Miss Keenum Becomes Bride Of Hoyt Rogers

Miss Annie Lou Keenum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Keenum of Suit, became the bride of William Hoyt Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grady Rogers of Bakersville, Calif., Sunday, July 27, at 3 p. m.

The ceremony was performed in the Friendship Baptist Church of Suit, with the Rev. Lester Stowe, pastor officiating. The double-ring ceremony was used.

The church was decorated with arrangements of white gladioli in floral baskets, native greenery and colored tapers in double candelabra.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Margaret Akin of Murphy, which included "Perfect Day" by Carrie Jacobs Bond, "Oh Promise Me" by De Koven, "I Love You Truly" by Bond, and "Traumerl" by Schumann.

Miss Mary Nell Reece, soloist, sang Irving Berlin's "Always", and James T. Osborne of Hiwassee Dam sang a rendition, "Seal Us Oh Holy Spirit" by Meredith.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-skirted ballerina length wedding gown of nylon tulle and lace over bridal satin. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught by a Juliet cap of seed pearls and rhinestones. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with streamers of white satin ribbon.

Maid of honor was Miss Thelma Keenum, sister of the bride, who wore a strapless ballerina length gown of pink nylon net over taffeta, with matching stole and head-dress. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations and blue delphinium.

James Robert Brock of Canton and Hiwassee Dam served as best man. Ushers were Cyrus White of Murphy, and Kermit Keenum of Asheville, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a light blue printed sheer with navy and white accessories. Her corsage was of red carnations.

The bride's mother wore a light green Carolina Teachers' College and has for the past several years
