C. S. Smith Killed By Knife Wounds

Jennie Smith of Murphy, died at Murphy General hospital about 12:30 o'clock Sunday morning from members of the North Carolina knife wounds received in an al-Press association and guests at a terreation with Leonard Moore, 30 according to Sheriff L. L. Mason

Leonard Moore waived preliminary hearing Tuesday morning and is being held in jail awaiting trial at the August term of court.

In court before Justice of the Peace D. M. Reese, the court held that there was no evidence against Cecil James who was being held as an accessory to the crime, and he was dismissed and placed under a $400 bond as a material witness in Sheriff Mason stated that Odean Stiles was driving a taxi owned by Smith and that Moore asked him to take him to get some whiskey. Smith got into the car with Stile: and Moore and told them he would not allow whiskey to be hauled in his car, the officer reported. They started to take Moore to his home when Moore started an argument with Smith and Smith made the Worship"; at 8 o'clock, Mr. Tate Store, Regal, 9:30 a .m.; Tomotla statement that Moore was cutting him, the sheriff said.

He never spoke after that. They got out of the car and Stiles separated them and found that Smith had been stabbed seven times, once in the arm, once in the back and five times in the chest, one wound being under the heart and ranging upward. Smith was rushed to the hospital where he died in about 30 minutes. Dr. Harry Miller, coroner, pronounced that death was caused by stabs in the chest.

Sheriff Mason, Highway Patrolman Charles Galloway and two deputies George Postell and Cari Stalcup went to Moore's home and prrested him. Mr. Mason stated that they found his bloodstained clothing hidden under the mattress. Cecil James, Moore's cousin, who was also in the party, was arrested also, and the two were lodged in jail to await trial.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church with the pastor, the Rev. T. G. Tate officiating assisted by the Rev. Alfred Smith. Burial was in the old Methodist cemetery.
