C. C. Kirby, 64,
Former Railway
Employee, Dies

Funeral services for Mr. Charles Calvin Kirby, 64-year-old resident of Murphy, were conducted at his home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. J. C. Ammons, Baptist pastor, officiating. Interment was in Sunset cemetery. Peyton G. Ivie was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mr. Kirby, a retired railroad man, died of a heart illness he had suffered for two months Monday afternoon at his home.

He was born in Bristol, Tenn., and spent his younger years there. For 41 years he was an engineer on the Southern railroad. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Pallbearers were: Doyal Birch, W. H. Murray, Elmer Stiles, Efton Christopher, Henry Hyatt and Jim Hembree.

Surviving are: his widow; and seven children, Willie C., Hugh, Paul, Oliver Howard and Ada George Kirby, all of Murphy, and Clarence Kirby, of Knoxville, Tenn.

T. C. Kilpatrick Is

Mr. Kilpatrick who had not visited in this section for the past five years, plans to leave Saturday for his Illinois home.

LOCAL WELFARE
OFFICE REQUESTS
OLD CLOTHING

A number of requests have been coming to the welfare department for clothing all of which cannot be supplied by the WPA sewing rooms. Any person who has old clothing which might be distributed to needy persons in the county is asked to notify the superintendent of welfare or to bring the clothing to the welfare office in the court house.

Donations of shoes, hose, sweaters, and coats are especially needed, but
