Jasper B. Cobb, 79, Stricken By Death From Heart Attack

Never completely recovered from the shock of losing his wife, Jasper B. Cobb, 79 year old farmer, of Culberson, Rt. 1, fell dead from a heart attack last Friday morning, as he left his home for the fields to supervise spring plowing. A physician said death had been instantaneous.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at the Mount Zion Baptist church, in Georgia, with the Rev. John Cook, an old friend of the family officiating and with grandsons as pall bearers. Townson funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Cobb is survived by eight children; four sons and four daughters. One of the sons, A. B. Cobb, of Cutbank, Montana, is a multi-millionaire oil operator, and the others are all prosperous.

Informed by long distance phone of his father's death, Mr. A. B. Cobb secured special permission from the Government to fly his private owned plane, so that he might get here more quickly. His brother, Erous, also of Cutbank, flew with him.

Landing at Chattanooga the two were met by two other brothers, John S., of Fontana, Calif., and R. T. of McKittrick, Calif., and by one of his sisters, Mrs. Zelma McNamara also of McKittrick. They made the remainder of the trip in a chartered car.

The other three sisters, who also journeyed to the old home for the funeral are: Mrs. Zona Crawford, of McKaysville, Ga.; Mrs. Tishia Curley, of Gastonia; and Mrs. A. L. Loudermilk, of Murphy, Rt. 2.

Survivors in addition to the immediate family include two sisters of the dead man: Mrs. Amanda Patterson, of Knoxville; and Mrs. Bud Mason, Blairsville; and two brothers: J. C. Cobb, of Hemp, Ga., and M. L. Cobb, of Long Beach, Calif.

The dead man's grandfather, David Thompson, was the first white man to settle on the Notley River, or in the section now known as Union County, Ga.

To The Voters of Cherokee County

I wish to announce myself as a candidate for Sheriff subject to the Democratic primary to be held on May 30th.

If nominated and elected I will devote my energies to being Sheriff all the time. You won't have to hunt me—I'll be on the job.

I also want to say to the voters of Cherokee County, if nominated and elected, I will do my very best to enforce the law, and protect the citizenship of our county. I will play no favorites. If the tax books are turned over to me I will collect the taxes and turn the money over to the County as fast as I get it.

Also I will settle with the County to the last penny just as I did in 1933-1934 and 1937-1938 when I was Sheriff and tax collector.

Finally, I want to say to the voters of Cherokee County that if nominated I will not try to buy my way into office. I want a fair election.

Thanking one and all in advance for your votes and support.
