Miss Dockery, Almond Wed. In Washington

Miss Mary Ruth Dockery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Dockery of Marble, became the bride of Charles Thurston Almond Jr. of Washington, D. C. son of Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Almond of Andrews, Thursday at 4:30 p. m. in the Tacoma Park Baptist Church, Washington, D. C.

The Rev. Herbert W. Baucum performed the double ring ceremony. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. W. D. Diddlekauff, organist.

The church was decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and anemones interspersed with candelabra and fern.

The couple entered the church together. The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin fashioned with a fitted bodice and sleeves ending in calla points over the hand. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a lace cap and she carried a white Bible topped with white orchids.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of light blue crepe with navy accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue crepe dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a light blue suit with navy accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Almond attended Western Carolina Teachers College. Mr. Almond attended Mars Hill College and the University of Virginia, Charlottesville. He served with the Navy during World War II.

Woman Talk

By EMILY COSTELLO

I had an awfully nice visit last week from pretty JEAN REICHMAN (Mrs. Eric) of Andrews, at which time she expressed interest in teaching a dancing class in Murphy.

And from what I hear from the "mamas" of lots of the cute little folks in town, that is good news.

Jean who is a very, very lovely blonde hailing from England, is the wife of a chicken rancher and the mother of a tiny daughter, who, I certainly expect will soon be dancing in her mother's footsteps.

I believe Jean was approached about the class when local folks learned that ELIZABETH AND DON OSCAR BECK, who taught here last year, will not be coming back. (By the grapevine news says they're taking a position which well may be a step toward TV.)

For the present Jean's interest is in classical and ballet dancing, posture and rhythm for children (classes from 4 to 6 years; 6-9 years old; and 9-12) and maybe ballroom for teens and adults later on if interest is shown.

For one lesson a week—Tuesday afternoons—the classes will cost $5.00.

Jean received her training in her native England at the famed Royal Academy of Ballet, where she also taught. She will conduct her Murphy classes in the recreation room at the library building.

My first visit to Hangingdog community was under circumstances other than pleasant when I went with BONNIE KIMSEY (Mrs. Leon) to the home of her late grandfather, "UNCLE BOB" KEPPHART, who died suddenly early Monday morning.

And although the atmosphere was one of grief, I was very impressed with the warmth and comfort of numerous sympathetic neighbors and relatives.

As we sat around the blazing fire in the years old hearth, I felt the warmth from the fire itself was no greater than that of the love of friends and family. He must have been a wonderful man, and certainly was beloved.

day from a two weeks' fishing trip to Florida.

Mrs. R. S. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Barnell were in Atlanta Saturday on business.

Miss Jane Sneed and Mrs. John Carringer were week end guests of Mrs. Carringer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jen Bryson in Sylva.

Mrs. Francis Bourne, Sr., returned last Thursday from a two weeks' Caribbean Cruise. She and her sister, Mrs. J. H. Wood and daughter, Miss Eleanor Wood of Norfolk, Va. left Norfolk on the 7th of January on the S. S. Maasdam, Holland-American Line.

Their first stop was at Port au Prince, Haiti, next Venezuela, then at Barbados, British West Indies, then Martinique and the final stop at San Juan, Porto Rico. Mrs. Bourne flew from Norfolk to Asheville, arriving home Thursday.

PARTY THIS WEEK

Last week I was all set to go to the Folk School benefit party until LOUISE GAULT (Mrs. Lynn) phoned to tell me I was all wrong and the party is this Saturday (Jan. 31), so we still have it to look forward to.

And if you don't go out to the Folk School, you could drop in at the Civitan benefit square dance at the gym.

Anyway, plan to spend this Saturday night having fun and for the worthy March of Dimes cause.

ETHEL HAMILTON (Mrs. Joe) always looks like she just stepped out of a bandbox anyway, but you should see her now! She says that "new look" in her clothes is from the new cleaning method they have recently installed.

Greet Your Valentine With a Cupid's Cake

Cupid doesn't do everything in this world of ours, with the result that many a girl has won her own happiness with a helping hand.

Even though Leap Year, with its woman's right to pop the question directly is gone, a woman's initiative remains, and with it something special for HIM on Valentine's Day.

The surprise, in return for that special man that day, is a Cupid's Cake. It is a delicious self-rising cake that will bring smiles to sweethearts. It is quick and easy, for with self-rising flour you work the dough as lightly and as little as possible.

And you can be sure of results with this Cupid's Cake. Self-rising flour takes the guesswork out of cake baking, cutting oven failures almost to the vanishing point.

Bake him a Cupid's Cake, and watch HIM smile on Valentine's Day.

CUPID'S CAKE
 2 1/4 cup sifted self-rising flour
 1 1/4 cups sugar
 1/2 cup soft shortening
 1 cup sweet milk
 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla (or half almond)
 4 egg whites (1/4 cup)
 Sift together the flour and sugar.

Add shortening and half of the milk and beat two minutes. Add remaining milk, the flavoring and unbeaten egg whites and beat another two minutes. Pour into two 8-inch layer cake pans and bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) 30 to 35 minutes. Cool before frosting.

FROSTING
 2 egg whites, unbeaten
 1 1/2 cups sugar
 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar (or 1 teaspoon corn syrup)
 1/2 cup cold water
 Dash of salt
 1 teaspoon vanilla (or half almond)
 Red coloring

Place all ingredients except flavoring and coloring in top of double boiler; mix thoroughly. Cook over boiling water, beating constantly with rotary or electric beater until mixture forms peaks, about 7 minutes. Remove from heat, add flavoring, and beat until of spreading consistency. Reserve 1/2 cup frosting to color pink later and cover to prevent crust forming on top. Use remaining white frosting in filling and frosting for cake. After cake has been iced, allow to stand until a slight crust has formed. Trace heart and arrow design on the top, outline design with the pink frosting, then fill in the center design, with remaining pink frosting.
