

Communist troops and the U. N.

According to Mrs. McDonald, his company who could fire an anti-tank gun, the regular gunner

this incident. A large tank manned by Communist forces was advancing on Sgt. Hancock's company, and he jumped behind the gun and fired three shots at the tank, missing each time. Mrs.

McDonald said according to the news commentator a gun of that kind will fire five times. On the fourth shot Sgt. Hancock wiped cut the tank and saved his men.

She said that later Sgt. Hancock's commander asked him if he were frightened at the time, and the

Sgt. was reported to have replied,

'Not then, but I sure am now".

for his outstanding ability in ombardment of several Japanese held areas during 1943. Sgt. Hancock took part in several bombardments of Japanese military

Islands, and Shortlands. Bougainmen were lost.

most his visit to the Holy land.

Samuel Young

Sgt. Hancock won several medals

VOLUME 61 - NUMBER 12

MURPHY, NORTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1950

EIGHT PAGES THIS WEEK

-F. W. Nichol

The Nantahala Grade

Cattle Show was held at the Fair grounds Tuesday of Fair week.

There were 136 animals in the

The purpose of the show was to create and promote interest and development of good Grade Dairy cattle, thereby increasing milk production in the Murphy milk-shed. Sponsors of the show were farmers, business men, farm agents, vocational agriculture teachers,

veteran teachers, and milk receiv-

The area comprises the counties of Cherokee, Clay, Graham and Macon of North Carolina and Towns and Union Counties in Only Grade Dairy cattle were entered in the show. There were

Jerseys, Guernseys, and Holsteins entered. There were six animals in the aged cow classes; 16 in the young cow classes; 21 in the bred heifer classes; 44 in the open heifer classes; and 49 in the calif

The Danish system of judging

Sherman Hampton of Cherokee

County won the prize in showmanship with his entry, and Sharron was used, which made every animal in the show win a premium.

When you get right down to the root of the meaning of the word "succeed," you find that it simply means to follow through.

Sgt. Jas. T. Hancock Lauded For Heroism

forces.

SGT. JAS. T. HANCOCK

H.T. Cearley Is In Korean War

WITH THE FIRST CAVALRY DIVISION IN KOREA .- Private First Class Henry Thurman Cearley, son of Mrs. Lucy Cearley of Culberson, North Carolina, is fighting in the Korean War as a member of a mortar squad of the 1st U. S. Cavalry Division.

Pfc. Cearley has duties Number Three man on one of the Division's 4.2 mortars. His duties ere to adjust the amount of charges on the mortar ammunition prior to each firing mission.

At the outbreak of hostilities in Korea, the 1st Cavalry Division landed on the southeast coast of the peninsula after a 10-day record making preparation and movement to the war zone. Pfc. Cearley was among the initial force of Cavalry to hit the beaches. He has participated in the battles of Yongdong, Kumchon, Waegwan and many others.

night action against Japanese force Prior to the outbreak of war in of approximately four cruisers and Korea. Pfc. Cearley was stationed eight destroyers, and in the rein Japan on occupation duty with pulse of a raid of approximately his unit for one year. During World War II, he served in the tombers with the destruction of Pacific Theater with the U. S about 17.

Funeral Is Held For Mr. Hendrix

Thomas Dixon Hendrix, 74 of to the Mediterranean area last Feachtree, died in a Murphy hospital at 9:30 a. m. Monday following a long illness.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p. m. in Peachtree Baptist Church, with the Rev. Robert Barker officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery with Townson Funeral Home in charge.

Surviving are the widow; one half-sister, Mrs. G. A. Walsh, Murphy. Route 1; three half-brothers, ing a short illness. the Rev. J. C Pipes of Asheville, Surviving are the widow; three the Rev. W. C. Pipes of Franklin, and R. C. Pipes of Glen Alpine. Young Harris Ga., Mrs. Pearl Far-

Hope To Eliminate Undesirables From County Fair

Considerable controversy across Sgt. James T. Hancock of Murover the gambling concessions last phy, son of Mrs. J. C. Hancock week at the fair. The town council met on Tuesday night and instructand the late Mr. Hancock of Peachtree, has been commended by offied the city police officers to use their discretion in handling the cials for his bravery and outstandplaces, giving them authority to ing participation in the Korean War. Several people in Murphy warn operators against violation ond vicinity, including Sgt. Hanof the law and to close any place that failed to cooperate. Several cock's sister, Mrs. Owen McDonald, heard a news broadcast in places were closed by the city offiwhich the commentator gave inrers, according to Mayor Buel formation about Sgt. Hancock's meroic role in a battle between Adams.

Leter in the week Constable Fred Taylor closed several of the concessions, and on Saturday night a warrant was sworn out for his Sgt. Hancock was the only man in arrest for assault by a member of the show. He was held at the jail from 8 o'clock Saturday night having been killed previous to until about 1 o'clock Sunday morn ing, and then released, he stated. He posted bond after his arrest. Mayor Adams states that he regrets that the trouble arose, and that he personally will not favor allowing this kind of show to operate within the town again. He says he believes all members of the town council have the same determination

C. R. Freed, secretary-treasurer of the Fair Association, states that it is the desire of the association to operate a clean, wholesome fair and that he hopes by next year some arrangement can be made to climinate the undesirable features

World War II. He served on board the U. S. S. Denver during War On Intestinal battle of Kule Gulf in March of 1943 when Task Force Sixty-Eight Parasites Starts sank two enemy cruisers and bombarded shore installations of In School Program the enemy. He served creditably on board the "Denver" during

One of the most serious causes of school absences is intestinal parasites, is an opinion expressed by the local Health department. installations in Buka, Soloman Lizst year, the Murphy school conducted with the aid of the local ville Island, when he took part in dentists and county health nurses, an examination to determine dental, eye and hearing deficiences. This year, a major portion of the program will be devoted to an 67 Japanese high level and dive 'every pupil examination for intestinal parasites."

The "Good Health program of During the time Sgt. Hancock North Carolina" has the co-operaserved on the U.S.S. Denver he tion of the local doctors, dentists manned an anti-aircraft gun and and health department in the ful is your yard?' was aboard one time when the state-wide program that is being "Denver" was torpedoed and 30 carried on. Sgt. Hancock went on a cruis

As a further expansion of the health efforts, a practical program spring. He stated that he enjoyed in nutrition is being carried on through the lunch program. Each week a menu of lunches to be served the following week is given every student in the grades. These menus are formulated by a grad-Dies On Tuesday uste dietician, and they furnish a study of good eating habits. Samuel Young, 72, of Unaka life-long resident of Cherokee Episcopal Hour County, died early Tuesday morning in a Murphy hospital, follow-

Is Under Way "The Enisonnal Hour"

STATE OFFICERS-Mrs. Ed M. Anderson of West Jefferson, state president of North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, right, and Mrs. Arthur W. Greene of Ahoskie, second vice-president and director of districts, who will address the First District Clubs at the annual meeting to be held in Robbinsville Friday, October 13, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. Mrs. Anderson will speak on the subject, "The Responsibility of the Individual Club Woman in Marshalling Our Resources For Peace and Security." Mrs. Carl Killian of Cullowhee, district president, will preside. Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Greene will be guests of Miss Addie Mae Cooke in Murphy Thursday night.

Patrol's Safety Booth Takes First Prize, Fair

Judging of exhibits featured the meeting of the Cherokee County Young Harris

Fair Wednesday. There were seven educational won first prize, on Safety; the Is Offering Cherokee County D. H. I. A. and Artificial Breeding association. Night Classes second; Cherokee County Schools, third; Nantahala Regional Library fourth: Nantahala Power and Light Company, fifth; Citizens Bank and Trust Company sixth, and the John C. Campbell Folk School seventh Murphy Home Demonstration Club booth won first prize with its Nutrition Express, featuring file basic seven foods. Second prize went to Peach tree with the title "How Safe is Your Home?" "Remove a hazard and save a life, featured by cartoons.

Tomotla was third with, "Modern Kitchen Planning saves time, steps and drudgery. Sunny Point won fourth place showing before and after Flannel graph-"How beauti-Young Harris.

Martin's Creek was fifth with 'Don't gamble with your health' based on food conservation plan for a year for one person.

Clubs six to twelve received bonorable mention: Ranger with Steps to Better Dairying; Violet "Home Care of the Sick"; Valleytown; "The Professional Touch in Sewing"; Bellview, "Do Your Meals Measure Up?" Grape Creek, Church, Sunday, October 8, begin-"Food Preservation Equipment" Slow Creek, "The Cotton Bags over the country are expected to Steo Out", showing garments made from feed sacks; Suit, "Conserving Egg Quality."

nounced in this paper as soon as they can be compiled by the Fair Wayne Abernathy is pr

136 Animals Entered In Grade Dairy Show show.

ing plants.

Georgia.

classes.

Ray Asks Early Mailing Christmas Overseas Parcels

The period October 15 to Novem ber 15 has been designated for the acceptance of Christmas parcels for members of the Armed Forces serving outside the continental United States with the concurrence of the several departments of the National Military Establishment, eccording to Joe Ray, local Post master. The term "Armed Forces overeas" includes the personnel of the Armed Forces, members of their families and authorized United States civilians employed overseas who receive their mail through an A. P. O. care of Postmaster. Mr. Ray states that the importance of mailing Christmas parcels during the designated period cannot be emphasized too strongly-the earlier the better, he

ays. The size and weight restrictions for mailing other domestic parcel post are applicable to Christmas parcels for the Armed Forces except that a limit not to exceed 50 pounds has been established for parcels addressed for delivery to A. P. O.'s 124 and 125, care of Postmaster, New York, N. Y., Mr. Ray states. He urges the greatest precaution in wrapping packages for mailing overseas. He says that boxes for transmission overseas Young Harris College is now offering night classes for the benefit of those who work or who are construction. Fox Huntrs To onnual Field Trial and Bench Show in Murphy October 11-13. The bench Show will start at ual singing convention will be the Challange Trophy, and will ages of hounds will be run and scored together. The Association is expecting the largest bench show and field 'rial in its history. The association is now affiliated with the must necessarily be of strong Hold Annual Field

The Tri-State Fox Hunters Asociation will hold its eighteenth

30 p. m. Wednesday, October 11. at the High School Gymnasium. All regular classes will be shown and in addition special puppy classes. Prizes will be awarded to ali winners. The hounds will be judged by a nationally known master. The first cast for the Field Trials will be made at daybreak on October 12 and the trials will continue through Friday, when the seven field judges and master cf hounds will crown the winner of held at Marble Springs Baptist place winners for other prizes. All and will follow national rules and Swanson of Macon County won the prize for the best fitted animal. Dr. Dean Colvard, Dean of the enimal industry division at State College, Raleigh, was judge who ciid an excellent job in placing the 136 animals. F. R. Farnham, dairy specialist, vas ring master for the show.

There were 47 artificially bred animals that were called into the show ring at one time.

A total of 108 people entered animals in show of 136 animals. There were 38 blue ribbon winners, 72 red ribbon winners and 26 white ribbon winners.

W. B. Harrill Speaks Sunday

W. B. Harrill of Cullowhee will bring the message at First Baptist Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. J. Alton Morris, who is in Revival Services at Ridgeway, S. C.

Mr. Harrill is Public Relations director and a professor at W. C. T. C. He is a graduate of Wake Forest College, received his master's degree from the University of North Carolina and has done a year's graduate work at Furman University.

On Sunday night at the regular worship hour of 7:30 o'clock, the Rev. J. Alton Morris pastor, will speak on, "The Victor's Life-Names'

The Rev. Paul Culpepper of Blue Ridge, Ga., field worker of the Morganton, (Ga.), Association will speak to the Woman's Missionary Society on Tuesday at 30 p time classes. cessfully. Courses offered this quarter are Accounting, Economics, and Teacher Education. "The purpose of these classes is to provide regular college training to those people of this area who are employed and who want to continue their education," stated

> Singing Convention To Be Held Sunday

The Cherokee County semi-anning at 10 a.m. Singers from all attend.

years ago and two Sundays of

L. L. Ray of North Carolina

State College spoke to members of Murphy Civitan Club on the

"The Progress of, North Carolina

Joe Crawford was accepted as a

AT CONFERENCE

The convention was organized 60

Other prize winners will be an- each year have been set aside for national Fox Hunters Association.

Trial, Bench Show

otherwise unable to attend day

The classes are held Monday through Friday, from 6:00 p. m. to 9:00 p. m., and are taught by cegular faculty members. Full college credit will be given for the courses taken and completed suc-

Charles R. Clegg, president of

"No Other Gods" will be the tubject of the sermion at the Murphy Presbyterian Church at 11 a. m Sunday. The pastor, the Rev. James R. Crook, will deliver the bessage based on the First of the Ten Commandments and its New estament implications.

The Presbyterian Youth Fellowship will meet at the home of Misses Mary and Helen Estes at Brasstown Sunday night at 6:30. Brassown Sunday night at 6:30. Byrum Announces ming year. The Pioneer Fellowthip will meet at the church Sunday night at 6:30 with Ed Gibbs president. in charge,

Two classes were held last Wedsday night at the church studying the book "Beside the Hearthtan Home will continue through ning the month of October at the 1?". sday services, 7:30 p. m. sch week.

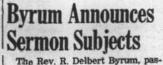

NEW BOARDS

te new green light reflecting it boards installed in the elery building the past week of those rooms."

mer, Murphy, Route 1, Mrs. Bonnie Roberts, of Unaka; two sons, Earl and George Young of Etowah, Tenn.; two brothers, Willie Young of Englewood, Tenn., and A. C.

Young of Murphy; one sister, Mrs. Missouri Radford of Grandview. He had been a member of the Beaverdam Church for 20 years, funeral services were held today (Thursday) at 2 p. m. in Unaka Raptist Church with the Rev. Ham Coffey officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery with Townson Funeral Home in charge.

tor of First Methodist Church has announced that his sermon subject for Sunday morning will be, "Your e." This study of the Chris- Life Counts", and for Sunday evening, "I Love Thy Church-Do

> Sunday School will be held at 9:45 a. m. and Evening Youth Meeting at 6 p. m.

The

Strip Street A.

HOMECOMING annual Homecoming day to the Federal Bureau of Investi-will be observed at Fairview from Director J. Edgar Hoover, Church at Ranger on Sunday, stating that it has been filed. October 15.

Association Sunday morning, at 8:30 EST over a network of 140 radio stations covering the South and Southwest.

Bishop Henry I. Louttit of the Diocese of South Florida was the speaker.

The Episcopal Hour will continue at the same time each Sunday morning for thirteen more weeks. The speakers for the remaining Sundays in October will

Bishop Edmund P. Dandridge of the Diocese of Tennessee, October 8: Bishop Thomas H. Wright of the Diocese of East Carolina, October 15; Bishop M. George Henry of the Diocese of Western North Carolina, October 22; Suffragan Bishop Randolph R. Clairborne of the Diocese of Alabama-October

29. Several of the stations from which The Episcopal Hour is heard are WWNC, Asheville; WG NC, Gastonia; WHKY, Hickory; WMNC, Morganton; WHCC, Wayresville

FILES PICTURE Wilford Stamey has sent the clipping and picture of LeRoy Henson of Murphy who has been at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.

missing for the past three weeks, gation. He has had a confirmation

New Sold and A contraction and Antherenaries their regular meeting Monday The Rev. W. L. Cook, pastor of evening. E. S. Millsaps, farm agent Shoal Creek Baplist Church, has of Randolph County, also was present at the meeting.

announced the following worship hours: Sunday School 10 a. m., singing practice Fridays, at 7 p. m.; Preaching Service on the sec-Myron Jenson was elected viceend and fourth Sundays in each president of the club to fill the month, at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. vacancy created by Jack Barnetit's Mr. Cook also is pastor of Shady leaving for Wake Forest to teach Grove Baptist Church and has an The club will sponsor a play on nounced the following worship October 27 and 28, and the prohours there: Sunday School 10 a. ceeds will go to some Murphy m.; prayer meeting each Wednes-School student that the club thinks day at 7 p. m.; Preaching Service deserving as a scholarship to colon each first and third Sundays lege.

POUR FOOTINGS

J. M. Hughes and son, general contractors for the High School B. Hudson, attended Friday a was held at Lee H. Edwards High classrooms under construction, expect to pour the footings this week. son City.

egulations. of the convention.

REVIVAL A revival was begun Tuesday night at Second Baptist Church by the Rev. Roscoe Morgan. The public is invited to attend

DIRECTOR-Mrs. Melvin Taylo of Bryson City, director of district number one of the North Carolina Congress of Parents and Teach-

Mrs. Margaret Mauney, Supervi-ers. Mrs. Taylor presided at the eor, Supt. H. Bueck and Supt. I. Annual District Meeting, which School Health Conference in Bry- School, in Asheville, on Oc

Among a group of Korean war Casualties arriving at Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, on September 26, is Corporal Cecil James, brother of Mrs. Mae Bates, Murphy.

He is undergoing treatment at Brooke Army Hospital for wounds received while engaging the enemy on September 5. James was with the 25th Infantry Division.

Other Students Attending College

In the list published last we The Scout of students who had returned to college, the names of some were inadvertently omitted. Miss Joyce Coleman has returned to Furman University, Greenville, S. C., where she is a Junior this year; Jerry Hall, Barbara Arnold and Bill Lovingood are sittending Wake Forest College:

Miss Phyllis Snyder spent a few days fhis week with her mathem in York, Pa., and also visited in New York City.