MUST KEEP OPEN DOOR IN CHINA

Recognition of General Chiang Kia-shuk's government as having control in China will not be withdrawn according to understanding from authoritative sources.

Japan will be opposed in setting up puppet governments and closing the "open door" in China. It is viewed, according to information, that regardless of Japan's military success in China today, the present Chinese government still exists and that the Chinese are far from conquered and the United States will have no part in any agreement for the dismemberment of China.

till a place can be found for him in the State Hospital at Morganton.
