MEDITATION

"If thou consider what thou art within thee, thou wilt not care what men talk of thee. Man looketh on the countenance, but God on the heart. Man considereth the deeds, but God weigheth the intentions."

Farm Safety Week

This week, July 21-27 is National Farm Safety week, and people are being urged to follow rules for the prevention of accidents that take a heavy toll annually.

More people were killed by accidents in farm homes alone last year than were killed in the great Chicago fire, the sinking of the Titanic, the San Francisco earthquake and fire, and the Johnstown flood combined.

People do not hear much about the accidents that occur in the farm home. Many of them do not get into the papers. And yet that is the scene of the greatest number of farm accidents. National Safety Council figures indicate that nearly 7,500 farm home fatalities occur each year.

There are many suggestions in this week's advertising columns for observance of safety rules, to make the farm and farm home safer places to work and live, and readers are urged to take note of these suggestions.

Prevent an accident and save a life.

Baptist Circles Have Meetings

The Fannie E. S. Heck circle of the Baptist Woman's Missionary society met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Lloyd Hendrix. Mrs. Hendrix presided and led the program. She gave the Scripture reading and Mrs. C. W. Arnold offered prayer. Topics discussed were: "What Makes Our Nation Great", by Mrs. Thelma Dickey Phipps; "Christian America's Contribution to World Peace", by Mrs. J. M. Ammons; "How Brazilians Win Their Homeland" by Mrs. Ben Palmer, and "What Our United States Mean to Me" by Mrs. J. L. Savage. An editorial that was written at the Southern Baptist convention was read by Mrs. W. A. Paper. Following the program, refreshments were served by the hostess. Twelve members were present. Mrs. W. C. Kinney was hostess to the Lottie Moon circle. Mrs. E. L. Shields, co-chairman, presided in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. B. B. Cornwell. The devotional theme was "Our Covenant of Peace", Mrs. Shields read the scripture, John 14-27, followed by prayer by Mrs. W. H. Murray and the Woman's hymn, "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations." The theme of the meeting was "What Makes Our Nation Great." Mrs. Elmer Fentress of Oak Grove, Ky., gave the topic, "Christian America's Contribution to World Peace," after which a short business session was held. Mrs. Kinney was assisted by Mrs. Homer Ricks of Akron, O., in serving refreshments to eight present, including two visitors.

1935-39 average. Sugar supplies may increase slightly also. The old saying that the home garden increases high living and decreases high cost of living is especially true today.
