

NEWS FROM ANDREWS

Phone
6

HOLD COTTAGE PRAYER SERVICE

Cottage prayer meetings were held each night this week in various sections of the town through Friday night with the exception of Wednesday night at which time a central meeting was held at the Baptist church.

The groups as arranged were as follows: Group No. 1, Rev. E. A. Felkner, pastor of the St. Andrews-in-the-Mountains Lutheran church leader met Monday night in the home of Mrs. Cleo Almond. Group No. 2, Rev. Roy L. Houts, pastor of the Andrews Methodist church leader, met at the home of Mr. L. B. Nichols. Group No. 3, met at the home of Mr. George W. Lunsford with Mr. Harve L. Mulkey as leader. Group No. 4, Rev. Ed. Willis leader, met at the home of Mr. D. F. Buchanan. Group No. 5, with Rev. Sammy Wheeler leader, met at the home of Mr. R. P. White. Group No. 6, with Mr. P. L. Matheson leader, met at the home of Mr. C. C. Robinson.

All meetings were held at 7:30 o'clock with the same group leader in charge during the weeks prayer services.

The Rev. A. B. Cash pastor of the First Baptist church of Murphy will conduct a series of services beginning Sunday evening September 13. The Rev. E. F. Baker expressed a desire that two objectives would be reached in the group meetings. First, Personal Cleansing through confession and dedication and second, PERSONAL SERVICE, seeking the lost through prayer and work.

Almond - Lewis Wedding Solemnized In Charlotte

The marriage of Miss Mavis June Almond, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Thurston Almond, of Andrews, to John Puett Lewis of Charlotte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robb S. Lewis of Dallas was solemnized in a ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle Smathers, brother-in-law and sister of the bride groom at Charlotte, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, September 5.

How's Your Beauty These Days?

Our famous establishment has been devoted to the proposition of beautifying women for many years.

Our hair tye and lovely permanent cost so little and result in compliments of self satisfaction.

Murphy Beauty Shop

Under personal supervision of Mrs. Neva Holt

Phone 9117

The Rev. Huggins, pastor of the Dallas Baptist church officiated. The vows were spoken before an improvised altar. Baskets of white chrysanthemums and cathedral tapers were used in the decorations.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Louise McKettrick of Gastonia, pianist played "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell and "Because". During the ceremony she played softly, "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs Bond. The traditional wedding march from Lohengrin, by Wagner was used as the processional, and the march by Mendelssohn was played as the recessional.

Unattended

The young couple entered the living room together. The bride was attired in a powder blue costume crepe street length suit dress with all accessories in powder blue. Her shoulder length veil was attached to a small hat made of feathers. She carried a white leather prayer book to which was attached a white orchid. Her only ornament was a gold cross which was made and presented to her by her father.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. The bride table was centered with a two-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Smith was assisted in serving by Mrs. Arthur Watkins of Andrews, sister of the bride, and Miss Modena Lewis of Dallas, sister of the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride wore a black crepe dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Mrs. Lewis, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy crepe dress with a corsage of gardenias.

Immediately after the ceremony, the young couple left for a short wedding trip after which they will reside at the Hawthorne apartments, Charlotte.

Mrs. Lewis is a graduate of Mars Hill college and received her B. S. S. A. degree in June from the Woman's college of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro. While at Mars Hill college she was president of the Clio Literary society. For the past four months she has been employed by TVA at Bryson City.

Mr. Lewis is a graduate of Mars Hill college. He was president of the Philomatheon society and served as page in Washington in the house of representatives. He now holds a position with the Southeastern Bus Tariff bureau, Charlotte.

Mrs. W. G. Lail left Friday for a visit at the home of her parents at Red Springs.

Mrs. G. E. Lail spent several days of last week in Murphy with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Forsyth.

Private Max Phillips, of Ft. Benning, Ga., is spending a medical furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pitt Phillips.

Mrs. C. T. Almond and son, Charles, has returned to her home after a stay of several days in Charlotte, where she attended the wedding of her daughter, Miss June Almond, to Mr. John Puett Lewis of Charlotte.

FIRST AID COURSE GIVEN AT ANDREWS

A First Aid course was given last week at Andrews for Auxiliary Firemen, Auxiliary Policemen and Rescue Workers. The course was held each night in the Elementary School building. Actual class practice and work began at 7:30. R. P. Lovin-good, who is a First Aid Instructor taught the course. The following men were enrolled in the course: Garland Adams, Bruce Bristol, Robert Bristol, Henry Cathey, Walter Calhoun, John Christy, Neil C. Hay, Grady Haggood, Clyde Jarrett, Ray Matheson, J. V. McGuire, Frank Swan, Frank Wildhide, W. D. Whitaker, and L. B. Womack.

Two books were used in the course. Handbook of First Aid, prepared by the Office of Civilian Defense and First Aid Textbook, prepared by the American National Red Cross of Washington.

The following problems of First Aid were discussed and practical applications made and demonstrated: advice to Civilian Defense First Aider, general directions for applying First Aid, care of wounds, dressings and bandages, control of serious bleeding, burns, shock, fractures, transportation of injured persons, artificial respiration and First Aid Kits.

Buffet Supper Honors Miss Violet Spivey

Mrs. Henry Walker, the former Miss Violet Spivey, member of the faculty of the Andrews Elementary school was honored at a buffet supper and miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening by members of the associated organizations of the Woman's missionary society of the First Baptist church, including the Young Woman's Auxiliary the Business Woman's circle and other circles.

The affair was held at 7:00 o'clock in the ladies parlor of the church. The large room was decorated with late summer flowers in pastel shades with pink and white asters predominating. The room was entirely lighted by candles. A corsage of pink rosebuds and gypophila was presented to the bride by Mrs. Jack Herbert president of the Young Woman's Auxiliary.

The bride's table was covered with a hand embroidered linen cloth and centered with a two tiered wedding cake topped by miniature bride and bridegroom on reflector base, encircled with an arrangement of pink and white azalea-mums interspersed with fern. Tall white tapers in silver holders were placed at each end. A shower of gifts was presented to the bride.

Following the supper a program was presented. Mrs. D. H. Tillett gave two bridal readings and a military contest was directed by Mrs. E. F. Baker. Mrs. Galusha Pullium presented two readings "Query" and "What is 'dis bride wuf" by Martha Young.

Mr. Mamie Snyder of Franklin and daughter, Mrs. T. T. Love, of Nantahala, spent Saturday here with relatives.

Junaluska School Is Absorbed By Andrews

Last week the 23 pupils who had enrolled in the Junaluska school took their books and slates and came to the Andrews elementary school to be absorbed here in the various grades. This leaves only one white elementary one-teacher school in the Andrews unit, namely, Tipton, according to a statement made by Supt. I. B. Hudson.

Since 1935, when Supt. Hudson assumed his duties here, the following schools have been consolidated with the Andrews Elementary School: Fairview, Oak Grove, the 2 teacher Rhodo School, and Junaluska.

Miss Sara Johnson of Atlanta, Ga., is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike McGuire.

Miss Charlotte Varner member of the faculty of the Murphy school spent Sunday here as guest of Mrs. Roy T. Houts.

Sgt. James Lyle Hamilton who has been on cadri duty at Ft. Sheridan, Ill., for the past five months is spending a furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harce Hamilton. Sgt. Hamilton formerly spent three years in the Panama Canal Zone.

Mr. and Mrs. Berton Rutledge and daughters, Misses Clara and Vera Rutledge of Lenoir were guests over the week-end of Rev. and Mrs. Roy T. Houts. The party was enroute to Bob Jones college at Cleveland, Tenn., where the Misses Jones will attend school this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Rodgers, of Louisville, Ky., have arrived for a week's visit with Mr. Rodgers' mother, Mrs. Charles W. Rodgers and his sister, Mrs. D. H. Tillett.

William Baker of Greenville, S. C., spent the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Baker. He left Monday for Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C., where he will be inducted into the U. S. Army.

Captain and Mrs. Mell Tibbett, and Captain and Mrs. Ed Barrack, of Miami, Florida, are spending a two weeks' vacation here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wade Reece.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harris of Atlanta, Ga., spent the week-end here as guests of Mrs. Harris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Dewar. Mrs. Harris is the former Miss Alice Dewar

Andrews City Schools Have Enrollment 1220

The Andrews City schools had enrolled at the end of the first week 1220 pupils. Of this number there were in Andrews 255 high school pupils and 710 elementary pupils. Marble enrolled 189 pupils and Tipton 41. The colored school reported an enrollment of 23.

The enrollment for this year is 90 elementary pupils lower than last year and 18 high school pupils. This drop in enrollment can be accounted for by the large number of families who moved away from this vicinity when the Nantahala Dam was completed, and also to the large numbers of boys who are now employed that are of school grade and age. The total numbers of pupils lost over last year is 108.

Gordon Rodgers and small daughter, Rebecca, spent Labor Day here as guests of his mother, Mrs. Charles W. Rodgers.

Mrs. Willa Bell Posey, and daughter, Miss Sara Ruth Posey, left Thursday for Asheville, after spending a vacation here at the home of Mrs. Posey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sandlin.

Mrs. Agnes Humphries who has spending several weeks here visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bert Wheeler, left Thursday for her home at Burgaw.

Clyde Jarrett, Jr., student at Southern Dental college, Atlanta, Ga., has arrived to spend a vacation here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jarrett.

Mrs. Elton Bradley has returned after a stay of several weeks in Atlanta with her sister.

Mrs. Newell Ward spent several days of last week in Murphy with her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Holt.

Mrs. Carl Tower has returned to her home in Raleigh after a week's stay here at the home of her brother, William P. Walker, and Mrs. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lang and small daughter of Cleveland, Tenn., spent the week-end here visiting Mrs. Lang's father, W. T. Moore.

Mrs. Arthur Bristol spent several days of last week here visiting relatives and friends.

Baby Beef Show

AND SALES BEING SPONSORED BY NORTH CAROLINA BANKERS ASS'N.

The Committee on Agriculture of the North Carolina Bankers Association is sponsoring the Western North Carolina Baby Beef Show and Sale, which will be held in Asheville.

THE DATES—October 7 and 8.

THE PLACE—City Water Department Garage Building on Valley Street.

THE TIME—Judging will begin at 1 P. M. on the 7th. The Sale at 1 P. M. on the 8th.

THE JUDGE—Mr. C. D. Swaffer, Jacksonville, Florida, Livestock Development agent for the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad.

Detailed information regarding the premium lists and other matters in connection with this event will be announced later.

Communicate with your County Agent or an Official of this Bank regarding entries, etc.

CITIZENS BANK & TRUST COMPANY

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Murphy, N. C.

Andrews, N. C.

HENN ANDREWS, N. C. THEATRE

Thursday - Friday, Sept. 10-11

LESLIE HOWARD - LAURENCE OLIVIER

"The Invaders"

Saturday, September 12

CHARLES STARRETT - RUSSELL HAYDEN

"Lawless Plainsman"

Sunday - Monday, Sept. 13-14

BUD ABBOTT - LOU COSTELLO

"Keep 'Em Flying"

Tuesday - Wednesday, Sept. 15-16

— A Double Feature Program —

LUM 'n' ABNER

"Bashful Bachelor"

WILLIAM HOLDEN

"The Remarkable Andrew"

Thursday - Friday, Sept. 17-18

JOHNNY WEISSMULLER - MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN

"Tarzan's New York Adventure"

FOR SALE

32 Chevrolet

One half ton truck — good rubber, good condition, two extra tires—

$125.00

ALSO WANTED TO BUY GOOD YOUNG MARE, WEIGHT 1000 lbs, MUST WORK ANY WHERE.

Will buy good male or horse of same qualities.

C. A. SEXTON

Murphy, N. C., Rte 3