NO BETTER SPOT IN THE MOUNTAINS THAN

Cherokee County

WE HAVE EVERYTHING TO MAKE YOUR SUMMER VACATION ENJOYABLE IN EVERY WAY

Angler's Paradise

One of the country's most noted black bass centers is Hiwassee Lake, a 6,500 acre body of water bordering Murphy and formed by the impounding of water in the famous Hiwassee Dam. This lake, about 15 miles long and with 150 miles of shore-line, attracted several hundred fishermen on the opening of the Black Bass season, June 10. The strings of fish taken from the Lake fully justify the reputation of Cherokee County as an anglers' paradise. Last year's record black bass ran eight pounds, while it is the usual thing to hook four and five pound beauties.

Andrews and Murphy---Two Resort Centers

Andrews is situated near the head of the beautiful Valley River Valley on U. S. 19 and 129 about 40 miles from the border of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. Andrews is about 2,000 feet above sea level and slopes of the surrounding mile high mountains sweep upward from the town limits.

At Andrews you will find a warm welcome and a spirit of sincere friendliness. There is none of the hustle and bustle of the usual vacation towns, but a feeling of leisure and restful enjoyment of the wonders of nature all around. The Terrace Hotel offers every convenience.

Transportation facilities make Murphy easily accessible to tourists. Murphy is just 60 air miles from Atlanta, Chattanooga and Knoxville. Surrounded by the magnificent beauty of towering mountains and Lake Hiwassee, Murphy is an ideal place to spend your vacation.

Along the shores of beautiful Lake Hiwassee are many camps. Boating, swimming and fishing are major sports here. Into the mountains wind trails taking motorists through wonderful scenery.

Resort visitors will find exactly what they need in many every day articles at the Murphy Supply Company, which is an up-to-date department store. Courteous clerks accommodate our patrons.
