WED IN WINSTON-SALEM — Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Horace Davis, who were married at Waughtown Baptist church in Winston-Salem February 3.

Kenneth Davis, Miss Day Wed In Church

Miss Carrie Rich Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Evans Day, Sr., of Winston-Salem, became the bride of Kenneth Horace Davis, son of Fred Davis and the late Mrs. Davis of Murphy, Sunday, February 3, at four o'clock in the afternoon, at Waughtown Baptist church in Winston-Salem. Dr. A. M. Church officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

A background of ferns and greenery, interspersed with white gladioli and cathedral candles in seven-branched candelabra, formed the nuptial setting.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Ralph Conrad, pianist and Carson Johnson, soloist, presented the following program: "Intermezzo," "Romance," "Prelude in C," "O Perfect Love," "Always," and "The Belles of St. Mary's". The traditional wedding marches were used and during the ceremony, "Clair de Lune" was played softly.

The bride entered with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. Her gown of white satin was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The full skirt extended into a cathedral train and the full length veil of illusion was caught by a Juliet cap. The bride carried a prayerbook on which was pinned white orchids showered with Roman hyacinths.

Mrs. Caldwell N. Day was matron of honor and Miss Eloise Davis, sister of the bridegroom was maid of honor. Miss Mildred Winfree and Mrs. O. N. Holt of Greensboro were bridesmaids, and Dale Conrad and Margaret Susan Day of Winston-Salem were ring bearers. The attendants' gowns were fashioned with pink satin bodice with sweetheart necklines, three quarter length sleeves and net skirts. They carried bouquets of blue iris, rose and gladioli. The ring bearers wore white satin dresses, the skirts of which were trimmed with net ruffles and carried white satin pillows upon which the rings were placed.

Arden Davis of Murphy attended the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Bob Day, Caldwell N. Day, of Winston-Salem; Merle Davis of Murphy, and S/Sgt. William Day of Winston-Salem.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home on Longview Drive.

After the reception, the couple left for an unannounced wedding trip. They are making their home in Murphy since their return.

The bride received her education in the city schools of Winston-Salem, at Mars Hill college and Salem college. Prior to her marriage she was employed by the accounting department of R. J. Reynolds Tobacco company.

Mr. Davis was graduated from Murphy city schools and Mars Hill college. He has recently received his discharge from the service after 30 months in the Pacific.

Those from Murphy who attended the wedding were: Miss Eloise Davis, Arden Davis, Mrs. Joe Hamilton, and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Moore and Misses Marie Price, Moselle Moore of Shelby, and Jane Moore of Atlanta spent two weeks in various points in Florida, returning home last Friday. They visited St. Petersburg, St. Augustine, Auburndale, where they saw Mr. and Mrs. Dutch Kindley; and other points.

Mr. Dreher, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dreher of West Columbia, S. C. is now completing his fourth year as a student at Clemson College, S. C., after receiving a discharge from the army February 1. He was a navigator in the Army Air Force for three years.

At present Mrs. Dreher is making her home in Murphy, until living quarters can be found at Clemson.

Honors Guest With Valentine Party

Little Miss Rosiland Ammons, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Roger Ammons, entertained with a valentine party and handkerchief shower on February 14, honoring Nancy Marie Lovingsood of Summerville, Ga., who is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. J. C. Ammons.

As the guests entered they donned formal costumes and crowns fashioned after the "Queen of Hearts". The artful decorations of the rooms and heart shaded lights added the "fairy land" atmosphere which promoted the imaginary pretense of the little queens. After the enthusiasm of being queens grew old, games, singing, stunts and posing for pictures were enjoyed. As the queens posed for the camera they crowned Nancy Marie as queen of all. She then found gifts that had been hidden by the tiny fairies. Refreshments were in keeping with the "fairy land" party.

Salmon in a Mold or Loaf Spiced With a Bit of Cayenne

By BETSY NEWMAN

MANY OLD recipes call for a dash of cayenne pepper. I think it was used a good deal more half a century or less ago than it is today. However, a dash of it is very good in certain dishes, and maybe it would be a good thing to revive the habit.

When there are children in the family I believe in keeping condiments down to a minimum, and be sure not to get too much cayenne even in dishes for adults. A pinch best describes the amount, but not too big a pinch. Paprika is a good substitute, as it is milder.

Today's Menu
Salmon in Mold • Salmon Loaf
Creamed or Scalloped Potatoes
Frozen or Canned Green Peas
Molded Tomato Salad
Lemon Rice Pudding Tea

Salmon in Mold
1 can salmon 1/2 c. fine bread
2 eggs crumbs
Chopped parsley Salt, pepper, 4 tsp. melted dash of butter or cayenne
margarine

add seasonings, 1 tsp. s. lt., 1/16 tsp. pepper, dash of cayenne, parsley. Last, add the beaten eggs. Put into buttered mold, and set in a pan of hot water; cover pan and let steam in the oven, keeping the water at boiling temperature and replenishing it as it evaporates. Cook 1 hr. Turn out on hot platter and serve with cream sauce to which chopped, hard-cooked eggs have been added. Serves 6.

Salmon Loaf
1 can salmon 1 1/2 c. fine bread
4 eggs, beaten light 1/2 p. salt
4 tsp. melted butter or Pepper and margarine cayenne

Remove bones from fish, picking over carefully, add butter or margarine, mixing until smooth. Beat crumbs into eggs and season before working together. Put all into greased mold and steam 1 hr.

Sauce for Salmon Loaf
1/2 c. butter or Yolks 2 eggs
margarine Juice 1 lemon
Mix all over hot water and add 1 c. boiling water. Turn loaf out on platter and pour sauce around it. Old-fashioned and extravagant, but you can try it. Serves 4 or 6.
