Mrs. J. W. Davidson Is Organist For Sunday Vespers

The first of three monthly organ vespers will be presented next Sunday afternoon, March 4, at 4 o'clock in the sanctuary of First Methodist Church. Mrs. J. W. Davidson, organist at the First Baptist Church, will be the guest organist for this occasion.

The following selections will be played by Mrs. Davidson: "Leiten Meditation, Introducing 'Bethany' by Wilson; 'Jesu, Priceless Treasure' by Bach; 'Andante E Maestoso' by Tschalkowski; 'Jerusalem' arranged by Parker; 'The Palms' by Faure; 'Open the Gates of the Temple' from The Messiah by Handel; 'Consecration at the Cross', Hymn Fantasia, Lorenz; 'Were You There?', Spiritual; 'Sanctus' from St. Cecilia, Gounod; 'Calvary' by Rodney; 'Christ Arose', arranged by Marlow; 'Postlude-Alleluiah', Davidics.

Organ Vespers is an opportunity for those in the community who appreciate good music to come and listen to the music and to meditate amid the quiet of the sanctuary of God, says the pastor, the Rev. R. Delbert Byrum.

Mrs. R. H. Hyatt Honored On Her 91st Birthday

Mrs. Henry Hyatt, Mrs. Paul Hyatt and Mrs. C. A. Brown of Andrews honored Mrs. R. H. ("Granny") Hyatt with a birthday dinner Sunday at her home here. "Granny" was born on the 29th of February, so has a real birthday only every four years, but it is always celebrated on the intervening years. She is now 91 years old.

The table was centered with an arrangement of mixed flowers. The three-tiered yellow and white birthday cake, decorated with white and yellow flowers and candles, on a tray surrounded by a yellow jonquils, was placed at one end of the table in front of the honoree.

Seated with her at the table were Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hyatt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hyatt, Dr. Robert Brown and son, Charles, grandson and great-grandson, of Kingsport, Tenn., Mrs. G. W. Candler, Mr. and Mrs. John Gill and daughter, Jane, and Mrs. Bill Bates.

A number of friends called in the afternoon, and many gifts and cards were received by the honoree.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coleman returned last week from a ten-days' trip to Miami, Daytona Beach and Ocala, Fla.

MISERY, SHAME FOR GIRL OF ALCOHOLIC PARENTS

"For 20 years I lived in almost constant misery, loneliness and shame," recalled the disheartened girl whose parents were "slaves of alcohol." Read the poignant story of her search for happiness in "My Parents Were Alcoholics" in March 4 issue of
