

OLD VOLUMES ARE ON DISPLAY AT MURPHY LIBRARY

An exhibit of old volumes of books and bound magazines has been arranged at the Murphy-Carnegie library here by the Womens club as the fourth series of exhibits to be undertaken by the club this fall.

A wide variety of old volumes dating back as far as 1758 and periodicals published more than a century ago is included in the exhibit.

Mrs. Tom Case, of Murphy, is the chairman of the group in charge of the display. Other members of the committee are: Mrs. Hall Cobb, Mrs. Miriam Stillwell Allen and Miss Martha Wiswall.

Also of interest in the unusual exhibit is a hand-written textbook of mathematics (including a proposal of marriage to the teacher!) and diaries of soldiers during the War Between the States.

Many prominent families in this section have loaned rare volumes to the collection.

Dance To Be Given At Hiwassee Dam Nov. 18

A dance will be held at Hiwassee Dam in the spacious auditorium Friday night, Nov. 18, from 7 p. m. until 1 a. m. It is being sponsored by the Hiwassee Dam Womens club.

Music will be furnished by Von McLane's Swingsters, popular band that has played for several dances at the dam. Prizes totaling $5 will be given during the dance.

A large crowd from Murphy and vicinity are expected to attend.

Lions Hear Cook, District Governor

Robert Cooks, District governor of Lionism, addressed the Murphy Lions at their regular meeting here on Tuesday night.

Mr. Cook, who is a native of Shelby, based his talk on the letters, "L-I-O-N-S". The negative topics discussed were: laziness, intolerance, occasionalism, negation and selfishness. He then discussed the following positive words: loyalty, idealism, optimism, nobleness and service.

President H. G. Elkins, who presided, reported that Dr. E. E. Adams, secretary of the club, is in a critical condition in St. Mary's hospital, Knoxville.

The Rev. Van A. Harrison, new Methodist pastor here, was recognized by the club. Another guest was J. A. Harrill, of Charlotte.

Mavis Radford Placed In Jail By Officer

Mavis Radford, 23, of the Unaka section, was lodged in Cherokee county jail Wednesday afternoon on charges of driving under the influence of liquor, carrying a concealed weapon and assault with deadly weapon.

Arrest was made by Patrolman E. B. Quinn, Jr., who sought to arrest Radford after Radford's brother, Cliff, decided to lift a bond for Mavis Radford's appearance in Superior court on charges of highway robbery.

Quinn, who had a tussle with Mavis Radford in Murphy while arresting him, said that Mavis Radford had taken the gun from Cliff Radford earlier in the day and had threatened Cliff Radford's life with it.

Trade Classes To Be Held For Local Men

Trade classes for carpenters and steamfitters will be conducted at the Murphy elementary school building for men living in or near Murphy who are following these trades, it was announced this week.

The class for carpenters will include blueprint reading and mathematics taught by Carlos Campbell. This class opened Tuesday, Nov. 1, at 7 p. m., and will meet each Tuesday and Friday night for a course of ten weeks.

The class for steamfitters will include blueprint reading, mathematics and fabrication taught by James H. Millis. It opened Wednesday, Nov. 2 at 7 p. m., and will meet each Monday and Wednesday night thereafter for ten weeks.

These Classes form a part of the general training program for employees of the Tennessee Valley Authority and though primarily planned for such employees, they are open to all men following these trades who wish to take advantage of training opportunities.

ties made in the petition. They also contended the charges would have to be accompanied by affidavits.

Outline Reasons For Recount

The Democratic representatives at the meeting declared there was cause for investigation. The secretary of the election board in reading the minutes toward the end of the closed meeting, said the action "was to be supported by six affidavits".

The Democratic members of the board made the following appointments for the recount: Edwin Hyde and E. C. Mallonee, to tally returns, and W. A. Boyd, R. A. Dewar, John Hall and Fred O. Scroggs, watchers. Mr. Hyde is chairman of the Republican party and Mr. Mallonee is chairman of the Democratic party. Boyd and Dewar are Republicans, and Hall and Scroggs are Democrats.

In compiling unofficial returns after the election Tuesday night, figures indicated that Jarrett, Townson and Donley had won the representative, sheriff and clerk of the court offices by small majorities. It was indicated that Jack Morphew of Robbinsville had a plurality in this county for state senator from the 33rd district, and that Bass Padgett had a plurality of about 300 votes for register of deeds. Morphew and Padgett are Democrats.

The unofficial tabulation also indicated that O. G. Anderson, Republican, had been elected to the surveyor's office, and that Dr. Fred L. Herbert Republican had been elected to the coroner's office by majorities of several hundred votes.

Results of the races for the posts of County Commissioner in the three districts could not be accurately determined.

ices could be obtained.

In the state it was evident that Senator Bob Reynolds and Congressman Zebulon Weaver were victorious in the elections. John Queen, running for solicitor, in the 20th judicial district was unopposed.

It was also unofficially reported Thursday that Jack Morphew Democratic senator from the 33rd district had majorities in the five counties of the district and was leading by about 1,200 votes. His opponent was McKinley Edwards, of Bryson City.

Lunsford To Go On Trial For Slaying

The case, which involves the death of Spivey by a shot gun wound in the side which Lunsford claims he inflicted in self-defense, will be the outstanding hearing to be held during the two-weeks civil and criminal session.

According to Sheriff L. L. Mason and Deputy Sheriff G. P. Robinson, who investigated after the shooting, Lunsford and Spivey had been in a family argument over something Spivey is alleged to have said to his wife who was Lunsford's sister. Lunsford claims Spivey pulled a knife on him and that he shot in self-defense with a shot gun which hung on the wall of one of the bed rooms of the house. The blast killed Spivey immediately. The shooting occurred about 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Funeral services for Mr. Spivey were held at the Upper Peachtree church last Tuesday afternoon and at the lower Peachtree Baptist church later. The Rev. James Truett and the Rev. Himan Hyde officiated. The Peachtree choir sang four songs, dedicating one to Lawrence, his wife and family. Interment was in the Peachtree cemetery.

Active pallbearers were: D. E. Griffity, Hill Thomasson, Alfred Lunsford, Bill Barker, Troy Breedlove, Felix Holloway.

Honorary pallbearers were: B. A. Breedlove, C. W. Thomasson, Calvin Lunsford, John Curtis, Glycer Johnson, Fred Breedlove, Vernon Thomasson, Earl Moore, Deo Moore, and J. W. Barker.

Flower girls were: Misses Charlotte, Irene and Fannie Thomasson, Euniver Lunsford, Grace Moore and Stella Mae Barker.

Mr. Spivey had been a member of the Upper Peachtree Baptist church for several months.

Surviving are: his widow and a nine-months-old son, Hayward; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spivey two sisters, Miss Lillie Spivey and Mrs. Bill Bradshaw, and five brothers, Willard Dillard and Oliver, all of Dallas, N. C.; Troy, of Oregon, and Harlie, of Peachtree.
