Lee A. Jones Is Killed In Wreck

Lee Allen Jones, 22, of Young Harris, Ga., died about 7 o'clock Wednesday night, October 30, of injuries received when the car he was driving left the highway and turned over near the Mountain Valley Cooperative at Brasstown.

He was brought to Petrie hospital by a passing motorist, but was pronounced dead upon arrival.

The body was taken to Ivie funeral home where an inquest was held by Dr. Harry Miller, coroner, who pronounced death due to injuries sustained in the accident. The body was later removed to Young Harris by Frank Abernathy, undertaker.

Jones was discharged from service about six months ago having served with the army overseas.

Girl Scouts Celebrate Scout Week

The activities in which the Girl Scouts of Murphy participated during Girl Scout week, according to the assistant leader, Mrs. C. E. Woody, included: Lecture on processing and testing milk at Coble Dairies by C. R. Freed; fire drill, where fire chief, crew and Mrs. W. C. Witt explained the workings of the department, learning that the department is entirely volunteer, and the girls had a ride on the fire truck; visit to town water supply, to Cherokee Lumber corporation, and hospitals, taking flowers and magazines to the patients. As a close to the week's activities, the girls attended a picture show at Dickey theatre.

Keener Killed When Struck By Train

Carl Keener, 43, as he lay asleep on the railroad tracks near his home at Tomotla was fatally wounded by the Southern Railway train which left Murphy for Asheville at 6 o'clock Sunday morning.

Dr. Harry Miller, coroner, and an ambulance from Townson funeral home were called to the scene of the accident, and Keener was brought to Petrie hospital, where he died a short time later.

Mr. Keener had been fox hunting Saturday night with Collie Wells and his son, of Tomotla, and had been fox hunting Friday night also, it was reported. Mr. Wells stated that he let Keener out of his car at the railroad crossing about 3 o'clock Sunday morning and expressed the opinion that he sat down on the railroad track to listen to the dogs that were still chasing the fox, and fell asleep. He had two fox dogs on a leash with him and his hand was in his pocket. It was reported that the dogs apparently had tried to pull away across the track and were killed also.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Lila Kincaid Keener; five children, Elbert, Jack, Harold, Mary Jo and Dan; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adkin Keener of Tomotla; one sister, Mrs. Margie Palmer of Marble.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at Tomotla Methodist church with the Rev. Jack Palmer and the Rev. Alfred Smith officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery with Townson funeral home in charge.

Active pallbearers were: Wayne Battles, Frank Battles, Frank Craig, J. C. Wells, Lawson Clark, Virgil Cornwell, Everette Wells, and Wayne Anderson.

Honorary pallbearers were: Ben Barben, Fred Scroggs, S. E. Leatherwood, Nath Harper, Horace Harper, Everett Hall, Lem Smith, Will Sneed, Burley Dewesse, Floyd Anderson, Earl Millsaps, Bill Dockery, Jack Roberts, Bill

Scroggs, Jack Craig and Mr. Duncan.

DAV To Sell Forget-Me-Nots Here Saturday

An Armistice Day appeal that there be no World War III was made here today by the Disabled American Veterans.

Hugh Penland, Commander of the Cherokee county DAV Chapter, said the Armistice Day to our war disabled veterans means a day of hope that there will be no more war.

The DAV commander said disabled veterans have experienced all the horror of war and do not wish a similar fate on anybody.

"We are working so wholeheartedly for permanent peace," he said, "that we are looking forward to the day when there will be no need for an organization such as the Disabled American Veterans. We hope that 75 or 100 years from now the DAV will no longer exist. If war is outlawed, if it is done away with, there will be no disabled veterans."

The local chapter will meet at the courthouse Thursday of this week. On Saturday the chapter will sell Forget-me-nots, assisted by members of the Junior Woman's Club.

FREE METHODIST SERVICES

The Free Methodist Church makes the following announcements of services: Sunday School, 10 a. m., preaching 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The pastor, Rev. Fred R. Horton, will be speaking at both services; young people's meeting at 7 p. m., missionary meeting Tuesday evening, Nov. 12th, at 7:30; Mrs. Mary Frankfield, presiding. An interesting program based on the lives of sixteen famous characters will be rendered.

Democrats Chosen For County Offices

The election in Cherokee county Tuesday brought out a heavy vote, with approximately 6,800 voters taking part in the voting. The highest number of votes, 3,640, was received by Frank Crawford (D) for sheriff, with his opponent Hadley E. Dickey (R) receiving 3,136. The next highest number of votes was given B. L. Padgett, (D) incumbent, for register of deeds, he receiving 3,527 to his opponent, John W. Axley's (R), 3,182. J. L. Hall (D), incumbent, got 3,496 votes to his opponent, C. H. Townson's (R), 3,206. Dr. Harry Miller (D) received 3,400 votes for coroner, to his opponent, Dr. W. A. Hoover's (R) 3,295.

Bruce West (R) of Marble defeated Mrs. Giles W. Cover (D) incumbent, of Andrews for Cherokee county's representative in the General Assembly. He received 3,425 votes to Mrs. Cover's 3,236.

The following were elected county commissioners: J. E. Graves (R), with a total of 1,251 to Allen Brendle's (D) 750; E. A. Wood (D) incumbent, with 1,198 votes to his opponent's, N. W. Abernathy (R) 720, and W. E. Moore (D), 1,382 to his opponent's W. D. Townson (R), 1,341.

Monroe Redden (D), elected to congress from this district over his opponent, Guy Weaver (R), received more than 30,000 votes to Weaver's more than 12,000.

On the basis of incomplete returns from the district it appeared that Baxter C. Jones of Bryson City had defeated his opponent Frank Herbert, for state senator from this district.

In the nation the GOP elected majorities to gain control of congress, with at least 23 senators, 242 representatives, and 20 governors. In North Carolina it appeared that the Democratic party gained rather than lost strength.

By precincts the county candidates received the following votes: Andrews North ward—Cover 372, West 206, Crawford 401, Dickey

STATE WINNER—Miss Mildred Hendrix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hendrix, has been adjudged state winner in the 4-H club Food Preparation achievement contest, and will compete in the national contest next year. Shown above is Miss Hendrix seated in her bedroom, which was a room improvement project that won for her a prize of $50 and a blue ribbon at the State Fair in Raleigh recently. The room consists of a sleeping and a dressing unit. The sleeping unit contains a refinished antique bed and bedside table of red mountain cherry, a lamp made from a pottery jug with a pleated shade to match bedspread and curtains, an appliqued bedspread made from feed sacks and a hand made rug. The dressing unit was made from egg crates with the pleated skirt made from feed sacks to match the bedspread.

The Bulldogs played strong football in their Friday afternoon match with Waynesville, at Murphy, but smart blocking and Leonard Messer's offensive play took the game for the Mountaineers with a 28-13 score. Murphy is the first team to make more than one touchdown on Waynesville. During the half-time intermission, Murphy crowned their football queen, Miss Carolyn Head.

Murphy's fullback, "Bull" Davidson, proved a hard driving ball carrier and hit pay-dirt in two bucks through the center. "Bull" has only recently been added to the roster and is playing strong offensive ball. He intercepted a pass early in the game and alternated with halfback Ralph Picklesimer in driving back near the goal line.

Murphy took the opening kickoff from Messer, returning from the 30 to 35. Both sides put up good offensive and Shook's pass on third down was intercepted by Davidson on his 33, and returned to Waynesville 43. Green went through the Waynesville line for the first score and Davidson smashed over for the extra point, setting Murphy ahead.

Leonard Messer untied the 7-7 deadlock, with which the half ended by snagging a pass on the Bulldog 15 and fighting on into the end zone. Quarterback Shook climaxed his work throughout the game when, in the last two minutes of the fourth, he twisted around left end and dodged through the secondary for a touchdown.

REVIVAL IN PROGRESS
A revival began Wednesday at 7:30 P. M. at Tomotla Baptist church and will continue through next week. The Rev. Howard Hall is the guest preacher. Everyone is invited to attend these services.

Mrs. Robert Robinson and baby, Robert Bolan, left Tuesday for Clearwater, Fla.
