employer. Naturally the lump-sum payment due a man who reached 65 on January 3, after being paid for one working day, will not be as great as the amount due

Humblest Dairy Cow Likes Good Rations

Even the humblest dairy cow has her own ideas about what she likes to eat, and only palatable feed will tempt her to eat enough to maintain a full milk flow.

A good dairy cow has a tremendous capacity for converting feed into milk, said John A. Arey, of State College, and to make full use of this capacity, she should be induced to eat all she can.

A healthy cow relishes a grain mixture containing several different feeds, but she usually gets tired of a ration containing only one or two kinds of grain.

Variety in the grain mixture not only makes it more palatable, Arey pointed out; it also insures against a shortage of minerals and provides needed proteins.

The grain mixture should not be too concentrated. If it weighs about one pound per quart, it has the right amount of bulk.

Such feeds as wheat bran, ground oats, ground barley, and beet pulp are often used to add bulk and variety to the mixture.

But grain is only a supplementary feed, Arey emphasized. Cows need plenty of good pasture when it is available and a full feed of silage and legume hay in winter.

Dairy men who buy feed for their cattle will get better results if they purchase only feed in which the percentage of nutrients is fairly high. When the percentage of crude fiber runs high, the fiber fills up the cow's stomach without providing the digestible nutrients she ought to have.

to the man who received an equal daily wage every working day since last December 31 till now.

Yet another reason many eligible persons have not filed claims seems to be they do not know they are eligible. Lump-payments now are due to two groups of persons:

First, to the worker himself who has reached 65 since January 1, 1937, and who has been paid wages for work done as an employee since December 31, 1936, and before he reached 65.

Second, to the estate or relatives of a worker, no matter what his age, who has died since December 31, 1936, provided the deceased worker had been paid wages for work done as an employee, after December 31, and before he reached 65.

Every assistance will be given by the Asheville Field Office of the Social Security Board to those who inquire about payments or who wish to file claims.

YOU CAN GO FLYING WITH RAE MOORE NOW—FOR HE'S GOT HIS LICENSE

You can go riding in an airplane with Rae Moore now—if you can talk him into it like the reporter did—for he has his noncommercial pilots license signed, sealed and delivered.

Mr. Moore, one of the most enthusiastic airmen in this section, has been taking lessons in flying for the past three years. Monday a week ago he completed his 130th hour of solo flying and successfully passed the noncommercial pilot's examination.

By winning this distinction Mr. Moore becomes the only person within 100 miles of Murphy who can fly a plane at all, let alone taking up his friends.

About two years ago, when Rae first became interested in flying, he went in with a group of boys in Atlanta, hired a plane and a pilot to teach them the art—and a manly art, too—of flying. Three of the boys he went in with had gotten their licenses previously but all of them had flown more hours than Mr. Moore before they could make those dangerous curves, banks and stalls necessary to get the instructor's John Henry on the dotted line.

Rae says it is possible for a man to get a noncommercial pilot's license with as few as 65 hours solo flying—but precious few airmen ever do it.

He plans to buy a plane of his own and keep it here if ever there is an airport or landing field established in this section.

Senior Class At Andrews To Present Play

"Here Comes Charlie", a farce-comedy in three acts by Jay Tobias, will be presented by the Senior class in the Andrews School Auditorium on Friday, Dec. 3, at 7:30 p. m. (EST). The play has a splendid plot combining pathos with plenty of humor, and offers an evening of real entertainment.

It has an unusually good cast, starring Sue Amond and Clyde Jarrett. The cast includes also Marguerite Ward, Wade Derreberry, Lucile Mulkey, Gon Robinson, Edith Hampton, Daniel Glenn, Emogene Matheson, and George Cayton. The play is directed by Mrs. G. W. Cover, Jr., Senior Class Sponsor.

Tickets are now on sale for 15 and 25 cents.

Timely Farm Questions

QUESTION: Should the poultry breeding flock receive any extra attention not given to the laying flock?

ANSWER: Where careful management and feeding is practiced, the requirements for the breeding flock are not. However, to secure maximum performance, the breeders must be in a good body weight, free from parasites, and must not be crowded. The diet should be carefully balanced and a liberal increment of milk products should be incorporated in the ration as well as alfalfa leaf meal and a potent reinforcing oil. All breeding birds must be in the best of health if a healthful progeny is to be expected.
