

Rufty Speaks To Andrews NCEA

The Andrews Unit of the NCEA held a dinner meeting at Nantahala Inn Thursday evening.

Supt. J. E. Rufty spoke on the five-point program of legislation recommended by the NCEA. He closed his remarks with several quotations taken from Horace Mann.

President C. O. Frazier, master of ceremonies, briefly sketched the life of Horace Mann, noted educator, whose birthday had been celebrated during the week.

Officers for next school year were elected as follows: President, Richard Ramsey; vice-president, Marvin Anderson; secretary, Mrs. John Kupiec; treasurer, Mrs. Annie Ruth Barnett.

Forty-one members and guests were present.

Andrews Schools To Orient Next Year's Entrants

Friday will be used as orientation and field day for the Andrews schools. Aversatile program is planned, with the morning events taking place in the high school building and the afternoon events scheduled for the athletic field.

The eighth grade will be guests of the ninth grades in the high school building during the morning where they will be shown around the high school classes and will, in general, be oriented for high school entrance.

A special assembly program will be held in the auditorium on vocational guidance.

At 1 p. m. all of the Andrews school children will assemble at the athletic field and engage in group singing, marching, group calisthenics and games.

Following races and relays the events of the day will close with the crowning of the High School queen.

All parents and the general public are invited to attend.
