Inaugural Ball Bound!

JERRY REECE BOBBY BOLING

BETTY HEATON ANNE SHIELDS

All dressed up and some place to go! This foursome of Andrews and Murphy young folks, are in Raleigh attending the Inaugural Ball tonight (Thursday), honoring Gov. and Mrs. William B. Umstead. The ball will be held at the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium with dancing from 9 p. m. until 1 a. m. The girls, who were invited to participate in the figure at the ball, also were invited to a tea this afternoon at the Raleigh Country Club. The youths were chaperoned by Mrs. H. Bueck in Raleigh. The girls and their escorts are Miss Betty Heaton of Andrews with Jerry Reece, also of Andrews, and Miss Anne Shields of Murphy with Bobby Boling also of Murphy. (Scout Photo)

Colletts Announce Daughter's Troth

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Collett announce the marriage of their daughter, Joy Collett, to Pfc. William L. Deal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Deal, of Aurora, N. C. The groom is now serving in the U. S. Army. He has recently returned from a tour of duty in Korea. Pfc. and Mrs. Deal are now visiting the bridegroom's parents in Aurora. They plan to make their home in Aurora when Mr. Deal is discharged from Service.

Van Gorder of Andrews and the late John Henry Axley of Murphy. Wimberly will be graduated in June from Mary Washington College and Mr. Axley attended North Carolina State College for two years and will be graduated in June from the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis. Plans for the wedding have not been announced.

DAME FASHION PREDICTS

1953 Is Sensible Year For Milady's Wardrobe Items

BY EMILY COSTELLO

Well, Dame Fashion has finally caught up with Cherokee County. All along local women have stuck to the becoming and comfortable in their dress, and this New Year, when even politics is turning over a new leaf in the changing administration, fashion is playing politics and giving the ladies what they want in clothing. In brief, the new style, as forecast and designed with almost every big-label designer, will emphasize the slender look an easy, graceful comfortable slender look.

Andrews Girl Weds In Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Rector of Andrews announce the marriage of their daughter, Hazel, to Clyde Ensor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clingman Ensor, of Huntsdale, N. C., Friday, November 21, at 8 o'clock.

The marriage was solemnized in the Union Methodist Church at Wilmington, Del., with the Rev. George H. Pigenron, Jr., officiating, using the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a gray suit with white and navy accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds.

Miss Jessie Mae Brown of Wilmington, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a navy blue suit with white and navy blue accessories and a corsage of white and pink carnations.

Dalphus Ensor of Wilmington, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The wedding was attended only by close friends of the couple.

The bride is a native of Andrews. She was graduated from Burnsville High School and is employed by DuPont Company of Wilmington for five years.

Mr. Ensor was graduated from Burnsville High School and is employed by the Bond Cork Co. of Wilmington.

The couple are residing at 701 West St. in Wilmington, Del.

This information was given by Phyllis Battelle, fashion editor for International News Service, who further says that predictions for spring and summer call for more classic straightline elegance with fabrics once again the chief fashion of interest.

So, with the let-down, after holiday feeling, let's take a new lease on life and perk up with these bright facts on clothes for the new year, as seen by Miss Battelle, Glamour and Charm magazines.

SKIRTS DOWN A LITTLE
Skirts will be a trifle longer—say 12 inches from the floor—to accentuate the long lean effect.

Waistlines will be gently indented, with the wide, wrapped and tiny look of elastic belts "going out".

Necklines will be new, but neither here nor there. They'll be spread out to cling to the body at some point along the shoulderline—neither very high nor very low. A comfortable look, if not a particularly flattering one.

The effect of the tops of dresses will be all width.

The effect of the skirts all length and narrowness.

Accessories should be chosen to compliment the size and shape of madame herself.

Start banking on beige, right now, for spring. A natural color, beige can be worn by anybody, anywhere, and with the right accessories can be worn unrelieved. Livened with color or shaded with black.

In hats, the cloche is news, in any version, dressy or tailored. The beret with verticle line

Miss Hurt, Mr. Hughes Are Married Dec. 24

Miss Mildred Hurt became the bride of Jack Hughes Dec. 24 in Walhalla, S. C. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hurt of Rt. 2, Murphy and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hughes also of Murphy, Rt. 2.

SHIELDS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shields and daughter, Anne, visited Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Young Jr. in Durban and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shields in Wallace during the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Young, the former Fran Shields is the daughter and Louis Shields is the son of the E. L. Shields.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest O'Dell of Cherryville, Rt. 1, formerly of Rt. 3 Murphy, announce the birth of a son, Samuel Robin at Shelby Hospital, Dec. 31.

straight back is also new. In those pale colors are most desirable.

A few new ideas for your new lease on life are: try a stole instead of a jacket or check the brief, now belted jacket. Have a costume of coordinates, skirt, blouse and jacket ensemble or step out in a new Chesterfield, an old favorite now with a new line. Or get in there first with a felt coat, smooth and velvety in a topper cut in a straight line to just below the hips.

LEARN NEW COLORS
And learn to like new color balance. Cultivate a new eye for color—fraternal colors, warm and cool shades of the same color in new prints and patterns.

Draw on the seashell colors, delicate tints, often pink-tinged, of everything from pale beige to caramel. Milky pastels, subtle, whitened versions of all important colors; a gentle approach to newly gentled textures.

Pied Patterns, the same colors in two completely different patterns; as polka dots and stripes combined in one costume, very different and exciting.

Green, the new natural, a soft sage green that complements almost any other color, even blue. And balanced black and white, the new way to combine two essential fashion colors.

The shoes to come are strappy and foreign, but designed with an eye to comfort, some of the best designs made flat on the floor. Shoe manufacturers are taking their cues from little town cobblers all over Europe.

Fashion editors and designers now are returning about resort wear, but for those of us who just resort to what we have to wear, the main interest is that fashion is again making sense.

None of the padding and petticoating, but the casual and sensible designs are coming forward. Plan to look your best in 1953 by wearing the lines most flattering to your figure and personality, and perked up here and there with a new color concept.

THE TEEN SCENE

BY BETTY JEAN MOORE

MISS CAROL SUE VAUGHT of Chattanooga, Tennessee, was the guest of MISS JUDY NICHOLS last week.

Wednesday afternoon ADIR ARONSON gave a television party for a few of those interested in football. The boys and girls watched the Cotton Bowl and Rose Bowl Games. ANNE SHIELDS, SALLY MORRIS, SUSIE MILLER, TOMMY GENTRY, GORDON BATES, BOBBY BOLING, and many others were there for the Cotton Bowl Game. Mrs. Miller served a buffet supper to SUSIE, BOBBY, ADIR, GORDON, JIMMY MULKEY, and DON GREEN as they watched the Rose Bowl Game.

Wednesday night, ROY FULLER'S mother had a supper party for Roy. The following guests were invited: JUDY NICHOLS, JERRY REESE of Andrews, CAROL SUE VAUGHT, of Chattanooga, ANNE SHIELDS, SARA AND DUB SHERRILL, STEVE CRAWFORD, TOMMY GENTRY, BILL BRANDON, GLENDA IVIE, and SALLY MORRIS. The party was lovely and everyone had a grand time.

New Year's Eve, ANNE SHIELDS had a slumber party for a group of her school mates. Those who were invited were: GLENDA IVIE, CAROLYN ALEXANDER, BILLIE JANE RUSH, KAY BURGESS, BARBARA RHOADS, SALLY MORRIS, JOSEPHINE GARRETT, JUDY NICHOLS, ROSALIND STALCUP, SHIRLEY BATES, and CAROL SUE VAUGHT. At twelve o'clock all the girls and their boyfriends started a Motorcade through town, where they saw the New Year in MISS ANNE SHIELDS of Murphy, left Tuesday morning for Raleigh, where she will be until Friday to attend the Inaugural ball honoring Gov. and Mrs. William B. Umstead.

Tuesday night the Baptist Church sponsored a banquet for the young people. The church supplied the main course, which was turkey, and the girls, SHIRLEY BATES, BARBARA RHOADS, BILLIE JANE RUSH, SALLY MORRIS, ANNE SHIELDS, GLENDA IVIE, DORIS FOWLER, JOANNE ADAMS, and "JIMMIE DAVIS," brought all the "trimmings."

LEON GEE, of Murphy, returned to Illinois Sunday, where he is in the Air Corps.

H. C. BUECK, a prominent freshman of Murphy High, left for Raleigh Tuesday morning. He will be there indefinitely as he is on page for RICHARD MAUNEY of Murphy, recently elected representative to the 1953 Legislature. The school is really proud of H. C. and we know he will do a grand job.

MISS CARLENE KILPATRICK of Peachtree, left Sunday, returning to the University of Tennessee at Knoxville, where she will continue her studies as freshman.

MISS JEANNE ELLIOTT returned to South Carolina the other day where she will continue school at the Wesleyan Methodist College.

MISS BARBARA Arnold, with her aunt and uncle in Knoxville, went to Dallas, Texas, last week to see the Cotton Bowl Game.

WADE ZIMMERMAN, who has been in the Army, came home on furlough last week end to be with his parents.

Andrews Wedding Is Revealed
