

Frances Fisher Becomes Bride Of Chas. Johnson

Grape Creek Baptist Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Frances Lee Fisher and Charles Edgar Johnson Friday, October 3, at 7 p. m.

Miss Fisher is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fisher of Route 3, Murphy, and Mr. Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Johnson of Murphy.

The candlelight church was decorated with greenery, and the altar was flanked on either side by baskets of white gladioli.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Arthur Humphries of Lupton City, Tenn.

For her wedding the bride chose a ballerina length brown satin dress, with matching hat and slippers. Her skirt was covered with chantilly lace, and her elbow length pointed mitts were also of chantilly lace. A short bridal veil fell from her satin hat, which was trimmed with seeded pearls. She carried a nosegay of white carnations centered with a purple throated white orchid.

During the ceremony Mrs. Margaret Akin softly played "To A Wild Rose" by McDowell. Other numbers played by Mrs. Akin were "Oh Promise Me", "Tramuerle" and traditional wedding marches.

Miss Velma Umphres, mezzo-soprano, accompanied by Mrs.

Akin, sang "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacob Bond and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. A violin solo, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" by Herbert, was played by Mrs. Zeb Chastain.

Ushers were William Wells and Zeb Chastain.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip. They are at home on Hiwassee Street.

Mrs. Johnson is a graduate of Murphy High School. She has been employed by Citizens Bank and Trust Co. in Murphy for the past eight years, and will continue in her position there.

Mr. Johnson, also a graduate of Murphy High School, served in U. S. Navy during World War II. Now employed by Chastain Motor Company, he formerly worked at Evans Auto Company.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Collins of Copperhill, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Worth Collins of Mineral Bluff, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kephart of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Mr. and Mrs. James Christian of Lupton City, Tenn.

A cake cutting was held at the bride's home October 2 for members of the wedding party. The dining table was covered with a white linen cloth, and lighted ta-

IF YOU HAD A FIRE
Would you have enough insurance to cover your loss?

Perhaps, you say to yourself . . . "Oh, I have enough insurance, if fire should damage my house or its contents." But have you? Are you sure? You know of course, that most things you own cost far more today to repair or replace.

Unless you want to dig into your pocket in case of a loss, we suggest you see us and talk things over . . . Our advice will help you to determine just how much insurance you should carry to adequately PROTECT WHAT YOU HAVE. Remember . . . it's not safe these days to UNDER insure. Especially since adequate protection costs so little more than not enough enough protection.
