Glee Club Gives Chapel Program On Armistice Day

The chapel program at Murphy high school on Armistice Day was given by the high school glee club under the direction of Miss Mildred Akin. The stage was decorated with panels on which were painted children of other countries. These panels were made by the art classes under the direction of Miss Margaret Curd.

The title of the program was "A musical trip to other countries," and each country was announced by Lois Hatchett, who gave a short sketch of the music of that country. The girls of the glee club were dressed in the costumes of the different countries. Following is the outline of the program:

- Ireland—Armaryllis Little, Virginia Price, Pauline Rogers—"Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms".
- Scotland—Margie Johnson, Hazel Johnson—"Auld Lang Syne", "Loch Lomond". The Highland Fling was danced by the following girls from Miss Adie Leatherwood's sixth grade: Ruth Beavers, Eloise Sneed, Louise Gibson, Martha Porter Axley.
- Wales—"All Through the Night".
- England—Elfrida Price, Mary Lou Hatchett—"Oh, No, John".
- Netherlands—A Dutch dance was done in costume by the following members of Miss Emily Sword's fourth grade: W. A. Sheriff, Barbara Reid, Billy Brandon, John Hensley, Anna Ruth Campbell, Glenn Swain, Peggy Baugh, and Bobby Haney.
- France—Althea Price, Mary Jo Elliott and Jane Davis. "Farandole".
- Spain—Juanita.
- Italy—Leila Stiles—"Dusolina", "Santa Lucia".
- Germany—Claudia Odum—Folk song.
- Hungary—Sue Roberts, Bernice Bracken—one of Brahm's Hungarian Dances.
- Poland—Frances Vandiver, Myrtle Mills—"The Crimson Kerchief".
- Russia—"Song of the Volga Boatman".

Other girls of the glee club, aside from those mentioned in costume were: Edith Rogers, Eula Mae Kidd, Alma Odell, Mary Lee Mills, Wilma Johnson, Mamilee Taylor, Lotila Harben and Mary Moore. Mrs. Duke Whitley accompanied the glee club.

BEAUTIFUL

Beautiful sun that giveth us light,
 Beautiful moon that shines by night,
 Beautiful planets in the heaven so far,
 Beautiful twinkle of each little star.
 Beautiful waters so blue and so clear,
 Beautiful sound of the surges we hear,
 Beautiful brooklet, its ripples so sweet,
 Beautiful flowers that bloom at our feet.

Beautiful springtime when all is delight;
 Beautiful summer, so warm and so bright;
 Beautiful autumn, with fruits and with grain;
 Beautiful winter, with snowflakes again.

Local Red Cross Asked For 115 Kit Bags For Men In Service

The War Department has asked the Red Cross to supply our forces overseas with kit bags containing a few necessities which cannot be secured on South Seas Islands, in the desert, or in other far-off places. The quota sent to the Murphy chapter with the request that they be completed as rapidly as possible is 115 kit bags. The cost is approximately one dollar for each kit, so it will be necessary to raise $115.

A meeting was held Tuesday afternoon to plan means of securing this money. The Red Cross headquarters suggested that as far as possible this money be secured from organizations. Mrs. E. S. Miller was appointed to contact the various organizations. Mrs. T. A. Case, chairman of the Murphy Red Cross chapter, presented the information sent out by the War Department and Red Cross headquarters. She appointed Mrs. Harry Miller to act as chairman of the project.

Mrs. H. Black, chairman of the Junior Red Cross chapter, reported that arrangements had been made to have the bags made at school by Junior Red Cross girls under the direction of Miss Ruth Emory. Miss Mildred Farrow was asked to secure helpers to fill the kits.

The following information was sent about the kits: They are of olive drab cotton fabric and will contain the following articles: small soap box and soap, dack of playing cards, package of cigarettes, shoe polishing cloth, small pencil with cap, package of envelopes and paper, package of chewing gum, pair of tan shoe-laces, waterproof match box, package of double-edge razor blades, small book, pocket size, humorous, detective, etc., and small sewing case.

If any individuals who do not belong to an organization, wish to contribute toward these kits, they may leave money at the business office of the Scout, Mrs. C. W. Savage, or at Candler's store.

WOMEN AT WAR

BUY WAR BONDS

WE salute you—wartime housewives, clothing and feeding your families better with the least possible expenditure—wasting nothing and salvaging every least scrap that can be contributed toward the fight to win! We salute you—working women at war, in offices and factories, keeping the wheels of production turning, stepping in to do a man's job while he's off to battle! Women of the farm, toiling from dawn to night helping produce the food for freedom... women whose sons shall emblazon our Victory with glory—you are all Women at War gallantly going forward in the spirit of America's first pioneering women.

You know the cost of war in more ways than one! But realistically you know its cost in terms of the billions of dollars which must clothe and feed, and equip our millions of fighting men; and so whatever active part you play in this fight for liberty, you have been regularly dedicating every penny and dollar you can to the purchase of War Bonds and Stamps. Now, as you serve as an inspiration to all fellow-Americans to be vigilant in this support of our heroes on land, on sea, and in the air. Proudly, we are privileged to sell you War Bonds and Stamps at conveniently located Booths where you can make your purchases, to make this week mark the biggest sale of War Bonds since Pearl Harbor!

Women at War—we salute you. "Women at War Buy War Bonds" to win the Victory, and to win the peace!
