

Short Sport Splints

Murphy resumes the football wars Friday as they play host to the invading Swain Hi eleven of Bryson City. The game is scheduled to begin at one o'clock.

The Bulldogs will attempt to get revenge for last year's licking at the hands of these same Swain Countians, who scored on the last play of the game to eke out a 7-0 win.

Murphy will be bolstered by the return of Jack Crawford to the lineup but at the same time will lose the services of Clyde Amos, end, for the remainder of the year.

Tuesday the Cherokee Indians make their annual appearance in Murphy for a football tussle which will highlight the district meeting of the American Legion. This game will also start at one o'clock.

Homecoming Day will be observed at Murphy High School on Thursday, November 20, it has been announced by K. C. Wright, principal of the school. This will be the first event of its kind to be held at the local school.

An attempt will be made to get as many as possible of the old grads back on the campus and to attend the gridiron tilt that afternoon between Hayesville and Murphy. It is planned to have the alumni meet at the school at 10:30 to elect officers.

Special prices will be given alumni who buy their game tickets at the school that morning.

A team of Murphy bowlers invaded Ducktown Tuesday evening and came away with victory in a five game match. The locals turned the match into a runaway, winning four of the five games and having a total pin advantage of 259 pins for the series. Loren Davis led the locals with a five game average of 170. He also scored the high game of the evening—a glittering 212.

The Man Shop furthered tightened up the bowling league race Wednesday by registering a two out of three conquest over the Dickey Feed Store. In the Ladies' League, Blanche's Beauty Shop lost their first game of the season to the Duchess Shop but the Duchess immediately dropped three straight to the Teachers.

The reply of the Georgia State Engineer to the Carolina Engineer follows, in part:

"I have discussed this request with the Highway Board, and they stated they would PREFER TO WAIT AND SEE WHAT ACTION THE PUBLIC ROADS ADMINISTRATION TOOK ON ROADS THAT WE HAVE ALREADY REQUESTED BE ADDED TO THE FEDERAL AID SYSTEM.

The Board indicates that A LITTLE LATER ON THEY WOULD BE WILLING TO CONSIDER this request.

of the term to be devoted to civil cases.

Several divorce cases are listed. These, mostly uncontested, may be disposed of, but most of the second week probably will be taken up with a rehearing of the suit brought by Fred Dickey, Jr. to break his father's estate.

Young Dickey was left $1,000. At the first trial last spring, the jury was unable to agree.

There are three ways a sailor may attain perfection in the specialized work of his own choosing: by study in Navy Schools, by practical experience aboard ship, by spare time study aided by correspondence courses conducted by the Navy.

Andrew Gillespie, 68 Dies Following Stroke; Funeral Held Friday

Andrew B. Gillespie, widely known contractor and builder, died at the home of Mr. Bright Raper here Saturday afternoon. He was 68 years old.

dragged to the railroad tracks by mules.

The bear is a fine testimonial for local hunting.

In the Forest Game Preserves, hunters are paying twenty-five dollars a day for just such a privilege as the Crisps had. Those $25 a day hunters have had luck, too—but it has been mostly bad.
