Missionary Society Meets On Tuesday

The Methodist Missionary Society held its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon, in the Ladies Parlor of the church.

The meeting opened with soft music by Mrs. Tom Axley. Mrs. R. C. Mattox, program leader for the afternoon, read the Call to Worship. This was followed by the hymn, "Come, Peace of God", sung by the group, and responsive reading by the leader and the group. After a short period of silence the group was led in prayer by Mrs. J. H. McCall. The Scripture Lesson taken from Matthew 5: 9, 38-48; 6: 19-21; and from John 14: 27, was read by Mrs. Mattox, after which she read the Prayer for Peace. The Missionary Topic, "Bridging National and Racial Barriers", and the Meditation Talk, "Christ or 'Crutches'", was very capably and interestingly presented by Mrs. Mattox. Mrs. J. H. McCall, President, then had charge of the business meeting, during which time the election of new officers for the coming year was held, as follows:

President, Mrs. J. H. McCall; vice-president, Mrs. E. C. Mallonee; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. S. Miller; treasurer, Mrs. H. G. Elkins; asst. treasurer, Mrs. Edna Hastings; supt. of Babies Work, Mrs. Willard Axley; supt. of Children's Work, Mrs. B. R. Carroll; supt. of Mission Studies, Mrs. W. A. Hoover; supt. of Christian Social Relations, Mrs. E. F. McElfresh; supt. of Outlook, Miss Ada Harshaw; supt. of Supplies, Mrs. John Axley.

Those attending the meeting were: Mesdames: E. B. Noxell, Willard Axley, W. A. Barber, Tom Axley, Tyle Turpen, R. B. Ferguson, E. D. Akin, A. A. Savage, J. H. McCall, R. C. Mattox, E. F. McElfresh, James Smallshaw, H. G. Elkins, W. E. Studstill, Mrs. W. M. Kuykendall and Mrs. Julia Martin were welcomed into the Society as new members.

Young Woman's Circle Meets With Mrs. Case

Mrs. T. A. Case and Mrs. H. G. Elkins were joint hostesses to the Young Woman's circle of the Methodist Church at the home of Mrs. Case. Following the business session Mrs. Tom Mauney and Mrs. L. A. Lee took charge of the program the subject being, "Mary, the Guiding". Mrs. Tom Mauney read an interesting article on "prayer." Mrs. W. A. Barber, who will leave soon for her new home, was delightfully surprised with a handkerchief shower. A salad course was served to the following members: Mrs. W. A. Barber, Mrs. Wade Massey, Mrs. O. E. Maddox, Miss Adela Meroney, Miss Alleine Richardson, Mrs. J. T. Mauney, Mrs. Tom Axley, Mrs. W. A. Hoover, Mrs. L. A. Lee, Mrs. H. G. Elkins and Miss Elizabeth Ann Elkins.

TO THE CITIZENS AND VOTERS OF CHEROKEE COUNTY

I am now coming again to ask you as citizens of my county to reelect me to the office of Clerk of the Superior Court.

I have nothing to offer you for myself except my record which I have established during the past four years.

I HAVE NOTHING TO SAY AGAINST MY OPPONENT OTHER THAN HE IS A GENTLEMAN.

I am not receiving any compensation except what I receive from my services as your Clerk.

My opponent is a world war veteran and I certainly admire him as such; however, he receives adequate compensation for such services, or at least the veterans administration must think so.

I am glad of the fact, further, that I am able to get endorsement from world war officers of my county as to what I have done for the veterans and not have to go to some other state.
