

Wise and Otherwise

IT'S very charming to marry a beautiful girl, but it's much better if the beautiful girl can make a beautiful lunch, advises an advisor. Sort of dinner belle, eh?

A smile is a thing of immense face value.

Pull the Trigger on Lazy Bowels, with Ease for Stomach, too

When constipation brings on acid indigestion, stomach upset, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, sour taste and bad breath, your stomach is probably "crying the blues" because your bowels don't move. It calls for Laxative-Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels, combined with Syrup Pepsin for perfect ease to your stomach in taking. For years, many Doctors have given pepsin preparations in their prescriptions to make medicine more agreeable to a touchy stomach. So be sure your laxative contains Syrup Pepsin. Insist on Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin. See how wonderfully the Laxative-Senna wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your intestines to bring welcome relief from constipation. And the good old Syrup Pepsin makes this laxative so comfortable and easy on your stomach. Even finicky children love the taste of this pleasant family laxative. Buy Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna at your druggist today. Try one laxative combined with Syrup Pepsin for ease to your stomach, too.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery. Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination. There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

DOAN'S PILLS

BASEBALL may have a better philosopher in its midst than Casey Stengel, mandarin of the Boston Braves, but we doubt it.

During the past few weeks we have put in considerable time hurling the divots of leading stars with Casey in tow, or vice versa, along the western border of bunkerland, discovering each time new depths in the Stengel philosophy. A certain star would plunk one into a trap, squawking bitterly when he found a heelprint.

Casey Stengel

"Did he," asked Mr. Stengel, "expect to find the trap studded with a flock of wooden tees? Suppose some of these birds had to play from places I pick out from hole to hole?"

It was no difficult job to swing Casey back to baseball. "The draft," he said, "can make these two pennant races a big scramble. And I'm not referring to the Yankees. The main American league scramble will be to keep somewhere in sight of the Yankees. Any ball club that has DiMaggio, Gordon and Keller doesn't have to bother much. But there can be a big scramble for second and third places.

"We might find out, for one example, whether the loss of Ted Williams hurts the Red Sox more than Feller's absence hurts Cleveland. The Yankees suffer no such destruction. That's the way it is in life. The breaks usually swing to the top, not towards the bottom."

In the National

Casey looked for an even tighter race in the National league than 1941 had to show.

"The Dodgers and Cardinals will be about as strong as they were a year ago. I believe the Reds can be better, with the pitching they are sure to get. Just a few more base hits can make this club a tough contender back of Walters, Riddle, Derringer and Vander Meer. Those are four rough parties to face in any series. I feel sure the Cubs and Pirates will improve. Maybe the Giants. I hope we do.

Bucky Walters

"We have some pretty fair kids coming along—if they are not taken away in the draft. This is where the scramble comes in. No one can say now how many more players will have to go by midsummer. And you'll find few ball players turned down physically. They are a pretty healthy lot.

"One big trouble with baseball," Casey said, "is the little so many players seem to learn. They are usually big, fast and strong, and they appear to think that's all there is needed to make a ball player.

"Oh, here and there you find a rookie who is keen to learn his trade, to improve himself. But you don't find this sort often. There are too many who either know it all or are too lazy to work at it in the hard way.

"Good baseball is a smart man's game. This is why many an old-timer will still hang on this season, and more kids will fall back. It should be a big year for the veterans. I could use a fellow in Los Angeles by the name of Jigger Statz who is 43 years old. He is still one of the best outfielders in baseball and a pretty fair hitter."

The 1942 Season

Philosopher and psychologist Stengel looked forward to a good baseball year.

"The average human mind," he said, "can handle only so much trouble and brooding. It needs some form of release now and then. The entertainment and the amusement baseball brings to millions will be badly needed. And this can in no way interfere with war work of any sort.

"Workers in war industries can use an hour or two here and there to rest their nerves and get needed relaxation. All those needed for war service will be taken. They have been called in large numbers and they still will be called whenever and wherever wanted. But there will be others left—many others—including older men with families. Not so many of these will be taken, with so many unmarried younger men around.

Anyway, Jonah Had Been Taken In by the Whale!

The nervous curate had arranged to preach on Jonah and the whale.

"And for three days and three nights," he began, "Jonah was in the—"

He blushed, stammered, stopped, and then started again:

"For three days and three nights Jonah was in the—"

Once more he was covered with confusion, and once more he stopped, and mopped his face.

Then he gathered his courage in both hands, and with a mighty effort he finished triumphantly: "And for three days and three nights Jonah was in the society of the whale."
