

Number Children Killed Increases

A rising trend of pedestrian accidents involving children is confronting safety officials in North Carolina. H. D. (Tavia) Jones, director of the Motor Vehicles Department's Highway Safety Division said today.

The highway safety official revealed that highway accidents accounted for 32 fatalities among children at the age 9-9 during the first six months of the year. Seven youngsters, he said, in the age group from 0-4 died in traffic accidents during the same period and six in the 10-14 group were killed. One was killed in the 15-19 age group.

Thirty-three pedestrian fatalities in the same age brackets were recorded by the department in the first six months of 1950.

"Parents and motorists alone can cooperate in preventing traffic accidents involving children," Jones said. "It is the duty of parents to caution their children when they send them to the grocer or on an errand, or when the kids go

James L. Voyles Dies In Oklahoma

James Lawrence Voyles of Picher, Okla., died of a heart attack at his Picher hotel on August 4. Mr. Voyles was born near Grape Creek April 30, 1888. He was the eldest son of the late William Lafayette Voyles. He had lived in Oklahoma since 1917, practicing law at Picher. He has spent many vacations here in Murphy stopping at the Regal Hotel.

Surviving him are the Rev. Clarence A. Voyles of Union County, Ga.; the Rev. Charles M. Voyles of West Jefferson; Samuel H. Voyles of Fort Worth, Tex.; and Harold Voyles of Lynch, Ky.

Interment was in the G. A. R. cemetery at Miami, Okla.

out to play. Wise parents will not only make certain their children are taught safe walking rules, such as cross only at corners, wait for the light or until there are no cars in sight, watch for turning cars, etc, but they will also provide a safe place for their children to play."

SPORTS

BY ROBERT GREENE

Billy Lovingood was the winner of the Murphy Summer Recreation Soap Box Derby. The score is based on the sum of two runs. Billy made it in 30.8 seconds. Don Peacock was second in 31.1 seconds and Eugene Hughes was third in 31.4 seconds. Other racers were, Gordon Bates, Sunny Hatchett, Bill Adams, Billy Browning and Tommy Gentry. First prize, a new bicycle, went to Billy. Second and Third prizes were five dollars each, and five dollars was the prize for the best looking racer. This prize was won by Billy Adams and Norris West whose wagon was voted both the best and the most original.

Murphy Presbyterian beat the softball game with Marietta with a score of 28 to 9. The game was played at Marietta, August 13. Elliott led with 4 hits, and he was also the winning pitcher. Thomas led Marietta hitting with four hits and Marietta's losing pitcher was Garner. It was an exciting trip for the boys with a picnic supper and they saw part of the "Little Boys" League baseball game.

Civitan beat American Legion of Andrews 19 to 17 in softball. It was two and a half hours of rain and mud. Derberry led with 4 hits on the Andrews team while Hedrick with five, Zimmerman with five and Hatchett with four took care of 14 out of 27 hits for Civitan.

The outstanding game in the football field will be the game between University of N. C. and University of Tenn., at Chapel Hill, according to Irvin Greene. U. N. C. has Murphy's Harold Davidson who is well rated by Coach Carl Snaveley and is expected to play first string quarterback. U. T. has Murphy's Frank Alexander trained under coach Bob Naylor.
