THE PICTURE MAN

On Thursday, October 20 we had our pictures taken (or should I say our scare-crows) yes sir!

Well I want to tell you how it happened, may I? Yes?

Well—we were all sitting in our room studying when someone pounded at the door! well, Joe Ladd of course went to the door, and there stood a man! Joe asked him in, but the man asked for Mr. Smith. Well, Mr. Smith went out and talked to this man. He came back in and asked us if we wanted our pictures.

Of course we did. Then of all the primping Nellie Davis did it, to say nothing of Ola Kilpatrick. Well now I didn't do anything; only comb my hair and look at myself in the mirror.

We, the seventh grades, were first to have ours taken. Claude Davis and Marion Doss went out to the fountain to comb their hair, and we liked to have never got them in to have theirs taken.

If you want to know anything else about this ask a Marble elementary scholar.

Doris McConnell.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION PERIOD NOW BEING EMPHASIZED

At the first of this year Mr. Smith, principal of Marble school, set aside a "physical education period" which begins at 9:50 a. m., and lasts until 10:30 a. m. during this period each teacher has a group of children to whom she is teaching some definite game. Some of them are as follows: Six and Seventh Grades

The boys have been practicing softball, also football, but now are practicing basketball.

The girls are practicing basketball. They have learned to play volley ball and softball. The fifth grade directed by Miss Kate Hayes has been playing softball.

The fourth grade has been playing volley ball. The second and third grades has been playing dodge ball and running races.

The first grade has been playing dodge ball.

The teachers have been trying to build up the bodies of the girls and boys of the Marble Elementary school so they will be healthier and lead a better life in the future.

Ola Kilpatrick.
