

Tuesday, Nov. 5 Is Election Day

Citizens of Murphy and Cherokee county will go to the polls next Tuesday to vote for their choice of the following candidates:

Solicitor—(D) Dan K. Moore; State Senator, (D) Baxter C. Jones, (R)—F. Herbert; Representative—(D) Mrs. G. W. Cover—(R) Bruce West; Sheriff—(D) Frank Crawford, (R) Hadley E. Dickey; Clerk superior court, (D) J. L. Hall—(R) C. H. Townson; Register of Deeds, (D) B. L. Padgett, (R) John W. Axley; Coroner, (D) Dr. Harry Miller, (R) Dr. W. A. Hoover; County commissioners—(D) E. A. Wood, W. E. Moore, Allen Brendie; (R) N. W. Abernathy, W. D. Townson, J. E. Graves.

Justice of the Peace—(R) D. M. Reese.

Amendments making the constitution equally applicable to men and women—the words "Man" and "Men" in the old law being changed to read "Persons".

Amendment allowing limited necessary expenses of members of the General Assembly—Provide that for the duration of both regular and special sessions the members shall receive, in addition to the salaries provided for, the sum of ten dollars per day for each day not to exceed sixty days in any one session in commutation for expenses incurred for travel to and from their homes to the seat of government, subsistence, and other necessary expenses.

Club Members To Study Arts And Crafts

Home demonstration schedule for November is as follows:

Friday, November 1, Violet, Mrs. Gay Murphy, 1:30 o'clock; Tuesday, November 5, Brasstown, Mrs. Bert Smith, 2:00 o'clock; Wednesday, November 6, Postell, Mrs. G. W. Young, 2:00 o'clock; Thursday, November 7, Peachtree, Mrs. Noah Hembree, 1:30 o'clock; Friday, November 8, Sunny Point, Mrs. Homer Bryant, 11:00 o'clock; Tuesday, November 19, Bellview, Mrs. Guy Hill, 10:00 o'clock; Tuesday, November 19, Grandview, Mrs. Howard McDonald, 1:30 o'clock; Wednesday, November 20, Unaka, Mrs. James Carter, 1:30 o'clock; Thursday, November 21, Tomotla, Mrs. Bob Lowe, 2:00 o'clock; Friday, November 22, Slow Creek, Mrs. Gus Johnson, 1:30 o'clock; Tuesday, November 26, Martin's Creek, Martin's Creek School, 1:30 o'clock; Tuesday, November 26, Valleytown, Mrs. Bill Cathey, 2:00 o'clock; Tuesday, November 26, Ranger, Mrs. Charles Kilpatrick, 1:30 o'clock.

"Arts and Crafts" will be the topic for discussion at the November meetings.

Penland Heads New Chapter Of Disabled Veterans

J. M. Kennedy, Jr., senior vice-commander of Disabled Veterans for North Carolina, and assistant veterans employment representative for North Carolina, met with a group of about 50 veterans at the courthouse here Wednesday night, October 23, and organized a Cherokee county chapter of Disabled Veterans. Mr. Kennedy spoke to the veterans, as did Monroe Redden who was here for the Democratic rally.

Mr. Kennedy was assisted in the organization by Fred Burnett, Jr. assistant vice commander. The following officers were elected: Hugh Penland, commander; Abe Zimmerman, Jr., vice-commander; Winslow King, Jr., vice-commander.

The next meeting of the veterans will be held at the courthouse Thursday night, November 7, when the organization will be completed.

Two Accidents Occur In One Same Family

MIDWAY — Mrs. Mamie Rich is at her home in Murphy with a bruised, possibly fractured, leg caused by a fall at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cleo Davenport, near Culberson Tuesday night. Mrs. Rich, who has been employed at the Georgia Baptist Children's Home, at Hopeville, Ga., went to her daughter's home to spend Tuesday night. The same night Mrs. Davenport was called to a Dalton, Ga., hospital where her husband, Ira, and two relatives had been taken after being seriously injured in a car wreck. The fall which injured Mrs. Rich occurred while she was caring for the four children and the livestock at the Davenport home.

Librarians At Southern Meet

Miss Josephine Heighway and Mrs. Sara Lloyd, Murphy librarians, attended the meeting of the Southeastern Library association which was held in Asheville last week from Wednesday through Saturday. The association comprises nine states. Approximately 500 people were in attendance, Mrs. Lloyd reported.

The George Vanderbilt hotel was headquarters, and other meetings were held at the City auditorium.

Scout Executive Board Meets

The Executive board of Murphy Girl Scouts met at the home of Mrs. Clyne Woody recently to plan the winter program. Sister Virginia Hetherington, the new scout leader, was present. It was decided to start a patrol of ten-year-old girls and to invite them to the next meeting. Mrs. Ben Warner reported on the nature study activities of the patrol. Several completed notebooks on leaf collections with block prints of leaves were admired.

Mrs. Woody served coffee and cake to the committee. The girl Scouts is sponsored by Murphy Woman's Club. The executive board consists of Mrs. Jerry Davidson, Mrs. E. H. Brumby, Mrs. R. G. Alexander, Mrs. Ben Warner, Mrs. C. E. Weir and Mrs. Harry Miller.

SERVICES ANNOUNCED

The Free Methodist church makes the following announcement of their services for Sunday:

Sunday School, 10:00 a. m.; Morning Worship, 11:00 a. m.; Young People, 7:00 p. m.; Evangelistic Service, 7:30 p. m.

The pastor, Rev. Fred R. Horton, will be speaking at both morning and evening services. Also prayer meeting is Thursday at 7:30 p. m. A welcome awaits each one.

HAS OPERATION

Mrs. Jack Taylor underwent an operation at Woman's Clinic in Chattanooga last Friday. Her condition was reported to be fair Tuesday. Mr. Taylor was with her during the operation.

ON RADIO HOUR—Dr. Walker B. Healy, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Hot Springs, Arkansas, who will be the speaker on the Presbyterian Hour next Sunday morning, November 3, at 8:30 A. M. E. S. T., over an independent network of southeastern radio stations.

Dr. Healy was born in Lynchburg, Virginia, and took his college work at Lynchburg College. He was graduated from Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Virginia, in 1935, and his first post was that of assistant pastor and director of religious education in the First Presbyterian Church of Houston, Texas. From there he went to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Monticello, Arkansas, and a few years ago began his present work at Hot Springs.

The subject of Dr. Healy's address will be "Better Homes for a Better World."

Funeral Held For Mrs. Will Monkus

Funeral services were held at Green Cove Baptist church, Brassstown, Wednesday, October 23, for Mrs. Will Monkus who died on the 21st after several days' illness. The Rev. Ham Coffey officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery with Ivie funeral home in charge.

Surviving are the husband; five daughters, Mrs. Loy Panther, Rt. 1, Murphy, Mrs. Stella Whitaker, Mrs. Edna Panther, Mrs. Dora Dewese, and Mrs. Dorothy Panther; three sons, Ernest, Arvel and David Monkus of Clay county; four sisters, Mrs. Martha Meadows, Mrs. Florence Range, Mrs. Mae Crisp, and Mrs. Maudie Barnes; four brothers, Hayes Buchanan, T. B., Ephraim, and Collie Buchanan of Cherokee.

WEEK OF PRAYER SERVICE

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will hold a week of prayer service at the Methodist church on Friday, November 1, at 2:30 P. M. The public is invited to attend.

Members Observes Girl Scout Week

"Girl Scout Week" is being observed here this week by visiting manufacturing plants in Murphy under the leadership of Mrs. Clyne E. Woody, assistant leader.

On Wednesday at 1 o'clock they visited Coble Dairies and observed the processing of milk. From there they went to the ball park to witness the practice of the fire department.

At 3:15 they held their regular meeting at the Baptist church. The meeting was opened by Mrs. Woody. The Rev. A. Rufus Morgan of Franklin conducted the devotional exercises.

The flags were brought forward by Sally Morris and Carolyn Alexander, with Ann Shields and Jane Sneed as guards. Pledge to the flag and Girl Scout pledge were given, followed by Girl Scout laws.

Sister Virginia Hetherington who has taken over as Girl Scout leader, had charge of games, assisted by Edith Barnett. The girls assembled in their patrols, collecting dues and discussing plans for next meeting.

Many Expected At District Meeting

Indications point to a large attendance at the 20th District meeting of post officers, adjutants chairman of post committees of American Legion posts to be held Andrews at 7:30 P. M. on Nov. 6th at City Hall.

William M. York, of Greensboro State Commander of the American Legion, Paul R. Younts, of Raleigh, Executive Vice-Commander, and other State and national officials of the Legion will be present at the District meeting to explain the Legion program for the coming year.

As was the case in the recently held Division meetings, which were well attended and which were termed successful in every respect, emphasis will be placed on the State Legion's program of renewal of memberships, the securing of new members, especially among veterans of World War II, expansion and stabilization of the Legion program as a whole.

The Commander said he is anxious for Division and District officials, all post officers, chairmen of post committees, and representatives of the Legion Auxiliary in the district be present at the meeting. He pointed out that a representative of the Auxiliary will be present to explain the Auxiliary program.

In addition the members of the Host post are invited to attend the meeting.

The State Department of the Legion now has a membership in excess of 67,000 and the goal for the year is 100,000 members or more. It was pointed out by Commander York that there is a potential membership of more than 400,000 Legionnaires in the State.

Candidates Asked How They Stand On Certain Questions

Representing the Western North Carolina Baptist association, West Liberty association, and the Cherokee County Ministers' association, a committee composed of: The Rev. J. Alton Morris, chairman, the Rev. L. P. Smith, the Rev. T. Earl Ogg, and the Rev. Fred Stiles, last week wrote candidates for office in this county in the November 5 election letters asking for answers on certain pertinent questions of interest to the public. The groups above represent all denominations of the county.

Following is the content of the letter:

"To the Candidates for State Senate, County Representative and Office of Sheriff, the following information is desired that the voting public may know how you stand on certain issues that are pertinent in the coming election. Let it be understood that your answer, or failure to answer the following questions will be published in next week's issue of the Cherokee Scout, and the Asheville Citizen. Please make your reply to the Chairman of this Committee, not later than Monday, October 28.

"No. 1—Do you favor outlawing the sale of all intoxicating beverages in your county or counties, and will you work to that end?"

"No. 2—Do you favor state-wide Prohibition and will you use your influence in accomplishing this purpose?"

"No. 3—Do you favor strict law enforcement and when it is within your power, will you use your influence in placing men of good character in law enforcing positions?"

"No. 4—Do you favor Sunday amusements: Movies, ball games, boat races, etc.?"

"No. 5—Would you favor—and will you work to that end—to secure such legislation as would permit the citizens of Cherokee County to express themselves by vote on Sunday amusements?"

At the time this paper goes to press neither candidate for senate—B. C. Jones, nor Frank Herbert, has given a reply.

Bruce West, candidate for representative, replied as follows:

No. 1—For this purpose I accept the nomination and I am going to do every thing I can to drive this evil from our people."

"No. 2—I feel that North Carolina made the greatest mistake in repealing the Eighteenth Amendment that it ever made, and I will spare no time or effort to help drive out this evil."

"No. 3—I sure believe in law enforcement and will strive to help place men in office who will enforce our laws."

"No. 4—No, that is a day for worship and God's people should cry out against such profaning of the Sabbath. We should reverence the Lord's day and worship Him."

"No. 5—I will do all I can to bring this matter to a vote of the people."

Frank Crawford, candidate for office of sheriff, replied as follows:

"No. 1—My answer is 'Yes'.

"No. 2—My answer is 'Yes'.

"No. 3—My answer is 'Yes'.

"No. 4—In your question five you suggest the answer to your question four and this is a matter that should be decided by the citizens and when decided, if I am elected sheriff, I will enforce whatever law is adopted.

"No. 5—If the citizens of Cherokee approve or change the present law, if elected, I will enforce whatever law is in effect."

Hadley Dickey, candidate for office of sheriff, replied as follows:

"No. 1—Yes.

"No. 2—Yes.

"No. 3—Yes.

"No. 4—No.

"No. 5—Since Sunday amusements have been made legal by a previously elected representative of the people of Cherokee County through special act of the legislature, I feel that the people of Cherokee county should have a chance to express their opinion on a change. I therefore favor a referendum on the question and will abide by the results thereof."

BOX SUPPER

A box supper will be held at Martins Creek school Friday, November 1, at 7:30 P. M. The proceeds will go to the Little Glade church. Everyone is invited to attend.

Superior Court To Open Wednesday

Cherokee county superior court will convene Wednesday, November 6, with Hon. Zeb V. Nettles of Asheville presiding for the trial of both criminal and civil cases.

Criminal cases on the docket include:

The state against John Byers, Oney Panter, Wayne Postell, and Lloyd Ramsey, for violating the prohibition law.

For driving an automobile while intoxicated: James Brown (col), James Radford, Russell Sims, Herbert Taylor, Bauzell Justice, John Byers, Gordon King, Ernest Young, Abe Hullander, Willis Foster, James Andrews, J. L. (Chillie) Baugh, D. C. Barnett, Jr., Roy Henson Chambers, Kenneth Burch, D. A. W. I, and reckless driving.

Reckless driving: Charles S. Young, Lester Hary Ragan, H. F. Hall, F. S. Deason, Henry Logan, and Fred Hall.

Lester Newton, rape; Ernest Bowers, larceny; Lewis B. Dewbre, carrying concealed weapon; Jetter Cearley, rape and bastardy; Wade Coffey, driving after license revoked; Roy Alston, (col) peeping into room occupied by women; Earl Forrester, assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill; C. M. Gregory, public drunkenness; Cecil Taylor, Ralph Guthrie, Calvin McDonald, and Earl Payne, highway robbery. A. C. Jones, alias W. W. Stagelee, forgery; Lee Brendie, assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill; Ernest Young, driving after license revoked; Wilburn Golden, escaping prison; Jeannette Logan, Eliza Ingram, alias Eliza Carter, lude and disorderly house; Arthur Mallonee, assault; Jeannette Logan, cheating and defrauding.

Civil cases on the calendar are:

Emma Passmore Kittrell vs Eugene Kittrell; Fred A. Raxter vs Betty Clarice Raxter; Robert G. Wilson vs. Violet Mae Wilson; Jane Cover Orr vs. Marshall P. Orr, Jr.; Horace J. McLelland vs. Helen Mae Hall McLelland; Paul W. Davis vs. Irene Elizabeth Gentry Davis; Sol Stiles vs. Beulah Stiles; William A. McGee vs. Ruth J. McGee; J. F. Mull vs. Alwayne Robinson Mull; Town of Andrews vs. Andy Dillingham; Estelle Stegall vs. Otis Stegall; Ruth Southard vs. Clyde Southard; Fred O. Palmer vs. George Palmer; Gussie Hampton et als vs. William A. Hampton et als; John Graves vs. Ernest Carroll, (protested); S. L. Kisselburg vs. D. S. Owenby; In the matter of the will of W. D. Burrell.

MOTIONS

Hampton vs. Hampton; Fain vs. Cherokee Lumber corporation; Fain vs. Cherokee Lumber corporation; Witt vs. Taylor; Gasperson vs. Gasperson; Bristol vs. Harden; Hill vs. Mauney.

All Farmers Favor Quotas

The burley tobacco referendum was held last Friday in the AAA office in the courthouse. Forty-seven farmers participated in the voting and all voted in favor of three-year quotas.

HEADS DEPARTMENT

E. G. Hughes has been elected by the town board as head of the city electric department to succeed C. C. Richardson who resigned several weeks ago.

TRUETT HOME — The old Truett homestead where Dr. George W. Truett was born and reared. This property is now owned by the Baptist State Convention and is kept in repair and intact as it was from the beginning. Thousands of people visit the old home place annually.

PROPOSED TRUETT MEMORIAL — Above is shown the church which people of Hayesville, with the assistance of Baptist friends elsewhere and the Baptist State Convention, expect to build as a memorial to the late Dr. Geo. W. Truett. A special homecoming service will be held at Hayesville on Sunday, November 3.