O, Deer Me!

L. B. Hudson, former Superintendent of the Andrews Schools, sent a clipping from the Jacksonville, N. C. newspaper, telling of an unusual experience that he recently had.

It seems that the Superintendent of Schools of Onslow County was driving along the highway when a deer leaped from the side of the road directly into the side of the car. The deer was killed. Not knowing the law concerning such accidents, he called several friends offering them the carcass of the fallen animal. All refused. Puzzled, Hudson then called the game warden who told him to take the deer to a nearby State Prison Camp. Damage to the car was about $30.

Following each child's story, a carol was sung.

Mrs. Glenn Bates, soloist, of Murphy, sang a selection from Mendelssohn's "Messiah". She was accompanied by Mrs. H. A. Van Gorder.

The dining room was decorated in traditional Christmas decorations, with crystal candelabra holding red tapers centering the tables. Under a Christmas tree were placed toys by the club members to be distributed by the Christmas Cheer Committee to needy children.

Guests were, Mrs. Lester Reid, of Whibdey Island, Wash.; Mrs. Charles Delaney, of Andrews; Mrs. T. A. Case, of Murphy; Martha Caldwell, of Andrews; Mrs. Anna Flecher, of Richmond, Ky.; and Mrs. Elton Bradley.

Hostesses were, Mrs. Edwin Bristol, Mrs. Gordon Butler, Mrs. L. B. Nichols, Mrs. Luke Ellis, Mrs. Louise Rogers, Mrs. C. H. Jarrett and Mrs. Zeb Conley.
