On The Home Front

Now that the Japanese have won control of Malaya and are threatening to establish themselves completely in Dutch East Indies, they are offering to sell the United States crude rubber at 18 cents a pound.

When you recall that we were paying the Dutch and British an average of from 24 to 25 cents a pound for crude rubber before we entered the war, the question arises: Why such generosity?

If we accept the Japanese promise and if we believe Tokyo's implied promise to behave now that it has won a certain economic domination in the Far East, what incentive is there for us to fight a bitter war in order to help the British and Dutch regain their lands so they may profiteer once more at our expense? That's what the Japs want us to believe. That's how they hope to undermine our will to fight. But remembering the Axis record of broken pledges, we remain as impervious to fine Japanese words as we are to Japanese bombs.

Speaking at the launching of the 35,000-ton battleship Alabama, Navy Secretary Frank Knox said:

"The burden upon our navy is the greatest it has ever had to bear. The United States must gain control of the seas—not merely the surface, but the waters below and the air above."

HOLIDAY PASSED UP

Donald M. Nelson, War Production Board Director, requested full production on Washington's birthday.

"If in any plant a holiday is scheduled next Monday—cancel it," he said.

"If we lose the battle of production we lose the war." Nevertheless, a few plants failed to respond.

The decree was officially regarded a salient precedent for other holidays, including Memorial Day, the Fourth of July and Labor Day.

SUGAR TICKETS READY

The first batch of sugar rationing tickets are off the press. The tickets are in the books which are designed for rationing other foodstuffs, to be announced later.

HOUSES FOR DEFENSE

Completed during the week ending January 31 were 1,882 new publicly financed homes for families of defense workers and enlisted personnel, to bring the national total of such homes ready for occupancy to 77,755. With 5,726 homes going into construction during the week, the total of public financed defense homes now being built or completed has pushed up to 137,451.

FEWER COLORS

Colors of next year's auto license plates probably will be limited to black and white and domestic earth colors, such as red oxides, ochre,umber, sienna and a small amount of iron blue. Yellow markings on streets and highways also are on their way out. Both moves are a part of the pigment conservation program.

The WPB recently froze all tin and tin-bearing materials in the hands of manufacturing jewelers. The manufacture of costume jewelry will be hard hit. It is estimated that the order will make approximately 1,000,000 tons of tin available for war production.

CLOTHIERS WARNED

Wholesale and retail clothiers who have acquired abnormally large stocks have been warned that their action merely increases the likelihood that WPB will take over distribution of supplies among all jobbers, wholesalers and retailers.

A salvage drive to save grease and food fats for glycerine-making is coming soon, glycerine being an important ingredient in the manufacture of explosives. Military demand for glycerine probably will insure plenty of soap, since soap is a by-product.

The Bureau of Industrial Conservation has begun a survey of all auto graveyards. The WPA is conducting the survey in cities of 15,000 or more, and the Department of Agriculture, which is doing the work in the smaller towns and countries.

Where an operator refuses an offer for the scrap, the material may be requisitioned.

M. under the direction of Mr. M. A. Huggins, State Secretary. Lunch was served by the ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society. The local W. M. U. was in all-day session also.

Splendid Tribute Paid Wife of Lofton Mason At Rites In Washington

Outstanding tribute was paid to the wife of John Lofton Mason following her recent death in Washington, D. C. according to former Mayor J. B. Gray, who attended the funeral. Mr. Gray said the rites were attended by nearly 300 people, and that the chapel was literally heaped with floral offerings.

Mrs. Mason, aged 38, and the former Sue Marks, of Raleigh, was fatally stricken with pneumonia, following the recent birth of the couple's only child. Her husband, brother of former Sheriff Loster Mason, is the Property Clerk of the Washington, D. C. Police Department and also is an attorney. Until her death, Mrs. Mason was also an employee of the District of Columbia, in the License Division. She was buried in Congressional cemetery, Washington.

Besides Mr. Gray, the funeral was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Loster Mason, and Mrs. Edith Evans, a sister.

Girls From Graham Prove Too Strong For Andrews Team

Robbinsville and Andrews divided honors on the basketball court in a doubleheader at the Andrews gym last Friday afternoon. The Robbinsville boys were beaten, 21 to 13, but the Robbinsville girls' team romped off with victory to the tune of 27-11.

It was the same story when the two teams from the Stecoah school battled the Andrews outfits a few days ago. The Stecoah girls won, and the Stecoah boys lost.

The Stecoah girls, according to their opponents, are the smoothest team to be seen in Andrews for many a moon. They won handily and probably could take the measure of any
