JUNIOR AUXILIARY PRESENTS PLAYLET

The Junior Girls' Auxiliary of the Baptist Women's Missionary Society under the direction of Miss Edith Truett, leader, presented a playlet "Let There Be Light—Through State Missions", Thursday afternoon at the church at the special observance of State Missions by members of both circles of the Woman's Missionary Society.

Those participating were Frances Jane Phillips, portraying "The Spirit of State Missions", Kathleen Painter, "Sue"; Betty Galusha represented the Baptist hospital; Billie Mulkey, "Christian education in our churches and colleges"; Betty Mulkey, "State Mission Board"; Mary Bowman represented "Mission churches"; Alene Anderson, "Woman's Missionary Union"; Jean Berrong, "Racial Groups"; and Daisy Mae Grant, "Work in our defense areas."

Kathleen Painter and Alene Anderson sang a duet, "Whisper a Prayer", accompanied at the piano by Frances Jane Phillips. An offering for State Missions was taken while Betty Mulkey held a candle representing the light this offering would bring to many people.

A prize was given by the leader, Miss Truett, to Kathleen Painter, for outstanding performance. Judges were: Mrs. Charles T. Almond, president of the Woman's Missionary society, Mrs. Bruce Battle, circle leader, Mrs. Jep Bradley, circle leader, Mrs. W. A. Cathey, M. S. W. G. McKeldrey, Mrs. W. A. Hyde and Mrs. H. L. Mulkey.

Following the meeting refreshments were served.

ROYAL CROWN COLA TALKING:
WHO SAYS MY FRIENDS AREN'T FIGHTIN' MAD?

Here's Joe. Rumorship and crime. Slams the tanks of ships together like he had a personal grudge against Hitler. But Joe's only human. Gets tired and down in the mouth sometimes. I give him a quick-up and a fresh start... and Joe's fightin' mad all over again.

Here's Mrs. Richards. Two sons in the Navy. Two kids at home to take care of. She's fightin' mad, too. Rang every doorbell for blocks to pledge folks to buy more War Bonds and Stamps. Many's the time she turned to me for a moment of ice-cold relaxation, then went on punching doorbells—fightin' mad.

Here's Bill. So fightin' mad he enlisted in the Signal Corps. Tramps through maneuvers with a walkie-talkie packed on his back. By nightfall it weighs a ton. But at the camp canteen I give him a lift that makes him begin to feel fightin' mad again.

Me? I'm only a 5¢ soft drink. A moment of relaxation in the home front's "war of nerves."

I and my relatives see more than 39,000,000 Americans each day. Help 'em relax. Help to send 'em back—fightin' mad.

Wherever I can help—just a little bit—to keep that fightin' mad spirit burning, you'll find me on the job.

My best-by-taste-test flavor keeps me moving out of the stores... fast. I may not always be at your store. But when I am there, you'll find that same best-by-taste-test quality—unchanged!
