

Santa Claus Visits Murphy School Children Friday

School Party Features Treats

Santa Claus visited grammar grades pupils at Murphy School Friday morning with a pre-Christmas treat for each one. The party was given by the PTA, with Mrs. Clair Olson, supervisor, in charge of scheduling. All grades visited the small auditorium in shifts between the hours of 10 and 11 a. m. and sang songs and received their treats.

The auditorium was decorated with holly, a chimney with stockings and a lighted Christmas tree.

Kenneth Pool To Play Organ Program Here

Kenneth Pool, professor of organ at the Baptist Theological Seminary's School of Music, Louisville, Ky., will play a brief concert of Christmas organ music Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Pool received his B. A. degree in music from Furman University and his Master of Music degree from the University of Michigan.

In addition to being professor of organ at the music school he is also organist for the seminary and is organist and choir director at Highland Presbyterian Church, Louisville.

Mr. Pool is the son of Mrs. Frank K. Pool and the late Dr. Pool of Greenville, S. C., and is the brother of Mrs. William V. Costello of Murphy. He will be in Murphy through Christmas Day visiting his sister and brother-in-law.

"Merry Christmas" ... in these two words we wish to express our appreciation for your unwavering goodwill and friendship.
