Andrews Men Remembered By Red Cross

Mrs. S. J. Gernert, American Red Cross Chairman of the Andrews Chapter, requests that the parents of the following Andrews servicemen be notified that their sons have been remembered by the Andrews Red Cross Chapter and for each is wished happiness in the NEW YEAR and gratitude for the part they are playing in our country's fight for peace.

Parents of other Andrews Servicemen are asked to notify Mrs. Gernert.

The list now on hand includes: U. S. Navy, Fred Waldroup, Paul Lominac, James Holland, Jack Mosteller, James S. Webb, Joseph Hawk, Dan Hawk, Harry Hawk, Harry Nichols, James Nelson, Ronald Rowland, William Crawford, Floyd Chambers, Charles Davis, Whitaker Davis, Jerry Frazier, James R. White and Johnny Olin Hall. In the U. S. Army and Air Force: Gene Angel, Jack Hardin, Noble Cutshaw, Pearlle Jr. Hardin, Robert Cruise, Capt. Edward Swan, Capt. A. G. Swan, Vinson Adams, Ray Adams and Kenneth Nichols. In the U. S. Marine Corps: James Wood, Lawrence West and Earl Matoy.

West Graduates At Leadership School

CAMP LEJEUNE, N. C.—Marine Cpl. Lawrence E. West, 21, son of Mr and Mrs. Bruce West, of Andrews, N. C., is a recent graduate of the Non-commissioned Officers Leadership School here.

The intensive three week training course is designed to develop qualities of individual leadership and to acquaint Marines with the latest tactics and equipment of modern warfare.

A former student of Andrews High School, West enlisted in the Marine Corps in February 1951. Before being assigned duty at Camp Lejeune with the Eighth Engineer Battalion, a unit of Force Troops, Atlantic, West completed his Marine recruit training at Parris Island, S. C.

It's not the brains that matter most, but that which guides them—the character, the heart, generous qualities, progressive ideas.

Cole And Buddies Spend Leave Here

Floyd N. Cole, son of James Cole, 109 Cherokee St. was home on leave for Christmas after serving six months overseas.

Three of his buddies accompanied him here, Perry W. Durham, Phoenix, Ariz.; Kenneth Pence, Gettysburg, O.; Charles R. Newman, Walcottville, Ind.; Charles Cole, wife and son, Larry, Carlisle, Ky.; and Ray Hawkins, wife and son, Samany, Rt. 1, Copperhill, Tenn.

Edwin Cole drove the boys back to Norfolk, Va., where they are now stationed, and Floyd returned to Murphy with him and will be here until Jan. 11.

STOVER SON

Mr. and Mrs. James Stover of Helena, Montana, announce the birth of a son, Roy Allen, Dec. 17. Mrs. Stover is the former Miss Melba Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams of Andrews.

Sgt. Hedgecock In Combat Maneuvers

3D MARINE DIVISION (Camp Pendleton, Calif.)—Culminating 10 months of intensive training, this Marine Division flexed its military muscles recently in a mock battle near the desert city of 29 Palms, Calif., and Technical Sergeant Buford Hedgecock of Culberson, N. C., was right in the middle of the important combat maneuver.

Rolling over the highways on a 150-mile motor march, the Leathernecks unloaded in the middle of a desert expanse to do battle with a mythical enemy.

TSgt. Hedgecock, a Construction Chief, is a member of "D" Co., 3d Engineer Bn. His unit is a vital segment of this fast-moving, hard-punching Division.

Hedgecock is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hedgecock of Route 1, Culberson.

Happiness is not the end of life; character is.

Mrs. Sheidy Has Presbyterian Meet

The Andrews Presbyterian Women of the Church held their regular December meeting, Monday, December 22 at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Herbert Sheidy.

The home was decorated in traditional Christmas decorations.

Mrs. L. B. Nichols gave the devotional, "How Do You Wear Your Christian Clothing?"

The program was under the di-

PACE WITH CAVALRY

WITH THE 1ST CAVALRY DIV. IN PAPAN—Pvt. James V. Pace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pace, Route 1, Marble, is now serving with the 1st Cavalry Division.

Veterans of the Korean conflict are giving intensive field training to the new replacements in the unit on the northern Japanese island of Hokkaido. The division spent 17 months in the combat zone before being rotated out of the list last December.

Pace entered the Army last April.

Williams Enjoy Holidays In Asheville

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Williams have returned from Asheville where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hale at Sunny Side Inn for the holidays.

On Christmas Eve a group of friends were invited for a Christmas musical program and dinner party.

A special dinner was served on Christmas Day at 6:30 p. m. to approximately 75 guests.

rection of Mrs. John Barker. It was a continuation of the yearly theme of Great Protestant Leaders, featuring the life of Toyohiko Kagawa.

A special annual Joy Gift program was presented and the Joy Gift offering taken.

Following the program, gifts were exchanged by the members, and Christmas carols were sung.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to the members and to guests, Mrs. Mary Sheidy and Michael Sheidy.
